BETTER.
Deposits in the government savings bank here during January amounted to $64,023.55, as compared with $62,000 in January 1919. Withdrawals during the month reached $42,551.16, compared with $88,000 in 1919.

WILL BE CONVENIENCE.
The little office in the Union Depot formerly occupied by the militia as an information centre has been taken over by Walter Gaskin and was opened today as a baggage transfer station. This is a convenience in use in many cities and should prove welcome in St. John.

DONALDSON-CLAYTON.
A quiet wedding took place on last Monday in the Carmichael street home of the bride's parents, when Rev. Henry Penna united in marriage Miss Myrtle Clayton and William H. Donaldson, both of this city. Miss Lulu Wells was bridesmaid and Richard C. Thorne supported the groom. Mr. R. M. Baxter, K. C., will reside in St. John.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.
On Saturday afternoon little Miss Geraldine Mitchell entertained about twenty-five of her little friends at her home, 7 Mill street, the occasion being her birthday. Games and other amusements were enjoyed. The happy gathering dispersed after wishing the young hostess many happy returns of the day.

OVER TILL WEDNESDAY.
In the chancery division today the case of Baird vs. Jones came before Chief Justice Hazen again. The cross-examination of the defendant, J. B. Jones, Jr., on his affidavit, was commenced by D. Mullin, K. C. F. B. M. Baxter, K. C., appeared for the defendant. This is an application to have the defendant committed for contempt by alleged breach of an injunction order issued by Mr. Justice Gimmere. The court adjourned to Wednesday next at 10.30 a. m.

DISEASE PREVENTION.
An instructive lecture on disease prevention was given last evening in their rooms in Horsfield street before the members of the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. H. L. Abramson. He was heard with close attention by an appreciative gathering. I. Amundsen occupied the chair, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker on motion of Max Marcus, seconded by Kominsky. A solo by Miss Cecile Amundsen was well received.

HOUSES AND RENTS.
A "hard working woman" writes to the Times-Star urging the men of the city to take some action against the renting of unit tenements at very high rates. The women, she says, were willing to put up with all kinds of hardships to help win the war, and now they ask that the comforts of life be not denied to them and their children. She asserts that some places offered for rent are "not fit for a pig." This is the day of notification and decision as between landlord and tenant.

FOR THE BOY SCOUTS.
Although disagreeable weather met them today in the opening of their campaign, those in charge of the Commercial Club drive for funds for the Boy Scouts of the city were not at all dismayed and are hopeful of the results. Envelopes were distributed today by nine or ten boy scouts after school hours, in each ward, with a subscription card in each, and these will be collected by the ward captains who direct the arrangements in his district. Those in charge of the campaign say that even a five cent subscription will be appreciated.

DEATH OF FRANK W. DOVE.
In Montreal on last Tuesday of Frank W. Dove of the C. ocean service passed away. Mr. Dove had been connected with the steamship service for the last fifteen years, spending the winters here. He was well and favorably known among all with whom he came in contact. He leaves, besides his wife and one son, many friends to mourn his death. Although he had been in failing health for the last couple of years, yet the news of his death came as a great shock to his friends here. The funeral took place on last Thursday from his late Montreal residence, 796 St. Urban street, to Mount Royal Cemetery.

ST. JOHN IS FAR IN THE LEAD

Some interesting figures are disclosed in the monthly report of Canadian trade, published by the department of customs, which has just arrived in the city. The report shows among other totals the following:

Exports for the eight months ending November 30, 1919.
From St. John $32,560,272
From Halifax 30,460,522
Imports during the same period:
To St. John $17,493,658
To Halifax 18,992,253

Evangelical Alliance

A meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held this morning, Rev. S. S. Poole presiding. A committee looking after the week of prayer reported that they had received $297 from the collections and that other churches were to be heard from.

The new regulations regarding giving returns of marriages were discussed and a committee was formed to prepare and suggest for the government with reference to amending some of the clauses.

Rev. O. P. Brown, an evangelist, read a paper on eternal punishment and was tendered a hearty vote of thanks. Word was received that Rev. Charles Steltz, who was invited to come to this city to address meetings, was unable to accept and therefore the proposed meetings were cancelled.

