eggs, dated July 21, reports that the first outside news reached there July 18. The failure of the relief expedition made the siege far more perilous.

"On June 19 the Tsung Yi Yamen broke off relations. June 20 Lin Chien declared war."

"Baron Von Ketteler and Francis James, an English professor, were murdered."

"Over 400 non-combatants occupied the British legation. I understand covers are holding the north cathedral. A thousand refugees occupied the palace of Prince Lu."

Trace Began July 17. "A trace began July 17, after 26 days of fierce assault. One night the shelling was interrupted for six hours."

"To Fire British Legation. Four attempts were made to fire the British legation. Two attacks resulted in the ruin of Han Lin College, the Chinese National College. The cowardice of the Chinese prevented a successful raiding."

The Total Dead. "The total killed or dead is: Germans, 10; Japanese, 10; French, 11; British, 5; Russians, 4; Americans, 7; Italians, 7; converts, 9. Total, with wounded, 106."

"The correspondents Morrison, Held and Tenney are ill."

Chinese Lost 2000. "At least 2000 Chinese have been killed."

"The Americans occupy a strong position on the city wall."

"Provisions are still sufficient. The hospital arrangements are excellent. Everybody is much exhausted by continuous work."

Don't Be Hoodwinked. "Imperial edicts have commanded the Bozers and ordered missionaries to leave the interior and commanded all viceroys to help Peking, but an edict, dated July 26, enjoins protection and promises compensation. The report that a large relief force was coming produced this change."

"Foreign Governments should beware of being hoodwinked."

NEWS FROM PEKIN JULY 23

Military Attache at the U. S. Legation Calls for Help for Liberty

Holding Out. Washington, July 31.—Ambulant General Corbin today received a despatch from Lieut.-Col. Coolidge, commanding the 5th Infantry at Tien Tsin. It came by way of Che Foo, and is as follows:

"Tien Tsin, July 23.—Following letter of Lieut.-Col. Shiba, military attache at the legation of Peking, dated July 23, arrived Tien Tsin, 23th, at 9 o'clock in the evening."

"Peking, July 23.—(Evening).—We are all awaiting impatiently arrival of reinforcing army. When are you coming? All legations have been blockaded since 13th last month, and since the 20th we have been attacked continuously by the Chinese by more than 10,000 men. By a supreme effort we are still defending. We are daily awaiting with the greatest anxiety reinforcing army, and if you can't reach here in less than a week's time it is probable we will be unable to hold out any longer. Emperor and Empress Dowager appear to be still at Peking. We are reinforcements to arrive, very probably they would flee to Wanhsien. Killed and wounded up to date—Killed, one captain of infantry and an ambassador's attache; 7 seriously wounded; the first secretary of the legation being one of 20 slightly wounded. The number of Europeans killed is 60 in all. Coolidge."

"The Russian Consul at Kuddja sends the following, under date of July 27:

"The Governor of Kuddja received orders from the Emperor to exterminate the Russians, and the Chinese were preparing to execute the command, but since the arrival of Russian troops for the protection of the consulate, matters have been quiet."

The Russian Consul at Kasgar reports an alarming state of affairs there, owing to the statement among the Chinese troops.

AN IMMEDIATE ADVANCE

Is Contemplated by the Commander of the British Forces in China.

London, July 31.—In the House of Commons today Parliamentary Secretary Brodrick announced the receipt of a despatch from Gen. Sir Alfred Gaselee, commanding the British forces in China, stating that he contemplated an immediate advance on Peking, and that he hoped to have the co-operation of the allied forces.

A Call for Help. Rome, July 31.—The commander of the Italian cruiser Elba, at Tien Tsin, received the following telegram today from the Japanese military attache at Peking, dated July 22:

"The legations are eagerly awaiting relief. Cannot hold out long. Sixty Europeans killed."

ANOTHER MESSAGE FROM CONGER

Which Says That Since July 16, by Agreement, There Has Been No Firing on Legations.

Washington, July 31.—The War Department this evening received two cables from China. The first read:

"Che Foo (undated).—To Corbin, Washington: Tien Tsin, July 27. Message just received from Conger, says since 16th, by agreement, no firing. Have provisions several weeks. Little ammunition; all safe. I (Daggett) report allied forces soon advance. Practically no looting by Americans, no unnecessary killing. In Canada arrived 20th. Order MacCann, Sladen, both Allies, Mitchell, Biles, Jola regiment here. (Sgd.) Daggett."

Men Who Are Needed. The second read:

"Che Foo.—To Corbin, Washington. Tien Tsin, July 30.—Fifteen arrived 27th. Two hundred and fifty-seven 8th Infantry sick, 10 doctors, 100 hospital corps men, 20 signal men needed; unavoidable delay unloading transports. Foreign troops arriving. (Sgd.) Daggett."

