PLAYED HOSE ON HINDUS. Canadian Press Despatch.
VANCOUVER, B. C., July 19.—A

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 19.—A large body of Vancouver police and a contingent of special immigration constables, numbering nearly 200 men, descended early Sunday morning in the tug Sea Lion upon the Komagata Maru, and after grappling her and playing a hose on the infuriated Hindus, were beaten back by showers of coal and other missiles. Many of the attacked were injured, some seriously. Such was the result of an unsucstant of the continuous continuous descendence. Such was the result of an unsucto rid the harbor of the Japanese steamer and her unwelcome passen-gers, whose application for entry into British Columbia has been refused by British Columbia has been refused by the court of appeals.

A day or two ago the Canadian Government decided, as an act of mercy, to provision the Komagata Maru for her voyage back to the orient, at a cost of $6000. Plans were carefully matured by Malcolm Reid, superintendent of the immigration department here; W. H. Stevens, M.P., and W. H. B. Ladner, with the result that at 1.10 this morning everything was in readiness. readiness.

Resistance Unexpected. A large quantity of provisions were on the tug, together with 125 city policemen, under Chief McLennan, and upwards of 50 special constables under Captain Warden. The scene as the Sea Lion pulled away from the Can-adian Pacific Railway Pier "A" was full of confidence and even hilarity.
The policemen had revolvers, and the special men rifles. The Sea Lion slowly steamed out to the Japanese steamer, which lies only a quarter of a mile off shore, opposite the immigra-Won headquarters. Upon arriving within hailing distance of the vesse it was seen that every inch of space along the rail and on the deck and bridge was occupied by a Hindu armed with a club or other weapon, while in the bow of the steamer a solid mass was congregated.

Back and forth and along the Hindus a hose was played, with, at first, as-tonishing results. Becaten back by the seething water they retreated in every direction and for the moment it seemed as the civic forces had commenced Dared to Face Hose. Only for a moment, however, the next moment a most startling change occurred. Rallying, a number of Hindus faced the stream and dashed in a shower of missiles upen the attacking party. This was followed by a tremendous startly and shower of missiles upen the attacking party. mendous storm of lumps of coal, which in a couple of minutes had completely upset the order which had reigned aboard the Sea Lion. The crowded mass of men upon the deck of the the Hindus, and the latter were now the Hindus, and the latter were now the attacking party. For a few min-utes the air seemed full of coal, peices of wood, fire bricks and pieces of iron from what is believed the wreckage of the engine room.