FIVE CASES OF "FLU" ARE HERE

Four in North End and One in Simonds Reported to the Board of Health—All Declared Mild.

The officials of the Board of Health were somewhat alarmed this morning when it was announced by their secretary, T. M. Burns, that five cases of influenza had been reported from the city and county. Four of the cases were reported from the North End, and one from Simonds, but they are of a very mild type. All necessary precautions are being taken to prevent spread.

The members of the board held a meeting this morning to discuss the matter. Arrangements were completed to take over a building from the emergency hospital if needed. The board have rid themselves in readiness for some time and have had arrangements made to take over several buildings at short notice if necessary. It was announced this morning that there is no need of alarm being felt as the disease has not taken the form of an epidemic and nothing is being left undone to prevent it from doing so. This is the first occurrence of the disease since the epidemic of 1918.

RED CROSS IN ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the local Red Cross Society was opened at three o'clock this afternoon in the local depot, with the president, Mrs. John A. Mcnamara, in the chair. Reports of the activities of the last year were presented and a discussion took place as to the work to be done this year. Election of officers was to take place. The president reported upon the convention in Toronto some time ago, which she attended.

Among the reports submitted was that of A. Sheldon as treasurer, which showed a balance of $10,209.24 in September, the report having been made for that time with the intention of presenting it to the annual meeting, which, however, was postponed until today. The report follows:

WRAP BREAD; ONE CENT MORE

Starting today the St. John public will pay one cent a loaf more for the one and one-half pound loaf sold in the shops, but will get a sanitary wrapped loaf as ordered by the new board of health ruling that went into effect yesterday. The wholesalers announced this morning that the new price for pound and a half loaf would be fourteen cents from the bakeries, and that the retailers had increased their prices by the same amounts.

It is not expected that the advance of 14c a barrel in the government standard winter wheat flour, as announced by the Canadian Wheat Board yesterday, will affect the price of bread at present, as it was explained by one of the bakers this morning that only one-third of this class of flour was used locally, the balance being of Manitoba flour.

JOSHUA CORKERY DIED TODAY AT GREAT AGE OF 93

After an illness of but a few days, Joshua Corkery, one of the oldest residents of the city, died this morning at his home, 98 Elm street, aged ninety-three years. He was very well known, especially about the North End and through the river country. He had been identified with the meat business in St. John for many years but had retired some time ago. Besides his wife he is survived by two sons, Joshua, of St. John, and Maurice of Boston, and three daughters, Mrs. Thos. Connor of Wisconsin, Sister De Chantel of St. Vincent's Convent, and Miss Catherine at home. Mrs. William Cotter of this city is a sister, and there are three brothers, Thomas of California, Daniel of Vermont, and David of Boston. Mr. Corkery's funeral will take place on Wednesday morning.

BOY SCOUTS OF NEW BRUNSWICK THIS IS YOUR WEEK

REMEMBER—
A Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others.
A Scout whistles and smiles under all circumstances.
A Scout's honor is to be trusted.

These are three of the many practical teachings of the Boy Scouts Organization, and these alone, if nothing else, should commend the Boy Scout Drive this week to one and every person.

BOY SCOUTS remember also that Scovill Bros. are the official outfitters for this district, so that our uniforms and equipment are correct and the prices as low as is consistent with the quality.

Why Is a House Divided Into Rooms?

That the greatest convenience and comfort may be derived, a house is divided into rooms, and the genuine purpose of this house as a home depends upon the completeness and appropriateness of each of these room's appointments.

The furnishings of a room may be recognizably costly, yet wholly lacking or incompatible with the feeling of warmth and restfulness which should be the end to be gained, and never to be departed from, in the entirety of its furnishing scheme.

Possibly, by the rearrangement of this same furniture, all the serenity of harmony and the exquisiteness of effect may result in the transformation of this atmosphere.

Color tones must be essentially correct and in concord with the furniture it is to display to advantage, and at the same time adding that subtle "something"—better perceived as the "soul of a room."

For your realization to the fullest extent of each separate room's distinct individuality, we invite you to come to this resourceful furnishing establishment for furniture of quality and beauty which will become an asset to your home.

Service is courteously and conscientiously extended you in every department of our store.
