CIVIC MILK CONTROL MOST LOGICAL STEP, PROFESSOR SITES

Believes the Milk Producers Would Be Better Off Dealing With City.

BENEFIT TO CONSUMER

"The logical step is for the city to own and control the distribution of milk," was the opinion expressed by Professor Dean of the Agricultural College, Guelph, in addressing the annual meeting of the Toronto Milk and Cream Producers' Association held at the Foresters' Hall, College street, yesterday afternoon. In this connection he said the milk and the water supplies were in somewhat analogous positions, the not in the way some people might suggest. The original water supply came from the home wells and springs, while milk came from the family cow, the olden days, but as the population increased, the municipalities took over and controlled the supply of water. He said the proposition has been put out with success in other centres. "The milk producer would be better off dealing with the city, and it would be better for the consumer, the same as it was found in regard to water."

BOLSHEVISM DENIED BY JAS. SIMPSON

Tells Trades Congress He Does Not Believe in Soviet Principle.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 17.—(Canadian Press).—George White of the Toronto Boller-makers attacked the resolution, the Toronto Trades and Labor Council and James Simpson of Toronto at the congress tonight. He declared they should have a padded cell in the Labor Temple for the members of the Trades and Labor Council, who was the meanest, lowest and dirtiest set of Bolshevists in the world that were sitting on the Toronto Trades and Labor Council, and quoted J. Simpson as having said he would rather be sitting on a soviet council than be a member of the British House of Commons. Sir J. MacBride, M.L.A., Toronto, in an impassioned speech, pleaded the cause of British democracy for which he had sacrificed his arm. James Simpson then got a hearing and the most remarkable part of his speech was a flat denial that he was an advocate of Bolshevism; that the Toronto Trades and Labor was not a Bolshevist organization. There might be one or two in it who believed in the Soviet principle of government, but he was not one of them. He believed that the Labor party could use their political power and organization to secure their own ends, but he did not believe in the establishment of a Soviet form of government. Simpson was accorded an ovation at the end of his explanation. Mr. MacBride, M.L.A., following Mr. Simpson, expressed his great pleasure that Mr. Simpson had given an explanation clearing himself of the charge made against him.

IRISH QUESTION STIRS BIG LABOR CONGRESS

Convention Tries to Shout Down Montreal Supporter of Self-Determination Motion—Meeting Defeats Motion, Also One Sponsored by J. Simpson, Calling for Nationalization of Industries—Re-elect Moore and Draper.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 17.—(By Canadian Press).—Self-determination for Ireland and the nationalization of industries divided attention as points of interest at the afternoon session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. The congress carried the recommendation of the committee on resolutions in both instances that the resolutions be not concurred in. The Irish question was introduced with the delayed resolution from Toronto, which was number 88 on the report, and the resolution tracing its parentage to the International Association of Laborers, and the committee added a rider to their recommendation that congress reiterate the declaration made by the congress at Hamilton convention favoring dominion home rule for Ireland the same as that enjoyed by Canada, Australia, South Africa and other nations within the British Empire. Two companions a Republic. The committee's recommendation did not pass without a heated discussion with John Thompson of Montreal and Jacob S. Chubbert of Montreal, championing the cause of an Irish republic. Mr. Thompson in particular was subjected to a great deal of interruption and when he said that there were twenty million Irishmen outside of Ireland who if they were there, would make it unnecessary for him to bore the congress with congress reiterate the declaration

WARM WELCOME FOR CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY WITHIN THE EMPIRE

Lieutenant-Governor Clarke Presents Address of Welcome to Delegates to Congress of Chambers of Commerce at Notable Gathering in Massey Hall—Lord Desborough and Associates Respond—Strong Imperial Sentiment Expressed.

Hard-headed business sense allied to patriotic allegiance to the ideal of imperial unity from London to Cape Town, from Sydney, Cape Breton, to Sydney, Australia. This was the keynote of last night's welcome to the distinguished delegates to the ninth Congress of Chambers of Commerce of the British Empire, before a gathering of notable citizens, 2000 in number, at Massey Hall. This was specially the note sounded in the stirring addresses of Sir James Woods of Toronto and Stanley Machin.

Among those who addressed the immense gathering were His Honor Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, who presented the address of welcome; Lord Desborough, the greatest of British sportsmen, who responded; Mayor Church of Toronto, and Sir James Woods, who were coadjutors with the Lieutenant-governor in the addresses of welcome, and Stanley Machin, J.P., chairman of the organizing committee of the ninth congress at one of the most historic of the delegates. J. Hobson of Sheffield, J.P., LL.D., late mayor of Sheffield, who added their responses to the welcome tendered by the delegates.

STRIKE WILL LAST FEW DAYS LONGER

No General Resumption of Work in Anthracite Mines Before Monday.

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 17.—Secretary of Labor Wilson tonight replied to the telegram of the polky committee of the United Mine Workers' of America, sent on September 15. He promises immediate consideration of the claims of the miners and is ready to meet with their committee. Reports from the anthracite coal districts received here tonight by mine operators and officials of the United Mine Workers' indicated that there would be no general resumption of work by the "vacation" strikers before next Monday. Union leaders agreed that normal production of coal in the anthracite fields could not be expected before the latter part of next week.