Russians Captured Forts. Berns, July 31.—Communication between Che Foo and Shanghai has been re-established, and a despatch from Che Foo, dated July 29, confirms the report that the Russians captured the forts at New Chwang on July 26.

Unfortunates at Pao Ting Fu. Washington, July 31.—The following telegram was received at the State Department this afternoon, from Consul Fowler, at Che Foo:

Che Foo, July 31. Secretary of State, Washington: Thirty-first, Twenty-first, wired Governor for information. Pao Ting Fu. Nine days unannounced. Wined yesterday. He now replies Pao Ting Fu city and neighborhood thick with rebels; impossible to obtain slightest news or send messengers. My latest information shows the following were at Pao Ting Fu: Simons, wife, three children; Hedge and wife, Taylor, Wilmore, Miss, Morell, American and Bagnall, wife, daughter, and probably Cooper. (Sgd.) Fowler.

Affairs in Canton. Acting Viceroy is Active, and Adopting a Vigorous Policy to Keep Peace.

Hong Kong, Monday, July 30.—The Acting Viceroy of Canton, it is reported, is becoming more active, and adopting a more vigorous policy. It is announced that he has ordered the execution of 40 pirates, to-morrow he will visit the foreign warships and Consuls. He says Li Hung Chang is not returning to Canton, where quiet prevails.

A Serious Prediction. "Li Hung Chang's statement that the lives of the Ministers would be endangered by such an advance is not such a piece of diplomacy, but serious prediction of the consequences. In Fu Sang is known to be anti-foreign in his sentiments, but we cannot dispense with his services; and, having a large number of soldiers under him, he might cause a European massacre, which the Emperor and Empress would be unable to prevent."

Will Mean Destruction. "My object now is to advise the allies not to do an act of vengeance, but to restore peace and to secure guarantees for the future. This can be done by co-operating with Li Hung Chang. If you push on to Peking, I believe you will provoke a general rising throughout the empire, the result of which will be the destruction of the lives and property of foreigners everywhere."

GERMAN HOPES HIGH That All the Ministers, With the Exception of Von Ketteler, Are Alive.

Berlin, July 31.—Hope regarding the security of the foreigners in Peking rose somewhat in Berlin. The German Foreign Office no longer doubts that the Ministers, except Baron Von Ketteler, are alive.

The papers take the same view and urge that there be no delay in the advance upon Peking. The Foreign Office is mortified by the failure to agree on commander-in-chief of the allies' troops. The Chinese Minister, Lu, received today a despatch reporting to come from the Peking Government, saying the foreign legation would be sent to Tien Tsin whenever the preparation for their safe escort was completed and open hostilities ceased. Meanwhile permission would be given them to communicate freely with their Governments.

This despatch was transmitted to the German Foreign Minister.

FROM RUSSIAN SOURCES. Chinese Villages Burned and a Garrison of 2000 Driven Out of Peking.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Official reports have been received here that the Chinese again bombarded Blagovestchensk, capital of the Amur Government, on July 29 and July 30. The Russian garrisons and reinforcements were then approaching.

On July 28 a steamer arrived at Luchuan, towing three boats from Charin, with 3500 refugees, including 120 sick and wounded.

A Russian force crossed the frontier at Abagait on July 26. Work on the railway has been resumed there.

The Russians have burned some Chinese villages and expelled a Chinese garrison of 2000 from the fortress at Bajiantun, capturing five Krupp guns which had not yet been mounted, the carriage of four naval guns and a quantity of ammunition.

The Russian Consul at Kuddja sends the following, under date of July 27:

"The Governor of Kuddja received orders from the Emperor to exterminate the Russians, and the Chinese were preparing to execute the command, but since the arrival of Russian troops for the protection of the consulate, matters have been quiet."

The Russian Consul at Kasgar reports an alarming state of affairs there, owing to the statement among the Chinese troops.

DETAINING 600 EUROPEANS. That Many Are Held as Hostages, and the Ministers and Their Families Are Included.

Berlin, Aug. 1.—A despatch received here says: "The Chinese Government is detaining 600 Europeans as hostages, including the Ministers and their families and members of the legations."

It is believed here that when war is officially declared these will be ordered to leave Peking within 24 hours. They will then be at the mercy of the Bozers. China, it is thought, will consider that war has been declared as soon as the allies begin to march on Peking.

The Legations Destroyed. Paris, July 31.—According to despatches received at the Foreign Office today, the Austrian, Spanish, the Italian and the Holland legations at Peking have been destroyed, and the French legation has been partially wrecked. The attacks on the legations ceased some days ago. The Emperor and Empress are living in Peking.

