

AGAIN ARE THE CALCULATIONS OF GERMAN'S ASTRAY

Believed They Could Hold West Front With Inferior Force

ALIES' PLAN SUCCEEDING

Attacking All Along Front to Prevent Thin Part of German Line From Being Strengthened—Must be Prepared For Some Reverses

London, Sept. 29.—A despatch to the Daily News from the British headquarters, dated Sept. 27, says: "One deduction may be drawn from the last two days, which is of good omen for the future. We have often been told that the German lines in the west are wearing thin. We know, within narrow limits, their numbers, and these numbers are less than ours. But German belief that by the help of their great machine she could hold her front and even take the offensive with fewer troops than her opponents. The calculation for a long time seemed to be justified, but it looks as if that day might be past.

"We are attacking all along the front to prevent the thin part of the German front from being strengthened from elsewhere, and the plan, so far, looks like succeeding.

"The enemy would appear to have sufficient reserves to meet the attacks on two adjoining sections at the same time. If our conclusion is correct, it encourages us to hope for the best. A word of caution may be spoken to those who look for too speedy results. A great strategic plan takes time for its working out.

"It was three months from the Vosges, Mackensen's first assault on Dunajec till Warsaw fell, and these three months included temporary reverses, such as those on the Dnieper, the Wieprz and at Lublin.

John P. Coup aged 67 and Mrs. Nora Gardner aged 50 who were married in Covington, Ky. attracted considerable attention because the bridegroom is about six feet tall, while the bride is only half that height.

THESE MEETINGS SHOULD BRING MANY TO THE COLORS

Fine Series Arranged For Rest of This Week in Saint John, Beginning Tonight

The clear weather assures a large attendance in the Seaman's Institute, Prince William street, tonight when that brilliant speaker, Rev. F. L. Carney, rector of St. Dunstan's Roman Catholic church, Fredericton, will speak to the men of St. John upon the empire's need for more soldiers to carry to a swift and glorious conclusion the onward rush which has only recently been inaugurated and which will require a steady flow of reinforcements to make finally effective.

Rev. Father Carney has not spoken in St. John a considerable length of time and a very warm welcome is in store for him not only because of the nature of his visit, but on persons grounds as well, as his friends are legion in this city.

Rev. (Capt.) Thomas Harrison, formerly Presbyterian minister at St. George, will also speak tonight at the Seaman's Institute. He is already wearing khaki as chaplain of Colonel Campbell's 64th regiment under canvas in Sussex. Harrison is a Britanika of the dogged type and his former experiences in the king's uniform on the other side of the water and his present enthusiasm eminently fit him for the explanatory talking which he is so pleased to do to his fellow citizens at this time.

Fred P. Panter will give musical selections at the recruiting meeting in the Seaman's Institute this evening and Harry C. Dunlop will be the accompanist.

Another meeting will be held this evening in Victoria park at which H. H. McLellan will preside and the speaker will be the Rev. G. F. Scovill of the West Side and Lt. Col. E. K. Armstrong, C. I.

Contributions to the Patriotic Fund are acknowledged by C. B. Allan as follows: George H. Waterbury, $2.15; A. A. Brown, monthly, $5; Church of the Holy Jerusalem, St. John, $5; P. C. Robinson, Fort Elgin, $5; G. W. Merritt, for September, $10.

Soldiers' Comforts Mrs. E. E. Church, treasurer of the Soldiers' Comforts Association, acknowledged the following: R. J. Dravis, eleven yards of crepe, $3.95; George and Frances Beatty, Margaret Jordan, Helen Beatty, Clifford Seely, Miss Audrey McLeod, Miss Josephine Hutchinson, Miss Annie Beatty, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. A. P. McIntyre, each one yard; Mrs. H. R. McLellan, two yards; Mrs. J. W. Mathison, $3.50; Mrs. H. E. Wardrop, $1.00; Women's Canadian Club, collection taken at St. Arnold's lecture, $30.00.

IMPERIAL TONIGHT AND TOMORROW Tonight in Imperial Theatre the fifth chapter of the Vitaphone serial story, "The Goddess" will be presented and also a four-part drama featuring the talented actress Emma Dunn entitled "Mother". This serial programme and another play did bill in connection with the Imperial's Anniversary Week. "The Goddess" Chapter this week tells how Celestia, being refused admittance to various New York hotels, was lost in the crowd and fell a prey to the white slave traffic.

