PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"GIRLS" AT THE ALEXANDRA.

"GIRLS" AT THE ALEXANDRA.

For their tenth big week at the Alexandra Theatre the Robins Players will present the delightful comedy "Girls." This dainty exploitation of feminine folibles is perhaps the joillest farce comedy of the age, because it reflects an amusingly exaggerated phase of life which is keenly appreciated even by the members of the sex so artistically caricatured. "Girls" has for its chief characters three young women who have taken an oath to always remain man-haters. They live a joily existence, entirely independent of the masculine sex, until the right man comes along, and from this on the kingdom of woman is disturbed in a most laughable way. "Girls" will be given an elaborate production and will enlist the services of all members. The regular matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

HIPPODROME.

In "After the Wedding," Joseph Hart's clever comedy sketch, which will headline the bill at the Hippodrome next week, patrons of the popular Teraulay street theatre will see one of the brightest and most amusing offerings in vaudeville. Frank Mills, the clever Triangle star, will be featured in "The Moral Fabric," a feature that effectually disposes of the "frec love" or affinity uestqion. The Morton Jewell Troupe of Indian club swingers perform many dexterous feats, while Mabel Mack is a singing comedienne with a voice of surprising range, quality and clarity. The Jewell Trio nave an eccentric singing and dancing offering, while Prince Kindai has a unique and original offering that is said to be very good. Wheeler and Dolan in a pleasing terpsichorean offering and Keystone feature film comedies complete a bright all-round bill. Ottawa; Medical Corps, Halifax, and

The "Phun Phiends," with Bill Cunningham and Jack Hallen, supported by a chorus of six of the prettlest and cleverest girls that ever stepped off Broadway, will be the feature. The other headliners will be Lottie Williams, former star of Blaney melodramas, in her sketch "On Stony Ground": Cooper and Smith, two of the cleverest colored comedians in the country, with their "Hotel Gossip." will be another big act on this bill. They appear as a bellboy and a porter, assisted by a grand piano, and put over one of the cleverest acts in vaudeville. Adele Jason, a new song beauty, with popular hits, and many others, besides the Iron Claw Serial, will complete the bill.

FORMER BOOKKEEPER

CHARGED WITH THEFT

Private W. A. Bew, formerly a book-keeper for the firm of Dewart, Maw & Hodgson, came up in the police court yesterday on a charge of theft. One charge alone was proceeded with and he was committed for trial on that. Evidence on other charges of the same nature was waived.

Bew is charged with stealing sums amounting to $100, $283.89, $4668.52, $597.30 and $300.

Evidence was given to show that the $100 had been paid in, but that it had never been put in the bank and was not on hand.
