MAJOR-GENERAL H. H. McLEAN RETIRES WITH HIGH RANK

MAJOR-GENERAL H. H. McLEAN.

New Brunswick Now Has First Divisional Officer—Juniors Also Win Honors and Promotion.

Ottawa, Nov. 22—Militia orders issued today contain the official announcement that General Hugh McLean has been transferred to the retired list, and is granted the honorary rank of major-general.

General McLean was Liberal member for Sunbury-Queens (N. B.), and is the Unionist candidate for the new constituency of Royal.

The announcement is made that Sir Charles Ross, temporary colonel, has ceased to be employed as a consulting officer on small arms ammunition and has relinquished his temporary military rank.

W. S. FISHER PRESIDENT

Art Club Officers—Society of Painters Formed With Miss Jack President

At the annual meeting of the St. John Art Club held last evening, the following officers were elected: W. Shives Fisher, president; T. H. Estabrooks, first vice-president; W. Frank Hatheway, second vice-president, in place of Col. E. T. Sturdee, who was forced to retire on account of the pressure of his war work; M. V. Paddock, third vice-president; Timothy O'Brien, recording secretary; Miss Alicia Heale, corresponding secretary; Miss C. O. McGivern, treasurer; C. H. Flewelling, curator.

The following were elected members of the council: Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor, Mrs. W. E. Raymond, John Seely, William Brodie, Miss Lillian Hazen and Alexander Watson. The remaining four members of the council will be appointed by the executive at the next meeting.

During the evening it was decided to form a society of painters, under the auspices of the St. John Art Club, for the cultivation of art in the community. This society will be called the "Society of Painters," and all members must be also members of the local art club. The formation of this society was suggested by Miss Marian Jack, who was elected as its first president. Mrs. Silas Alward was elected vice-president, and C. H. Flewelling, secretary. The duties of these officers are to look after the art meetings.

During the evening, W. Shives Fisher, president of the art club, delivered a very pleasant, interesting and instructive illustrated lecture of his recent trip to Florida.

As an immediate result of the exhibition of some of the paintings of famous Canadian artists in M. R. A. Ltd., windows in King street, ten new members joined the art club last evening.

As the club has decided not to serve any refreshments at its meetings until the termination of the war, the rest of the evening was spent in social conversation.

FRENCH ELECTIONS ARE OFF TILL 1920

Paris, Nov. 22—The committee on universal suffrage of the chamber of deputies today rejected by a large majority the proposal to hold the elections normally due in 1918, because of the impossibility of taking the votes of prisoners of war and the difficulty of holding among the soldiers at the front.

The elections, under this decision, will be postponed until 1920, and no special elections will be held to fill vacancies of which there are 47 in the chamber.

First Train Next Week

Quebec, Nov. 22—The passage of the first transcontinental train over the Quebec bridge, which had been slated for this week, has been postponed until next week, owing to the incompleteness of a few details.

FREEMAN FOWLER OF FAIRVILLE MISSING

Word of Other Casualties in Various Parts of the Province

Mrs. John Fowler, Church avenue, Fairville, has received official word from the authorities at Ottawa that her son, Freeman Fowler, has been reported missing since the battle of Passchendaele, Nov. 6. He was attached to a machine gun section. Previous to enlisting he was employed as dispenser in the Boston City Hospital. Mr. Fowler gave up this position, came quietly home and enlisted without the knowledge of his people here. While in France he was attached to the 29th Battalion, having been transferred from the 118th Battalion with which regiment he first enlisted.

Private Fred M. McKenzie Killed.

M. O. McKenzie, of Nerepis Station, Kings county, has received the sad news from Ottawa that his son, Private Fred. Milton McKenzie, was officially reported killed in action on Oct. 30. Private McKenzie went overseas with the 4th University Corps, which reinforced the Princess Pats, and had seen over two years of continuous service on the firing line. Previous to enlistment he was employed at Fredericton in the forestry department of the provincial government. He leaves besides his father four sisters and three brothers. Mrs. H. Parker Jenkins, of St. John, is a sister.