STRIKE OF PRINTERS IN ENGLAND SETTLED

LATE MICHAEL BASSO. He was for more than forty years Italian interpreter in the police court. His death took place last night in his 82nd year.

MICHAEL BASSO CALLED BY DEATH

Was Police Court Italian Interpreter for Over Forty Years.

Michael Basso, for over forty years police court interpreter here, died at his residence, 127 University avenue, at 10.30 last night, in his 82nd year. Death was not unexpected, following as it did an illness of over four years.

The late Mr. Basso was well loved and respected among the local Italian colony, and was known to them as the "King of the Italians." During his term of office as police court interpreter, he was credited with saving more than one man from the scaffold, in addition to other numerous acts of charity and kindness among his countrymen. Born in Villa Bassi, Neuron, in the province of Geneva, on Aug. 12, 1839, the late Mr. Basso came to the United States in 1861. Unable to speak a word of English, he joined the Barnum and Bailey shows as a wild animal tamer. He remained with them for six years, until one day while in a den of tigers, one of the beasts became unmanageable, and seizing Mr. Basso by the arm, inflicted a terrible wound. It was with the greatest of difficulty that attendants, who were luckily in the vicinity, were able to get Mr. Basso from the cage alive. Recovering from his injury, he traveled to Toronto with a brother, in 1867, and entered the tailoring business on East King street. In 1879 he gave this up to become Italian police court interpreter, which position he held for over forty years, retiring in May, 1919. The deceased was the last of four brothers, all of whom died in the United States. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Angela Gardella, living in New York, and a nephew, John Basso, who resides at 177 University avenue.

REFUSE INTERVIEW BY U. S. AUTHORITIES OF EDWIN P. FISCHER

Appeal to Ottawa for Deportation Likely—Admits Sending Warning.

IS ADJUDGED INSANE

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 17.—(Special).—Further details of the movements of Edwin P. Fischer, detained here as insane, and admitted the author of the warning postcards, predicting the bomb explosion in Wall street, were given tonight by Robert A. Pope, brother-in-law of the former tennis champion, prior to his departure for New York. At the conference in the office of T. Reginald Sloan, Pope's solicitor, were Vincent Paul Creighton and Wm. L. Buchanan, special agents from Buffalo, representing the department of justice, and Charles Arlen, an operative of the Wm. J. Burns Detective Agency. The latter declared he represented the Morgan interests and some members of the Fischer family. Fischer was in Ugly Mood. Pope told of his hunt in Toronto for Fischer and of his trip to Niagara Falls on Thursday, when he ran down his quarry. Fischer, he declared, was in an ugly mood. Pope said he was ill as a result of his experiences with Fischer and had decided to return to New York. His solicitor and the Burns agency representative advised against his return, declaring "but he be taken into custody upon his arrival in the States, by the department of justice, and the Fischer family had been so besieged for information by representatives of the department of justice."

BRITISH MINERS WANT RAISE FIRST

Then They Will Be Willing to Discuss Proposals of Government.

London, Sept. 17.—Sir Robert Stevenson Home, president of the board of trade, had another unsuccessful conference with the miners' leaders today over the controversy between the miners and the government. The men refused to discuss any of the government's proposals until the increase in wages demanded by the miners is granted. It was agreed, however, to meet again Monday so as to give the delegates an opportunity to report their decision to the district branches.

HOLD THOROLD PROBE IN BUILDING MOB FIRED

Catharines, Ont., Sept. 17.—(Canadian Press).—The fire marshal's inquest into the partial burning of the Thorold town hall on August 6, when David McNeal, committed for trial for the alleged murder of little Margaret Houcock, was forced by the gangs into the hands of the mob and almost lynched, will open on Monday afternoon in the same building which the mob fired and in the same room in which McNeal was besieged. Thirty subpoenas for this inquest were served today. All of the first thirteen arrested by order of the attorney-general department on Wednesday, except three, have secured bail.

FIRST CLUE TO PERPETRATORS OF THE WALL STREET OUTRAGE IS IN ANARCHISTIC CIRCULARS

MORGANS RECEIVED WARNING IN A LETTER FROM BUFFALO

Letter Delivered the Day Before Advised Everyone to Stay Away From Wall Street—Sent by a Lawyer.

Hackensack, N.J., Sept. 17.—The identity of the blacksmith who shot the horse found dead near the scene of yesterday's explosion in New York's financial district is known to the department of justice, according to a statement made here tonight by William M. Mead, chief clerk in the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. The blacksmith, he added, claims to know the man who wrote the animal. "A peculiar incident of the whole affair," said Mr. Mead, "is that a letter was received on the fifteenth, the day before the explosion, warning everyone to stay away from Wall street between 2 and 3 o'clock on the sixteenth. This letter came from Buffalo and was sent by a lawyer who was believed to have been in the employ of a prominent foreign concern."

DAVIS STANDS ACCUSED BY CORONER'S JURY OF MURDER OF GOLDBERG

Reticence of Mother of Victim Gave Davis, Who Had Been a Visitor at Home of the Goldbergs, Time to Make Escape, Says Detective Cronin—McMurtry Recognizes Photograph.

