

The Evening Times Star

VOL. VIII. No. 37

ST. JOHN N. B., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1912

TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

BRITISH ELECTION IN SPRING?

London Cable to New York Newspaper Forecasts It

THREE LARGE MATTERS

Home Rule, Welsh Disestablishment and Franchise Bill Make Big Programme to Handle—Crisis With Probable Rejection of Former By Lords

(Canadian Press)

New York, Nov. 13—A cable to the Tribune from London says: The government is evading the immediate consequences of its defeat in the House of Commons, by deciding to remain in office, but the ulterior consequences are not to be so easily disposed of.

From the start the session has been overclouded. Never before has the number of parliaments been asked to deal in one session with three measures of such paramount importance as the Irish home rule bill, the Welsh disestablishment bill, and the franchise reform. Enthusiastic supporters of the government long ago admitted that it would be possible to pass these three schemes only by working the parliamentary machine continuously at high pressure.

The ministry being well aware of this fact, drew up a "guillotine time table" for the home rule bill, and could always see a prospect of carrying its enterprises to success so long as everything worked smoothly, but Monday's defeat alters the whole situation.

At best, it must mean the delay of a week in placing the remaining stage of the home rule bill in the commons and the loss of even a single man at this period of the year may well force Premier Asquith to have recourse to desperate measures.

The government has lost prestige in the country, but it can still muster a majority in the House of Commons when the clock follows are asked to bear the brunt of the whip. The question now arises, will any ministerial cargo have to be jettisoned in order to lighten the heavily laden ship, which is seriously damaged after striking a mine in the stormy Irish sea, on last Monday?

John Redmond is determined to have home rule and Welshmen are equally insistent as to disestablishing and reforming the Church of England in Wales. Franchise reform being presumably in the interest of everybody, as according to present appearances, it stands very little chance of getting through the lower house of parliament this session, the ministers will, in all probability, quietly drop it in the hope of saving themselves.

Foreboding Election

Unionists, of course, profess to consider the government doomed, and many Liberals and Nationalists, including John Redmond himself, admit the seriousness of the position.

The government may struggle through the present session and send the home rule bill up to the Lords, where it most assuredly will be rejected by a large majority. There will come a sharp crisis, which is not unlikely to be followed in the early spring by the resignation of the government and the formation of a new parliament.

LATE SPORT NEWS

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 13—Carl Morris, Oklahoma heavyweight pugilist, who was for a time the leading "white hope," knocked out Jack Keating, Canadian heavyweight champion, in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout here last night.

Three upper-cuts to the chin put Keating down for a count of nine, and Morris put him out a few seconds later with a left handed blow to the body. Keating was carried from the ring and did not revive until after he reached his dressing room.

New York, Nov. 13—Tommy Hudson, Canadian bantam weight pugilist, will be out of the fighting game for several months as the result of a fractured jaw received at the hands of Frankie Burns, of Jersey City in a bout here last night. The fight was stopped in the third round, owing to Hudson's injury.

LANCASTER CONSERVATIVES

The annual meeting of the Lancaster Conservative Club will be held on Friday, November 22, in the Orange Hall, Fairville.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. P. Stewart, director of meteorological service.

Toronto, Nov. 13—A disturbance situated in Michigan with increasing energy promises to reach the maritime provinces; winds shifting to east and southwest and increasing to gales on Thursday.

Probabilities Here: Fair and cool today, then strong wind and gales, easterly to southerly, with rain.

E. B. HAGGARRY, I.C.R. MAIL CLERK, DIED TODAY IN PICTOU

Death Followed Operation For Appendicitis—He Was Well Known Pythian

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 13—E. B. Haggarty, of Westmorland Lodge, Knights of Pythias, received word this morning that Harold L. Wall, a postal clerk on the New Glasgow and Sydney branch of the Intercolonial, died this morning in Pictou. Death was due to shock following an operation for appendicitis.

He was a member of Westmorland Lodge K. of P., and was well known in Moncton. He was a son of A. E. Wall, now of Digby, formerly of this city, and was born in Sackville in 1864. He spent his youth in Moncton, and for some time was a clerk with the I. C. R., afterwards taking a position as mail clerk.

KILLED BY DAUGHTER ON TRAIN; MOTHER THOUGHT A ROBBER

Philadelphia, Nov. 13—Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, of New York, was shot and killed by her daughter on a Pennsylvania railroad train near here today. The girl shot her mother in mistake for a robber. The girl, Gladys, and a passenger, W. H. Cuthbert, of Lynchburg, Va., are being detained in a Trenton, N. J., hospital.