Chatham Man Killed.

Chatham, Nov. 22—(Special)—Mrs. Robert Allen this morning received word

Eczema Cured Five Years Ago

A Treatment Which Has Proven a Wonderful Healer of the Skin—Certified Evidence of Lasting Cure

Jordan, Ont., Nov. 21—The old notion that eczema is a disease of the blood is refuted time and time again by the cures that are daily being effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

It matters not what the cause may have been if you apply Dr. Chase's Ointment regularly you will obtain relief and cure of eczema. Here is the proof. Mrs. Stephen G. Thwaites, Box 205, Jordan, Ont., writes: "My brother had a bad case of eczema on his legs. He was troubled nearly all one fall and winter with it, and could not work for days at a time. He tried different salves and ointments, but none cured him. One day he tried Dr. Chase's Ointment, and it gave almost instant relief. He continued its use, but had not quite finished the second box when he was cured. It is now about five years since then, and it has never returned. We certainly can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment, and are very grateful for my brother's cure."

(Rev. S. F. Coffman, Vineland, Ont., states: "This is to certify that I know Mrs. Thwaites and the party to whom she refers, and her statements are correct.")

Mr. J. E. Jones, 228 University avenue, Kingston, Ont., writes: "I had eczema in my hand for about five years. I tried a great many remedies, but found that while some of them checked it, none cured it permanently. I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment, and in six weeks my hand was completely better. I would not do without a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment in the house if it cost $2 a box. I am giving my name to this firm so that it will get to those who suffer as I did."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Substitutes will only disappoint you. Insist on getting what you ask for.

SICK WOMAN HAD CRYING SPELLS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Enbaur, Pa.—"I was all run down and weak inwardly. I had female troubles and nervous feelings and my head bothered me. I would often have crying spells and feel as if I was not safe. If I heard anyone coming I would run and lock the door so they would not see me. I tried several doctors and they did not help me so I said to myself, 'I will have to die as there is no help for me.' She got me one of your little bottles. I stopped the doctor's medicine and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It soon made a change in me and now I am strong and do all my work."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS BAUGHMAN, Box 86, Enbaur, Pa.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? If you would like free confidential advice address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

from Ottawa that her oldest son, Arthur, had been killed in action in France. The young hero's father, Sergeant Robert Allen, is with his majesty's forces, and another brother, Lieutenant Ronald Allen, is now in England. Arthur enlisted here with the 55th Battalion and went overseas with that unit. He was about 27 years of age and a general favorite. Besides his parents there survive several brothers and sisters. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family in their sad loss.

Lieut. B. Coster.

Mrs. Coster, of the La Tour apartments, King square, received word from her son, Lieutenant Bayard Coster, on Wednesday stating that he had been promoted from the rank of lieutenant to that of captain. Captain Coster left here in the 55th Battalion and was later transferred to the 26th New Brunswick. He has had a brilliant record since he went to France and his promotion comes as a well merited one. His many friends will hear with great pleasure of his highly deserved promotion on the field. Friends of Captain Robert (Bert) H. Tait of the Newfoundland infantry have word of his having received the Military Cross decoration. This honor was awarded in the same engagement in which Captain Tait served in the Mesopotamia campaign, was invalided to England, and has been in France for nearly a year. Mr. Tait, who was a Rhodes scholar of Newfoundland and studied law in St. John in 1913, will be remembered on account of the keen interest he took in hockey and other sports while living here.

Private Foran, of Newcastle, Wounded.

Newcastle, Nov. 22—Mr. and Mrs. John Foran have been notified that their son, Private Daniel John Foran, No. 758-539, infantry, was admitted to the 13th Field Ambulance Hospital on the 18th inst., suffering from gunshot wounds. This is the second time Private Foran has been wounded. He was overseas with the 132nd Battalion.

Paris, Nov. 22—Colonel E. M. House and the members of the American mission, which he heads, arrived in Paris from England tonight.