"The jury finds that Philip Goldberg came to his death on August 7, 1920, at the corner of Glenvale avenue and Queen street by being murdered. From the evidence the jury is of the opinion that the murder was committed by one Fred L. Davis." The foregoing verdict was reached by a jury last night under Coroner Rowe, after numerous sittings. The evidence advanced was for the purpose of attaching the crime to Fred L. Davis, who was a visitor at the home of the parents of the murdered boy, from time to time. Detective Cronin told the jury that when he took up the investigation he considered whether the outrage was the work of a crazy person or of someone known to the boy, and who, after outraging him, had killed him so that he could not tell who his assailant was. The detective told of how his efforts had been thwarted by the mother of the boy, who would not render assistance, because she was afraid of being charged with selling her son. According to Cronin, valuable time was lost, which enabled the suspected man, Fred L. Davis, to make his getaway. Cronin further told of how he had investigated this man Davis, and obtained a tiny photograph of him at the bottom of his trunk. The photo had been enlarged, and was recognized by a dozen witnesses as that of Davis. Photo Recognized. A former witness, McMurtry, who found the body of the boy, testified that the photo was that of the man who was walking away from the scene of the tragedy on Saturday, Aug. 7. Two young girls testified, after identifying Davis from his photograph, that they had seen him with a young Hebrew boy in the park, where the art museum is, on the day of the tragedy.

Five Found in Mailbox Threatening Sure Death to All—All Evidence Points to Bomb Plot—Efforts Being Made to Identify Red Wagon in Which Explosives Were Brought—Eight Investigations Are Under Way.

New York, Sept. 17.—Receipt by department of justice agents tonight of five radical circulars signed "American Anarchist Fighters" which were found in a mail box at Cedar street and Broadway at 11.50 a.m. Thursday, furnish the first tangible clue, they said, to the identity of the persons who were responsible for the explosion in Wall street, which three minutes later killed 35 persons, injured 200 others, caused property damage running into the millions. In making public the circulars, which were printed on cheap paper, seven by eleven inches, Chief Flynn of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, called attention to the fact that the bombs sent in the nation-wide bomb plot on June 2, 1919, were wrapped in circulars announcing the coming of the revolution and signed "Anarchistic Fighters."

The circulars read: "Remember we will not tolerate any longer. Free the political prisoners or it will be sure death for all of you." "American anarchist fighters." The circulars were not enclosed in envelopes, nor did they bear addresses. Some of them contained misspelled words. The time at which the circulars were placed in the mail box was fixed at between 11.30 Thursday morning, when the box was sent, and at 11.58 when the next collection was made and they were found. Chief Flynn made them public soon after he had conferred with Attorney-General Palmer and Assistant Attorney-General Garvan and Chief Hoover.

Similar to former circulars. "In my opinion this was not an attack on G. P. Morgan & Co.," Chief Flynn declared. "I believe that those responsible picked up the circulars in order to create a demonstration." Chief Flynn declared there was a striking similarity between the circulars found after the nation-wide bomb plot in June, 1919, and those found in this mail box. Each set, he said, were printed on cheap paper and contained several misspelled words. The circulars found in the mail box, he explained, were prepared hurriedly with rubber stamps, and discrepancies in spelling would indicate they were printed by two different men. In two of the circulars the word "fighter" appeared, while the word "remember" was spelled "remimber" in two circulars and "remimber" in the others. On two of the circulars the word "fighter" appeared in the signature, while in the others the plural form was used. Caused by Time Bomb. Official opinion, as expressed by William J. Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigations of the United States department of justice, and Fire Commissioner Thomas Brennan, is that the disaster was caused by a time bomb loaded with high explosives, and reinforced with metal slugs. The early theory that the blast was caused by a collision between an explosive-laden wagon and another vehicle seems to have been dispelled by subsequent investigation, although it has not yet been entirely discarded by official investigators.

PASSENGER CARS GO OVER HIGH BANK

Nineteen Persons Injured, None Fatally, in Accident Near Moncton, N.B.

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 17.—(Canadian Press).—One of the worst wrecks on the eastern C. N. lines in recent years but miraculously attended by no fatalities, occurred on the C. N. R. near Moncton, about eight miles west of Moncton, at 3.55 this afternoon, when six cars of No. 14 express which connects at St. John with the C.P.R. from Montreal went over a high-embankment, piling up in all directions. The run of is attributed to a broken rail over which the engine passed safely and remained on the rails. The mail express and baggage cars, also second-class and first-class coaches were derailed and plunged down the steep embankment, and how all the passengers and train hands escaped with their lives, is nothing but a miracle. Some of the cars rolled over, and were badly smashed up. One first class coach was thrown into a field. Nineteen persons were more or less severely injured, but none dangerously. Eight investigations. (Continued on Page 2, Column 3).

The picture shows a section of the crowd that gathered about the judges' stand after the second race. The starts in the first two races were not to the liking of some bettors, and they made a demonstration of protest, but many of the faces wear the winner's smile.
