

JOHN CATTO & SON

Tween Season Specials

Notwithstanding the sharp advance in all classes of textile commodities, owing to war restrictions, we have decided to offer a clean-up of several broken range lines, etc., at special price advantages.

LACE CURTAINS

Price specials in Nottingham Lace Curtains, single and double boures, 3 and 5 yards long. (Of most of these we have only three or four pairs of a kind, hence our clearance prices of special advantage.)

CURTAIN NETS

Pin display of new designs in Curtain Nets, 15 to 24-inch, proved very advantageous at 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c, 95c, $1.00 and $1.25.

WOOL FILLED COMFORTERS

A choice range of double-bed sizes, in all-wool, nicely tufted coverings, warm and comfortable, $4.00 each.

TABLE CLOTHS

Pure Linen Damask Table Cloths, in assorted good patterns, wide quality range.

NAPKINS

Extensive assortment of patterns, as spots, stripes, flowers, conventional designs, damasks, etc., in all colors.

BEDROOM TOWELS

24 x 48-inch, hemstitched, pure linen, damask, or buck with overland damask patterns, worth 60 per cent. more than our special figure, $2.00 per dozen.

JOHN CATTO & SON

55 to 61 KING ST. EAST, TORONTO.

FORMER U.S. OFFICERS GIVEN COMMISSIONS

Gallant Soldiers of Fortune With First and Second Contingents.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, March 4.—Several of the officers who held commissions in the first and second Canadian expeditionary forces were formerly officers in the U.S. Army. This was shown by a statement issued by the militia department today. Included in the list are the following:

Capt. Herbert W. M. McBride, late 1st Regiment of Infantry, Indiana National State Guard, appointed captain in the Canadian militia and detailed to 8th Battalion, C.E.F., as adjutant.

Capt. H. C. Bustin, late lieutenant in the first regiment of cavalry, Ohio National State Guard, Cincinnati, O., now serving as captain with the 5th Battalion, C.E.F., from Jan. 1, 1915.

Major Charles W. Stewart, late lieutenant, 6th Regiment U. S. Cavalry, appointed captain, 1st Battalion, 5th Regiment, C.M.R., Jan. 15, 1915, and now serving in charge of recruits on voyage to England from St. John, N. B.

FORT GARRY HORSE HAS LOST IDENTITY

Five Hundred Retained as Cavalry Unit, Training at Salisbury.

Canadian Press Despatch. WINNIPEG, March 4.—Interesting letters have been received here from members of the Fort Garry Horse, 500 of whom are now stationed at Tidmouth Barracks, Salisbury Plain, where they are going through their training as a cavalry unit.

This corps, consisting from the social point of view of the elite of Winnipeg, has had its vicissitudes. Apparently, it reached Valcartier, apparently against the wishes of the militia department, and shortly after the regiment reached Salisbury it was broken up. The corps has been carefully hand-picked, until 500 men have been retained as a cavalry unit, while the balance have been drafted into line battalions at the front.

The Fort Garry Horse went over as the 16th Infantry Battalion, Lt.-Col. W. Patterson of Winnipeg remains in command at Tidmouth.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

ALL KIDNEY DISEASES. BRONCHITIS, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL, DIABETES, BACKACHE.

23 THE PRO...

THE WEATHER

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, March 4.—(9 p.m.) The disturbance which was situated last night over Texas is moving slowly with increased energy towards the Great Lakes, while the cold wave is now confined to the northward of Lake Superior. Snow has fallen today in Cape Breton otherwise fair weather has prevailed generally.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson, 5 below zero; Prince Rupert, 18-24; Victoria, 42-50; Kamloops, 18-46; Edmonton, 3-26; Battleford, 5-39; Saskatoon, 10-27; Regina, 10-27; Medicine Hat, 12-34; Moose Jaw, 5-23; London, 11-11; Toronto, 15-26; Ottawa, 4-28; Montreal, 8-24; Quebec, 14-30; Halifax, 24-34.

Probabilities.—Northern and western winds; fair and moderate; with snow towards evening; turning in some localities to sleet or rain.

Lower Lakes—strong winds and snow, easterly to northeasterly, with snow towards evening; turning in some localities to sleet or rain.

Georgian Bay—increasing northeasterly to easterly winds with snow by night.

Ontario Valley and Upper St. Lawrence—Northerly to northeasterly winds, increasing in force; fair and moderately cold today.

Lower St. Lawrence, Gulf and Maritime—Northerly, shifting to northeasterly winds; fair and moderately cold.

Superior—increasing northerly to easterly winds; fair today, followed by local snowfalls.

Manitoba—Fair, not much change in temperature.

THE BAROMETER.

Time.	Ther.	Bar.	Wind.
8 a.m.	14	30.10	12 N.
11 a.m.	15	30.12	12 N.
2 p.m.	17	30.11	8 N.W.
4 p.m.	18	30.10	8 N.W.
7 p.m.	18	30.10	8 N.W.

Mean of day, 18; difference from average, 5 below; highest, 27; lowest, 12.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.

At.	From.
March 4.
Hellgövar...	Copenhagen ...New York

STREET CAR DELAYS

Thursday, March 4th, 1915. Queen's car, westbound at 2.38 p.m. delayed 12 minutes by parade on Queen from Dufferin to Roncesvalles.

King car, eastbound at 3.16 p.m. delayed 14 minutes by parade on King from Roncesvalles to Dufferin.