Rev. W. C. Machum has resigned his pastorate at Hantsport, and has accepted a call to the fifth chapter of the Free Baptist conference and since he missed only one annual gathering of these bodies, and that was due to the serious illness of Mrs. Patterson. Needless to say he was re-elected to the trusteeship at Hillsboro.

Rev. William Spurgeon, D.D., is to begin a ten days' mission at Main street church, St. John.

Rev. H. Alford Porter, D.D., recently celebrated his second anniversary as pastor of the Gaston avenue Baptist church, Dallas, Texas.

MONCTON RECRUITS Moncton, Sept. 29.—Recruits for the 64th continue to come in here. Among those who have volunteered are: Ernest C. Ferguson, Eugene T. LeBlanc, Vernon Jones, George D. McLeod, J. Weston Calhoun, Bert C. Walsh, Harry Ryan and Fred Matheson.

Arthur Henderson says—Well, Steve, Old Boy, the weather has taken a flip for a cold spell. Have you decided where you are going to buy your winter overcoat? I would like to show you through my splendid range and let you see how overcoats should be made. After all this clothing game sits down to the buyer's judgment and taste, and, believe me, some buyers carry their taste in their mouth. My overcoats run from $15 up; my suits $15 up; suits-to-order $22 to $32. Shop No. 3 King.

A Patriotic Tea held in the lecture hall of the Main street Baptist church last evening, under the auspices of the Ladies of Main street branch of the Red Cross was a grand success and a good sum was realized.

The following ladies assisted at the tea table: Mrs. Angus McLean and Mrs. Fred Wilson in charge of one table, assisted by Miss Della McLean, Miss Hazel Flewelling, Miss Hattie Hallow and Miss Annie Mullin. Mrs. Harry Eastabrook and Mrs. Howard Crab in charge of a second, assisted by Mrs. Bennett Wilson, Mrs. Charles Gallop, Miss Etta Burke and Miss Greta Akers.

Prof. Charles F. Chandler of New York always pays for small purchases with sparkling new coins, which he gets from the Subtreasury in New York. He has followed this habit for several years.

HERE ON WAY HOME; UNABLE TO GO TO FRONT

St. Stephen Soldier Was Taken Ill in England

ANOTHER ON SAD MISSION

James Dobson of 55th on Leave Because of Sister's Death—Not Believed 6th C. M. R. Have Left England

Ill for several months with rheumatic pneumonia, and bitterly disappointed that he was unable to get into action with his pals in the 12th battalion, Lance Corporal James St. Stephen arrived in the city today on his return home. He was met at the depot by his mother, and a touching scene was witnessed by those gathered about.

Lance Corp. Clark in England contracting a heavy cold, which developed into rheumatic pneumonia. The physicians gave him an honorable discharge owing to the sickness having left him medically unfit. He arrived at Quebec on Sunday aboard the steamer "Scandinavia" on which there were 106 wounded soldiers returning home.

Another soldier arriving in the city today was Private James Dobson, of the 65th, who was called home from Valcartier by the sad news that his sister had died at his home in Dunsmuir, near Sussex. He left for his home at noon.

There is reason to believe that the 6th Mounted Rifles are still in England. A cable received from Douglas Holman of the Signalling Corps, on last Thursday, said that his brother Harry, who was with another unit had gone to France, but that he was well on his feet. No definite word of such a movement has been received by relatives of men in the regiment.

Twenty men enlisted in Halifax on Monday for the 68th Battalion. Among them was Nelly McIntyre of Glace Bay, of whom the Chronicle writes: "Although but a very young boxer, Nelly McIntyre emulated the feat of his famous relative, Mickey McIntyre, known as the 'Pride of Cape Breton'. Nelly was seen at his best in his recent bout with Billy Mallen in the Arks. He endeavored himself to the hearts of the fans that night. He covered up beautifully and he had a tremendous right swing. His win over Mallen was clean cut and popular. He was a credit to his friends in Halifax, made for him through his clean, gentlemanly boxing. He has been joining up with the army some time," said McIntyre. "Every time I heard one of my friends leaving I felt like jumping on him, after having been back into the recruiting tent, and then backed out again. Something came over me. I listened to no speakers who had point in the most part, and I made the plunge. I am glad to be in."

Relatives in Grand Manan of Royal O'Donnell, of the 1st Queensland Division, have just received word that he has been wounded but no details as to his wounds were given.

