PRODUCE MEN HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Handling and Packing of Eggs and Poultry Chief Items of Interest.

Special to The Toronto World.
GUELPH, Jan. 11.—The third annual meeting of the Canadian Produce Association is being held in the new poultry building at the Ontario Agricultural College, today and tomorrow.

About 150 delegates are present from all parts of the country. The principal interest is centred in the handling and packing of eggs and poultry.

At tomorrow morning's session an address and demonstration in the packing of a case of eggs, by Dr. Mary Pennington of the United States department of agriculture, will be the feature.

An address of welcome was delivered by Dr. Croelman this afternoon. Prof. W. B. Graham presented a paper on the standardization of eggs today. Addresses were also given by H. B. Climes of Guelph, and A. E. Silverwood of London.

At the close of the session, the delegates will be entertained at a banquet at the Hotel Guelph.

The meeting will adjourn tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Canadian Produce Association was organized in 1907, and has since that time been working for the improvement of the poultry industry in Canada.

The association's headquarters are at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont.

The association's members are the producers of eggs and poultry in Canada, and are organized into local associations throughout the country.

The association's objects are to improve the quality of eggs and poultry, to standardize the packing and handling of eggs and poultry, and to promote the interests of the poultry industry in Canada.

The association's annual meeting is one of the most important events in the poultry industry in Canada, and is attended by delegates from all parts of the country.

The association's annual meeting is held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont., and is held in the new poultry building.
