At The Theaters

"MALE AND FEMALE" AT THE GRAND ALL HIS WEEK.

"Male and Female," Cecil B. De Mille's production, founded on J. M. Barrie's play, "The Admirable Crichton," will be the photoplay offering at the Grand all this week, commencing with today's matinee. Imagine: A group of men and women suddenly flung on a desert isle. Master and man, mistress and maid—now only males and females. Birth, wealth, trappings vanished. A new life calling to each the worth where those who are strong lead, and those who are weak follow. Such is this great story. Ranging from the splendid house of an English earl to savage scenes in a tropical jungle, from nice convention of the cultured elite to uncontrolled passions of ancient Babylon.

Despite the lavish scale upon which the picture was screened, the inimitable Barrie humor and his whimsical touches are apparent throughout. Thomas Meighan has the leading role and other prominent players in the cast are Gloria Swanson, Lila Lee, Theodore Roberts, Bebe Daniels, Raymond Hatton and Guy Oliver. The added feature entitled "You're Pinched," the Pathe British-Canadian News, the Pathe Review and Topics of the Day.

The appearance of Miss Alice Graves at the Grand this week stands out as one of the principal events of the summer season. Miss Graves is a musical comedy star of great popularity with New York audiences, and also a supreme favorite with local audiences. During her engagement at the Grand this week Miss Graves will be heard in a delightful singing revue, in which she will be assisted at the piano by W. A. Bluetheiner.

"DON'T EVER MARRY." MIRTH-QUAKE OF HONEYMOON TROUBLES BY MARSHAL NEILAN AT ALLEN.

When three women claim one man for a husband it is bound to create trouble. Three hours after Benson had been advised "Don't Ever Marry," he secretly married the girl of his choice. His explanations in regard to the two unknown wives are bound to be funny in the extreme to anyone not involved, also when it develops that the other two wouldn't have him for a husband on a bet anyway, but were just using his nice disposition to further their own sweet romances.

Of such complicated humor is Marshal Neilan's great comedy "Don't Ever Marry," which is starring Marjorie Day, Mat Moore and the most amusing of all juvenile comedians, Wesley Barry. Laughs than Wesley has trickles on his face. "Don't Ever Marry" is presented at the Allen today, tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday, four days the week.

Presented on the same program will be special comedies, news pictures, Bruce Seaton and another of those much-appreciated organ recitals by Mr. Ireland, Allen's head organist.

WILLIAM RUSSELL IN HAROLD TITUS STORY.
A man's god-like love for a woman is the theme of the great photoplay "Shod With Fire," a William Fox production starring William Russell, which will be shown for the first time at the Patricia Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

This is the charmingly romantic love song of the olden time that is said to grip the heart and stir the soul. The play has been made from the intensely dramatic story "Brace of Brattle," by Harold Titus. The scenario was written by J. Anthony Roach, and the play was directed by Emmett J. Flynn.

The cast includes Helen Foran, Betty Schade, Robert Cain, George Stewart, Nelson McDowell and Jack Connolly.

A Universal western drama "Two From Texas" and a Rainbow comedy "Love Like He Lied" will complete the program.

AT LOEW'S.
Wallace Reid, that speed boy of film-dom, comes back to Loew's and will grace the screen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in one of the fastest pictures of his entire career, entitled "Excuse My Dust," as in his former picture, "Double Speed," there is love, romance and heaps of that speed stuff, such as no other stars instill into their pictures. There is some real auto racing and thrilling just east the road when it comes to speed. You enjoyed "Double Speed," and we'll wager, you'll more than enjoy "Excuse My Dust."

The vaudeville comprises a delightful dance revue, "Peacock Revue." Three winsome girls with dapper young men will delight with a variety of the season's latest dances. Some splendid scenic effects and artistic costuming are features of the offering. Earl Hampton and Marjorie Blake will offer a tidy little singing skit entitled "A Satire."

Their comedy efforts are said to be something out of the ordinary, and fewer fans are promised a real treat at the hands of these capable artists. The Crouch-Richards Trio will offer a classy musical revue of classical and popular selections, that should more than fill the bill. The added features include the ever popular Screen Pictorial and a rattling good comedy feature.

"DON'T LIE TO YOUR WIFE" WITH BEAUTY, MUSIC, FUN AT MAJESTIC.