Young O'Donnell had only returned to the firing line on the Gallipoli Peninsula a month ago, after having been wounded about three months previously in the early fighting in which the Australians were engaged with the Turks. As soon as he recovered from his wounds sufficiently to be able to write he sent word to his mother, who now resides in Boston, that he hoped to be able to get back to the fighting line and a short time ago a letter was received saying that he had left to rejoin his regiment.

Roy Johnston, the well known commercial man of Grand Manan who is a brother-in-law of young O'Donnell received word while in Fredericton, Monday, that this gallant young New Brunswick lad had been wounded again.

There are six young men from the parish of Manners-Sutton in the 55th Battalion, and each of them wearing a wrist watch, the gift of the people of that parish. The young men are: Privates James Robinson, Ernest Hunter, Cecil A. Swain, Benjamin Robinson, Grey Little and Willard N. Wilson.

Word has been received by Kenneth C. Hill of Fredericton from his brother, Staff Sergeant Otto White, who is with the First Divisional Ammunition Column somewhere in France, stating the belief that the allies' offensive drive which at the time of writing was under preparation and has now started in earnest is to be carried on until the allies are within the borders of Germany.

Among the officers who have received appointments to the 86th Battery of Field Artillery, recruited in Cape Breton and known as the Sydney Battery is Lieut. Justin K. McGrath, son of H. J. McGrath, of Fredericton. The other provisional officers of the battery are Major W. Crowe, Lieut. W. G. Harris, Lieut. C. D. Shreve, of Digby, N. S., and Lieut. Lionel D. Teed, son of M. G. Teed, K. C. of St. John.

Mrs. James Pringle of Fredericton, recently sent forth a shipment of socks for the men of the overseas forces. Included in the shipment was a consignment of 106 pairs sent by Miss Eastabrook of Oromocto.

Mrs. D. Cummings, 89 Forest street, has received a letter from her son Willie who is in France saying that he was well and had received parcels sent to him. The letter was received on Sept. 5.

Italians in New Brunswick are leaving for Italy to join the colors before their classes of reserves are required to go. On Tuesday four recruits left Fredericton en route to New York to sail direct for Genoa or some other Italian port and included in the quartette was at least one young man not yet out of his teens.

F. B. Banta, who for several years was the Maine representative of the Keystone Dynamite Company of New York, is now Trooper 1774, Second

King Edward's Horse at Camp Curragh, Kildare, Ireland.

Lieut. George P. Ryder of St. Stephen recently learned that his son, Lieut. G. Stewart Ryder, 1st Battalion, had gone to France with a recent draft from that battalion. This officer left Fredericton in August, 1914, with the first draft from the 11st Regiment. Mr. Ryder has two other sons in France and a fourth in the 55th Battalion.

A Cumberland county platoon for the 65th Battalion is to be recruited by Lieutenant J. L. Ralston. He himself is to go overseas with the 65th and he will begin at once to recruit men to make up a Cumberland platoon to go with him.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald, of Springhill, N. S., have reason to be proud of their two sons, Private John H. McDonald, now with the Canadian troops in France, and Signaller Wilfred McDonald, now in Halifax.

A letter was received a few days ago from Corporal Frank Borchers, an Amherst boy who is a prisoner of war in a German internment camp. Corporal Borchers wrote that he was in good health. One of his brothers is also a prisoner of war in Germany.

A. E. Murray of East Westworth, N. S., who enlisted with the 33rd Battalion and then volunteered as a member of a special draft for service at the front, is now wearing khaki "Somewhere in France". He became a kiltie when he was transferred to the 3rd Battalion of the Fifth Royal Highlanders.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Delahunt of Amherst, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice to James H. Power, of Moncton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Power, Bathurst.

Kind looks, kind words, kind acts and warm handshakes—these are a secondary means of grace when men are in trouble and fighting their unenbattled. Dr. John Hall.

On one of the southern railroads there is a station building that is commonly known by travelers as the smallest railroad station in America. It is of this station that the story is told that an old farmer was expecting a chicken house to arrive there and he sent one of his hands, a new-comer, to fetch it. Arriving there the man saw the house, loaded it on his wagon and started for home. On the way he met a man in uniform, with the words "Station Agent" on his cap.

"Hold on. What have you got on that wagon?" he asked. "My chicken house, of course," was the reply. "Chicken house he jiggered!" exploded the official, "That's the station."
