DR. JOHN B. TRAVERS
ON THE LECTURE PLATFORM
Tomorrow evening Dr. John B. Travers will be the lecturer under the auspices of the C. M. B. A., subject "The Cause and Effect of Alienation or Mental Derangement." Doctor Travers has given much time and thought to the preparation of his lecture and his long experience as physician in charge of the Provincial Hospital justifies his many friends in expecting an evening of more than usual interest. The lecture is open to the public and chair will be taken at 8:30 o'clock.

A story of Mark Twain. He had finished his speech at a dinner party and on sealing himself a lawner row, showed his hands deep into his trousers pockets, as was his habit, and laughingly inquired of those present: "The lecture is open to the public and chair will be taken at 8:30 o'clock."

"Doesn't it strike this company as a little unusual that a professional humorist should thus humiliate himself?" When the laughter that greeted this sally had subsided Mark Twain drew forth a small note and said: "Doesn't it strike this company as a little unusual that a lawyer should have his hands in his own pockets?"

EVENTUALLY you will wear our glasses
