Joe Goodwin and his champion boat of 1912-13 is not very eager for the fray, so it is claimed by the rival skippers. The altrond strengthening of this year's fleet has caused him to play wary, and he has been rather reluctant in starting he Zoraya in any of the races this year. The skippers have decided that he will have his chance to defend his laureis on Triday, but if he does not compete he should forfeit his right to the title of champion of Toronto Bay by default.
