To the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of Toronto Junction:

We, the undersigned residents and ratepayers of Toronto Junction, petition your honorable body against passing a bylaw to expropriate the lands bounded by Keele-street, St. Clair-avenue, Argyle-street and West Toronto-street, for the Union Stocks Yards Campany, on the ground (among others) that the locating of such an industry in the very heart of our town will be detrimental to its welfare as a residential suburb, and will greatly depreciate the value of all lands in the neighborhood of the proposed yards, besides being a source of all lands in the neighborhood of the proposed yards, besides being a source of danger and continuous menace to the health of the chilzens. We are heartily in favor of having the stock yards located in the town, but feel that they should be placed in the outskirts, rather than in the very centre, and your pethtoners, as in duty bound, will ever pray. He believed and he hoped that the bylaw would not be put into force, as he felt convinced that nearly all the owners of the land required would sell to the company at reasonable figures.