UNION STREET PROPERTY BOUGHT

A. H. Hanington, K.C., has purchased the freehold lot 192 and 194 Union street, from Dr. Sovell, of Brighton, Eng. Mr. Hanington purchased the leasehold premises on the lot from the McAfee estate some time ago.

PUT IT BEFORE GOVERNMENT

Encouragement of Time-Expired English Navy and Army Men to Come to Canada

Ottawa, Nov. 13—In reply to a Toronto despatch, headed by E. P. Sommelet on behalf of the military and naval immigration league, Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior, has promised to lay before the cabinet a proposal of government encouragement for the location in Canada of time-expired naval and military men from the mother country.

HIS EIGHTY-FOURTH BIRTHDAY

A party of the friends of D. McNally, who was born on Nov. 13, 1828, celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday. Mr. McNally, who has been a resident in Canada since 1850, is in good health and goes about town as usual every day.

THE SHEIK-UL-ISLAM WHO WOULD AROUSE ALL TURKS AGAINST THE CHRISTIANS

The sheik ul Islam, who has just proclaimed a holy war against the allies who are attacking Turkey, is the religious head of all Mohammedans. His most dreaded power is that of proclaiming a holy war, which might arouse the Moslems of British India and Egypt, French North Africa and German East Africa to armed rebellion. The sheik ul Islam, in addition to being the highest ecclesiastical authority and the supreme interpreter of the Koran, is the first magistrate of the Ottoman empire, with his seat at Constantinople and keeper of the great seal, as well as de facto minister of justice and education. Twice a week he presides over the supreme court of justice, or arzodah, which is attached to his palace at Constantinople, and from his decisions there is no appeal. He has absolute control over the imams, mullahs, ulema and so forth, as well as over the superiors of various madrasahs, or theological colleges, and over all judicial and religious institutions. While he owes his appointment to the Sultan, yet he has in his power to depose the latter by reviving the people of their allegiance if, in his opinion, the Sultan has been guilty of anything to forfeit that allegiance. In many cases the Sultan is powerless with him, so he issued without his signature and the imprint of the great seal, or fetwa, which he is shah otodiah.

INDIANAPOLIS, NOV. 13—At least fourteen persons were killed and fifteen injured at three o'clock this morning when an inbound Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton passenger train ran into an open switch and crashed head on into a freight train.

ST. JOHN TO HAVE CUTTERS' CONVENTION IN NEXT FEBRUARY

The members of the Tailors' & Cutters' Association at a meeting last evening decided to arrange to hold their annual convention in St. John in February of next year. This will be the first time that such a gathering has taken place here and special preparations are being made by the committee in charge to have it assured that the convention will be distinctly successful. Representatives will be here from all parts of the three provinces.

BEATEN AT A DANCE AND DIES; SCARLET FEVER IS REPORT OF POLICE

Moosajav, Sask., Nov. 13—There is much public indignation over the case of A. C. Jackson, who was beaten at a dance a week ago and died on Sunday. No inquest was held.

FORMER COMMISSIONER IN THE YUKON DIED TODAY

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 13—William Ogilvie, of Ottawa, former commissioner in the Yukon, died in the Winnipeg hospital early this morning. He was brought here a week ago from Point Barrow, Alaska, suffering from septic poisoning.

RUSSIA CHANGES HER TONE Austria and Serbia May Settle Difficulties Themselves

European Situation Regarded as Less Critical Today—Turks Make Sortie From Adrianople But Are Driven Back After Hard Fight

(Canadian Press) St. Petersburg, Nov. 13—Russia does not intend to go to war over the question of Serbia obtaining a port on the Adriatic Sea, according to Sergius Storonoff, the Russian foreign minister. M. Storonoff informed M. Popovitch, the Serbian minister here, that this decision has been reached as the result of conversations between the German ambassador to Russia and himself.

The Novi Vremya and other newspapers denounce the Russian government's policy as one of vacillation and surrender. Premier Kokovoff expressed the opinion today that the dispute between Serbia and Austria would be settled by compromise.

Vienna, Austria, Nov. 13—A significant despatch from St. Petersburg is published today in the Neuvue Wiener Tagblatt. It says: "The attitude of official circles in St. Petersburg in their judgment of Austro-Serbian relations, has undergone a radical change. Foreign minister Storonoff has given the Serbian minister to Russia to understand that Russia will take no direct part in the question of a port on the Adriatic, but will leave it to be settled by the two belligerents, Austria and Serbia in regard to which Russia is willing to give Serbia her friendly support while avoiding any tension of Austro-Russian relations."

Paris, Nov. 13—The tension over the Balkan situation has become much easier in the opinion of official circles here. The comments of the newspapers also tend to a similar view.

