

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

PREPARATORY COURSE.

Students are required, before entering the Hall, to take a regular course in Arts, at Dalhousie College, Fredericton University, or some similar Institution. Dalhousie College has nine professors, three of whom are supported by the Synod of the Maritime Provinces. Full information respecting the course of study in Dalhousie College will be found in the Calendar, which may be obtained by application to Principal Ross.

Students who have the Ministry in view are strongly recommended to take the full course, including Hebrew and at least three years' Greek, and graduate as Bachelors of Arts. Those who, for special reasons, desire a shorter course, are required to take the following classes: English Literature, Latin (two sessions), Greek (three sessions), Mathematics (two sessions), Logic, Metaphysics, Physics and Ethics. This course may be overtaken in three winter sessions of six months each. Such students are required to submit to the regular examinations in the several classes at the close of each session.

Presbyteries are authorized to accept a degree of B. A. (Ethics and Metaphysics being included in the course) or pass certificates of attendance and proficiency in all the classes required, as sufficient evidence of literary qualification.

When a student does not produce the pass certificates of one or more of the required classes, he shall be examined on the subjects taught in these classes, by the Board of Examiners, who shall have power, if they think it necessary, to defer his admission to the Hall. Exceptional cases, in which a Presbytery may recommend the admission of a student who cannot satisfy the Board of Examiners, must be brought before Synod or Assembly.

The Board of Examiners meet, at the call of the Convener, during the week immediately preceding the commencement of the Session. Students who wish to appear before them must