The N. C. Haines Musical Stock Company are presenting one of the best of musical farce hits at the Majestic today, tomorrow and Wednesday "Don't Lie To Your Wife," one of those rollicking, humorous and mirth-provoking productions with a laugh in every line in the attraction. The program is marked by an entire change of costume, and the charming beauty chorus will introduce a number of the newest and latest song and dance numbers of the season. Miss Irene Glenmoure, the famous little Canadian dancer, will be a feature attraction, as will also be the five vaudeville novelties presented with this production.

The Paramount-Artcraft special "Oh, You Women," starring Ernest Truex and Louis Huff will be the feature film attraction and a special comedy with scenic will complete one of the best programs of entertainment in the city. A real jazz orchestra provides the music.

The Metropole Cafe, a well-known local restaurant carried on at No. 373 Richmond Street, London, by Abdul Ahmed and Louis Stein, has been sold to Messrs. Zaffrin Bros., and the new owners will assume possession on July 1, 1920. Messrs. Zaffrin Bros. have had a large experience in this line of business and their reputation and wish has always been to give their customers the best possible service, food and accommodation at reasonable prices, and they are most desirous of obtaining the good-will of all their patrons. A VERITABLE HORSE FAIR IS THE SPARKS CIRCUS.

Despite the fact that the automobile business is increasing month by month, there yet remains the keenest interest in the horse perhaps not as a beast of burden, but as an animal of symmetry, intelligence and beauty. And that is one of the reasons why the Sparks Big Three-Ring Circus, which is to appear in this city Wednesday, July 30, carries with it a horse fair equalled by no other circus in the world.

In the large tent adjoining the menagerie, the horse fair forms a daily adjunct to the trip into the big show. And so, when the circus arrives and you have paid your admission, do not forget that feature of the circus, for it is worth seeing.

In the fair this year will be found specimens of the purest bred Percherons possible to obtain, as well as representatives of the thoroughbred, standard-bred Suffolk, puncher, coach horses, hackneys, hunters and horses for general purposes.

"For years and years I wrote poetry," remarked the affluent-looking stranger, "I wrote it until I was forced by cold and hunger to take up a commercial line. What was that?"

ANOTHER LINE OF BUSINESS.
"For years and years I wrote poetry," remarked the affluent-looking stranger, "I wrote it until I was forced by cold and hunger to take up a commercial line. What was that?"

"Writing verses."

ATTEMPT TO REGAIN CHILDREN IS OPPOSED

C. A. S. of Opinion Home Unfit For Them—Court Case Enlarged.

An attempt on the part of George and Alice Turner of the village of Lyons in Elgin County to regain the custody of their children in the weekly Lennox court sessions before Justice Lennox Saturday was strongly opposed by the Children's Aid Society of Woodstock, whose wards the children are at present. The application of the parents who are being denied their children was opposed by the Children's Aid Society on the grounds that the children while in the parents' care were not properly looked after and that conditions are not yet such that the well-being of the children will be guaranteed. The case was enlarged until the first court after the summer vacation.

In the case of the Hook estate, E. W. M. Flock obtained an order for the payment out of court to the executor of the estate of the late George Hook, who died last year.

In the case of Mathews and Mathews an application was made under the vendors' and purchasers' act to show a valid title could be given. Judgment was reserved. W. C. Brown of Tillamook appeared for the vendor and F. H. Greenleaf for the purchaser.

application by E. L. Nichols for a judgment for administration of the estate of the late Lawrence Nichols of Westminster Township, which had been diligent in endeavoring to wind up the estate, but it was impossible to do so, owing to the moratorium act preventing the sale of mortgages. W. R. Meredith appeared for the motion, and J. B. McKillop for the executors.

Regarding the case of Abdul Hameed, vendor, and Zaffrin Brothers, purchasers, an order was made declaring the vendors, who are the lessees of the Metropole restaurant, have power to make a valid assignment of their lease to the purchasers. G. H. Tennent appeared for the vendors; W. R. Meredith for the purchasers, and J. A. E. Braden for the landlords, who are the Gibbons estate.

Regarding James Carmichael and Albert G. Hodgins, a motion under the vendors' and purchasers' act on behalf of the purchaser on a question of title, the purchaser's solicitor by letter having stated that he had no instruction, the application was adjourned and may be taken up either here or in Toronto.

In the case of Lewis against Lewis, an application for alimony, the defendant having been served by advertisement, but failing to appear or file a defence, a motion for judgment for the plaintiff was granted.

Re McGinn, an application for an increase of allowance to be paid for nursing and board of an aged invalid lady, was granted.

Re Baylies, an order was made giving leave to serve the widow, residing somewhere in the United States, with a notice of motion, returnable at the first weekly court after vacation, for the purpose of returning and order to be taken up either here or in Toronto.