Geneva, Switzerland, Nov. 13—All the Austrian officers belonging to the army reserves domiciled in Switzerland, received telegraphic orders on Monday to report at Vienna. They are assembling at Buchs near St. Gall, where a special train has been prepared to convey them to the Austrian capital.

Independent Telegrams Nov. 13—Despatches from Vienna to the newspapers here report that a more favorable view of the situation is taken in the Austrian capital. This is due chiefly to reports from Belgrade that efforts are being made in the Serbian capital to avert a peaceful settlement of the dispute with Austria.

Dr. S. Danoff, the president of the Bulgarian chamber of deputies, declared before his departure for this city that he was completely satisfied with the results of his mission.

Sofia, Nov. 13—A desperate sortie was made by the Turkish garrison of Adrianople yesterday according to a despatch to Mir. After five hours' fighting, the Turkish troops were driven back by the Bulgarian besiegers. They suffered heavy losses.

Paris, Nov. 13—The Financial News prints a Paris despatch reporting that the Bank of France has advanced $2,000,000 to the Bulgarian government against treasury bonds.

Vienna, Nov. 13—The Bulgarian government has so far not shown itself favorable to the idea of entering Constantinople, according to M. Nischewich, former Bulgarian foreign minister in an interview with the correspondent of the New Free Press from Sofia.

Bulgaria, he said, wanted to have Constantinople and Saloniki made free cities. The Bulgarian army, he continued, would halt before Constantinople and leave the city to the Turkish capital to the decision of the powers.

Constantinople, Nov. 13—The Turkish government has been informed that the European powers have instructed their representatives in the Balkan states to communicate Turkey's application for mediation to the allies, with a view of arranging an armistice preparatory to the conclusion of peace.

The departure of Muzuraz Bey, the minister of posts and telegraphs, for Europe yesterday, is believed here to be connected with the arrangements of an armistice.

Another bond of union between the motherland and the overseas dominions was that represented in the king and constitution. These were not only England's possessions, they were the empire's and England held that constitution in trust. For the overseas dominions no less than for the motherland, the empire needed imperial co-operation. One way of securing that was by means of imperial organization.

He did not believe they could "perfect that organization until we obtained some deliberative and directive body which typified all parts of the empire. That it would come, was certain. (Cheers.)

King George said the membership of the institute now numbered 1,758.

HEAD-ON COLLISION; FOUR BEEN KILLED

Passenger Train at 40 Miles an Hour Takes Open Switch and Crashes Into Freight

(Canadian Press) Indianapolis, Nov. 13—At least fourteen persons were killed and fifteen injured at three o'clock this morning when an inbound Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton passenger train ran into an open switch and crashed head on into a freight train.

ST. JOHN TO HAVE CUTTERS' CONVENTION IN NEXT FEBRUARY

The members of the Tailors' & Cutters' Association at a meeting last evening decided to arrange to hold their annual convention in St. John in February of next year. This will be the first time that such a gathering has taken place here and special preparations are being made by the committee in charge to have it assured that the convention will be distinctly successful. Representatives will be here from all parts of the three provinces.

BEATEN AT A DANCE AND DIES; SCARLET FEVER IS REPORT OF POLICE

Moosajav, Sask., Nov. 13—There is much public indignation over the case of A. C. Jackson, who was beaten at a dance a week ago and died on Sunday. No inquest was held.

FORMER COMMISSIONER IN THE YUKON DIED TODAY

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 13—William Ogilvie, of Ottawa, former commissioner in the Yukon, died in the Winnipeg hospital early this morning. He was brought here a week ago from Point Barrow, Alaska, suffering from septic poisoning.

LAWRIER GOVERNMENT DEFEAT IN BREACH OF PROMISE ACTION

Nichel Said He Could Not Wed as Change at Ottawa Meant Father Out of a Job

(Canadian Press) Pembroke, Ont., Nov. 13—Miss Hattie Ross of Cobden has been awarded $1,000 in an action against John Nichol of Smith's Falls for breach of promise of marriage.

The evidence of the plaintiff as to the reasons for her swain backing out of his promise to marry her had to do with the recent change of government. She said that Nichol had become engaged to her in July, 1911, but that in November of that year his ardent love-making had waned.

By way of explanation he told her that, as the government at Ottawa had changed, his father, who was a lock-master on the Rideau Canal at Smith's Falls, would lose his job, and he, the defendant, would have to keep his parents. However, she declared to release him from his promise for that reason and the courtship continued until July 1912, when, in a letter, he told her that he had gone back to another love.