College car, westbound, delayed 6 minutes at Lansdowne and College by wagon on track at 11:45 a.m.

Avenue Road car, southbound, delayed 9 minutes at Avenue Road and Alcorn by auto stuck on track at 1:41 p.m.

Yonge cars, both ways, delayed 6 minutes at Coller and Yonge by parade at 4:48 p.m.

King cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Front cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Front cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Front cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Front cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Front cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 4 minutes at G. T. R. crossing by train at 5:15 p.m.

GILLET'S EYE

FOR MAKING SOAP, SOFTENING WATER, CLEANING AND DISINFECTING SINKS, CLOSETS, DRAINS, AND FOR MANY OTHER PURPOSES.

THE STANDARD ARTICLE SOLD EVERYWHERE. REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

INTERN BOER REBELS UNTIL END OF WAR

Ten Thousand Prisoners Taken During Rebellion—Prosecute Leaders.

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, March 4.—A news agency despatch from Cape Town, South Africa, published here today, says:

Ten thousand Boer rebels were taken prisoner during the recent rebellion against British authority in the colony, and the losses on both sides totaled 1000, Finance Minister Smuts announced in the assembly today.

The rebels will be imprisoned until the end of the European war, the government announced, owing to the impracticability of meting out adequate punishment at this time. The 293 ringleaders will be prosecuted at once.

GREECE TO DECIDE ON COURSE TODAY?

Second Crown Council Will Deliberate on War Question.

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, March 4.—A second crown council to deliberate on the question of the course Greece shall pursue in the present crisis was called today for Friday, says an Athens despatch to the Hellenic Agency.

Happer, Customs Broker, McKinnon Bldg., 10 Jordan St., Toronto.

Holland's Chapter in the Story of the War—Pictured

Expressed more strikingly, more clearly than any pen can tell, Holland's part in the war is told in the double-page of rotogravure pictures that is the feature of the coming issue of The Sunday World. That it is a big part, bigger than we realize, is related by photographs from the land whose borders are dyked with soldiers against the full flood of the great struggle, where British sailors and Belgians wait out weary days.

Conferring of Degrees Upon Soldier-Students

Another feature this coming Sunday is a large photograph taken in Convocation Hall, showing the honors of learning being bestowed upon soldiers of the second contingent.

Full Group of 2nd Contingent Officers

This picture, which includes practically all the officers connected with the Toronto Military District's second overseas force, has both topical and historical value. There are dozens of other timely pictures in The Sunday World, each one having interest of a special sort.

SUNDAY MAGAZINE READING

HAS MME. HENRI REALLY DISCOVERED THE SECRET OF LIFE?

A woman's remarkable laboratory "find," and why it may have an important bearing on the scientific study of vital forces.

THEY WENT TO THE MOVIES

Wherein is written the moving tale of the movies, their menace and their marvelous boon to the burdened minds of men.

TEACHING CHILDREN TO LISTEN WITH THEIR HANDS AND EYES

Ontario's new and magic methods of giving the gift of speech to those who cannot hear the spoken word.

THE ASTONISHING ARITHMETIC OF THE WAR

An Italian scientist's startling revelation of the human bulk and money cost in life, in property, and operating expenses.

HER HAIR

Variations in the latest coiffures that recall many ancient fashions in woman's crowning glory.

WOMEN WHO ARE WEARING TROUSERS

Not always in public, like Mrs. Vernon Castle, but as a comfortable expedient, in the home.

RUDYARD KIPLING'S TALES

The third page of a series of little known stories by the famous author, and which represent his earlier style.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

Mrs. Hendrie is giving a luncheon today at the Garrison House.

The marriage took place yesterday afternoon in St. Simon's Church very quietly, the Rev. Edward Carley officiating.

Dr. Harrison playing the wedding music, of Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crowley, Langham House, Warrington, England, to Miss Edith St. George Bond, Royal Canadian Engineers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hedges Bond, who was attended by his brother. The newly fair-haired young bride was brought in and given away by her cousin, Mr. Wilfred Wilson (Napoleon), wearing a very handsome gown of Mazarin blue velvet, the corsage of blue chiffon over crimson chiffon, with a real lace collar upstanding at the back and turning back from the neck in a long open point, a small hat to match edged with ostrich, and some tiny French flowers completed a very becoming costume. She carried a bouquet of exquisite orchids from the Casa Loma green house, and on leaving wore a long black coat trimmed with skunk. After the ceremony Mrs. Arthur Wright, sister of the groom, held a reception at her house in Church street for the family and a few intimate friends, when she was looking very pretty in a copper satin, with corsage and skirt of a smart black hat. Dr. Wright received with his wife and the bride and groom, who stood under a bell of white and pink carnations, the groom wearing his service uniform. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and put with the groom's sword. Mr. and Mrs. Bond left for Montreal, en route to Quebec, where the groom is stationed, and has a suite of rooms at the St. Louis hotel he leaves for the front. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's aunt from Napawan, who received with her, wore a handsome gown of mignonette green, with a very handsome corsage of the same shade, and a black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Mrs. Hedges Bond, mother of the groom, looked very handsome in black velvet and chiffon trimmed with skunk. Small black hat with upstanding feathers. The upstairs drawing room was fragrant and bright with bowls of hyacinths and tulips, and masses of daffodils, which were centred the bride's table in the dining room. The bride cake, which was the work of the groom's sister, Miss June Allen, was decorated with mauve orchids and