Christians at Shouwa Plundered. Boston, July 31.—The American Board received a despatch today from Rev. J. E. Walker of Foo Chow, saying:

"Mob destroyed Shouwa property, Christians plundered."

Shows in the interior station of the American Board Mission in Foo Chow. The missionaries who are at this station are now in the United States. The number of church members last year at Shouwa was 503, while there were over 5000 who were under Christian instruction.

Chinese Government Not to Blame. Paris, July 31.—The Minister of Marine, M. De Lanesan, today received the following despatch from Admiral Courvoisier:

"Che Foo, July 26.—Many symptoms of greater calm—notably an imperial edict—are reaching us at Che Foo, in which the Chinese Government says it is not responsible for the condition of affairs; that all their acts have been towards the maintenance of peace, and that they intend to respect the treaties towards foreigners and missionaries."

From Japanese Sources. Shanghai, Monday, July 31.—The Japanese have news that 10,000 Chinese are attacking New Chwang, with 4000 Russians opposing them.

The Japanese Minister has forwarded a letter to Tien Tsin stating that the casualties at the Japanese Legation in Peking were Captain Anan, Attache Kojima and five marines killed and Secretary Narahara wounded.

French Artillery for China. Brast, July 31.—A detachment of marine artillery left this place today for Tientsin, where they will embark for China.

CHINESE AND RUSSIANS Had a Short, Sharp Battle and Both Sides Claim Victory.

Shanghai, July 31.—Private advices from New Chwang, dated July 27, say that the Russians attacked the Chinese settlement yesterday morning. The engagement lasted an hour and a half. The Chinese booted from their stockades, but the Russians after holding them for a short time, returned to their own settlement. The Chinese say they won, driving back the Russians.

The Russians had 4 wounded, and the Chinese 6 killed and 4 wounded.

GENERALS WHO TALK; GENERALS WHO DON'T. A Few Words About Generals Who Can Write and Generals Who Cannot or Do Not.

From the Chicago Journal. "Not many weeks ago, when the strain attendant on British operations had relaxed somewhat, a certain Cabinet Minister grew so homesick for his wife that he was obliged to delay the advance on Peking, not so far as he knew, had any other power."

Agreed to Speedy Advance. Lord Salisbury entirely acquiesced in Secretary Hie's desire that the advance be undertaken as speedily as possible. He had no intention of bargaining with China in any way, shape or form, until the Ministers were safe under their own military escort.

No Deal Can Be Made. The Associated Press correspondent here understands that China is making strenuous efforts to come to some agreement with the powers previous to handing over the Ministers; but this will not be considered for a moment. Once Hie has been reached and the Ministers have regained their liberty, the powers have agreed, aggression will cease and reparation will become a matter of negotiation.

Government May Not Be Responsible for the Maintenance of Order. Lord Salisbury believes it may still be proved that the Chinese Government is not responsible for the attacks on the legations except in so far as all governments are responsible for the maintenance of order.

It is expected that within a few days free communication will be established with the Ministers in Peking.

REFUSED CIPHER MESSAGES. Chinese Foreign Office Would Not Transmit a Despatch to U. S. Minister.

Brussels, Aug. 1.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. De Spaeyen, has received the following despatch from M. De Cartier de Marchienne, Secretary of the Belgian legation in China, now in Shanghai, dated July 31:

"On July 22 the Consul-General of the United States telegraphed the United States Minister in Peking, thru the intermediary of the local authorities, Sheng, the Tsotsi, that he had been informed that the Tsung Yi Yamen refused to transmit messages in cipher to the Minister and requested that all messages be in ordinary language."

DETAINING 600 EUROPEANS. That Many Are Held as Hostages, and the Ministers and Their Families Are Included.

while over 500 artists rendered gratuitous services. Hundreds of men and women who drop on the doorsteps at night, wearied with the day of toil, find a pleasure in these concerts comparable to nothing else in their narrow lives. The value of these concerts lies not solely in the pleasure which they give, however, for there is a moral effect, which perhaps lasts long after the concert songs have been forgotten. Without a hint from anyone, it was found that an hour or two before a concert was to begin, the people would try to get up the selected court or alley, sweeping the street and making such simple attempts at decoration as were possible with red-rutite, pipe clay and ornamented paper. Doors in houses sometimes borrow red flags, which bring the dark streets with an air suggestive of a gala fête. The jealous desire of one alley to excel another round the corner in the effort to brighten the surroundings, proved infectious, and now these people of the slums all vie with each other in decorating their home alleys for concert night. The program includes, besides music, magic lanterns and cinematograph entertainments.

One of the social settlements in Boston is about to put the idea into practice in this city. An orchestra concert will be given first for the benefit of the people living in certain tenement house districts, and if this is successful, other concerts will be given.—Boston Transcript.
