INSPECTOR HUGHES' DUTY FORGIVENESS IS NOT ALL

So He Writes Very Frankly in Reply to the Critics of Lord's Day Alliance.

The Ontario Lord's Day Alliance had some pretty severe comments to make because Toronto school teachers traveled home from Pittsburg on a Sun day. Inspector Hughes has drafted a reply, in which he says:

It is difficult to treat such a document seriously. I was at first disposed to overlook the impertinence of your society in consideration of its earnestness and drop your resolution in the waste paper basket. I have decided, however, that it is more dignified to reply merely to forgive you, and with the sincere hope of doing you some little good to venture to reply to you.

Your resolution is divided into two parts—one to regret, the other to resolve. The main portion, which expresses regret, deserves little attention. It is only necessary to inform you most respectfully but most emphatically, that the teachers who went to Pittsburg believe in keeping the Sabbath, and that they are quite as wise, as honest, and moral, and God loving, and as earnest in their desire to do good, and fully as capable of deciding what is right, as the society you represent. We did not go to Pittsburg, as some people assume, for pleasure. We went to secure broader development and wider vision.

I am sorry to be compelled to take away even the small amount of happiness which your society says it obtained from our trip. You were informed that the majority of the teachers returned to us because they would not consent to break the Sabbath in traveling home. Your informant told you that was true. For five years some of the teachers have gone to Buffalo, Detroit, Ottawa, Quebec, and other places, attending a convention in Toronto. Hundreds of teachers are also at home each year to attend the convention, even when the excursion was to a city near Toronto. I knew that a smaller

FOUR INCENDIARY FIRES.

Kept Sarnia Firemen Very Busy During Thursday Night.

Sarnia, Nov. 17.—While firemen were extinguishing a blaze at Sharp's blacksmith shop at 1 o'clock this morning another fire at the storehouse of the Hub and Spoke Works, owned by Fred Loughhead, the ex-champion cyclist, demanded their best efforts. Earlier in the night two other blazes had been extinguished in favor of the same place. $1000 loss was incurred at Loughhead's.

All four fires were purged of incendiary origin. Had any of them not a proper start, a costly conflagration would have resulted.

AN UNSOLICITED FOREIGN OPINION.

The following editorial appeared in the issues of the "United States Trade Reporter" of Nov. 15, unsolicited by the Gerhart Heintzman, Limited.

THE BEST MAKE OF PIANOS.

We fully appreciate the unhesitant prospective buyer finds in obtaining a truthful and correct answer to the question, "Which is the best make of piano?"

In the first place, he himself cannot know all the different makes, and therefore cannot decide for himself.

Second, he cannot depend on the opinion of others, as they, like himself, cannot know all the various makes, or may be prejudiced in favor of one make and against another.

Third, he cannot take his choice from reading matter and advertisements of manufacturers, since one and all believe they are right, and justified in saying so, claim their respective make the best.

Fourth, we cannot expect to have this question answered by any journal devoted to the trade, for in doing so such journal would commit financial suicide, since all other manufacturers would be obliged to do the same.

Therefore, we cannot expect to have this question answered by any journal devoted to the trade, for in doing so such journal would commit financial suicide, since all other manufacturers would be obliged to do the same.