SYDNEY MANAGER OF BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA MARRIED

Miss Helen C. Fraser of Chatham Bride of Gordon H. Leggie

(Special to Times) Chatham, N. B., Nov. 13—In one of the prettiest matrimonial events of the year last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fraser, their daughter, Helen C., became the bride of Gordon H. Leggie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leggie of Chatham. The bride looked lovely in a gown of coral-colored satin over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The groom was supported by his brother Wallace Leggie, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Wood. Only the families of both parties were present. After a wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Leggie left on the Maritime express for Montreal and other points. Mr. Leggie is manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia branch in Sydney.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 13—In one of the prettiest matrimonial events of the year last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fraser, their daughter, Helen C., became the bride of Gordon H. Leggie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leggie of Chatham. The bride looked lovely in a gown of coral-colored satin over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The groom was supported by his brother Wallace Leggie, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Wood. Only the families of both parties were present. After a wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Leggie left on the Maritime express for Montreal and other points. Mr. Leggie is manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia branch in Sydney.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 13—In one of the prettiest matrimonial events of the year last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fraser, their daughter, Helen C., became the bride of Gordon H. Leggie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leggie of Chatham. The bride looked lovely in a gown of coral-colored satin over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The groom was supported by his brother Wallace Leggie, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Wood. Only the families of both parties were present. After a wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Leggie left on the Maritime express for Montreal and other points. Mr. Leggie is manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia branch in Sydney.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 13—In one of the prettiest matrimonial events of the year last evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Fraser, their daughter, Helen C., became the bride of Gordon H. Leggie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leggie of Chatham. The bride looked lovely in a gown of coral-colored satin over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The groom was supported by his brother Wallace Leggie, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Wood. Only the families of both parties were present. After a wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Leggie left on the Maritime express for Montreal and other points. Mr. Leggie is manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia branch in Sydney.

REV. PROFESSOR CLARK OF TRINITY, TORONTO, IS DEAD AT EIGHTY

Toronto, Nov. 13—Rev. Professor William R. Clark, M. A., D. C. L., D. D., F. R. C. S., died yesterday after a long illness. For twenty-five years he was a member of the faculty of Trinity University, Toronto, retiring four years ago in his 84th year. His ripe scholarship and oratorical powers on the platform and in the pulpit, earned him a wide reputation in Canada, Great Britain and the United States.

RUSSIAN AND GERMAN STUDENTS IN FATAL ROW

Darmstadt, Germany, Nov. 13—A fatal riot between groups of German and Russian students of the technical university here occurred in the early morning hours of today. One Russian student was killed and a German student was injured.

DRIVER OF MURDER CAR CONFESSES IN THE NEW YORK GUNMEN'S CASE

Death of Zelig, Gang Leader, Loosens Shapiro's Tongue and He Gives Strong Evidence Against the Four

(Canadian Press) New York, Nov. 13—"Bald Jack" Rose and "Bridge" Webber, two of the informers, whose testimony resulted in the sentence of death on Charles Becker, were taken from the west side prison today to the criminal courts building to take the stand for the people against the four gunmen, indicted for murdering Herman Rosenthal. It was expected that their stories would be substantially the same as told at the Becker trial.

Another witness, whose testimony the state planned to introduce today, is Thomas Coupe, a young Englishman who, as clerk at the Elk Club, was an eye witness to the crime.

District Attorney Whitman expressed satisfaction today at the confession of William Shapiro, driver of the gray "murder car," who swore on the stand yesterday that his passengers were the defendants, "Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louis," "Whites" Lewis, and "Dago Frank" Curoi. Shapiro told the district attorney that he had been afraid to testify heretofore, but that the death of "Big Jack" Zelig, the gang leader, had so eased his mind, that he decided to turn state's evidence. He is a co-defendant of the gunmen, but it is now probable that the indictment will be dismissed.

ALL MADRID IS IN MOURNING FOR PREMIER

Business Suspended, Private Houses Are Draped in Black

(Canadian Press) Madrid, Nov. 13—The body of the assassinated premier, Canalejas, lay in state from an early hour this morning on a catafalque which had been erected in a temporary chapel in the chamber of deputies. The body was dressed in diplomatic uniform. Beneath the corners of the grey silk canopy covering the catafalque, stood a military guard of honor, the men with their hands inclined on their arms, which rested on their reversed rifles. A vast silent crowd of people gathered both in and outside the chamber to pay their last respects to the dead statesman.

The population of the capital appeared to be deeply impressed by the crime. There has been almost entirely suspended the nearly every business house is closed, while most of the houses in the residential section are draped with mourning decorations.

The liberal cabinet will continue to hold office under the temporary presidency of the foreign minister, Marquis Manuel Garcia Prieto, for the present at least, until the signature of the Monacaas treaty with France, which should have been completed today. Premier Poincaré of France, however, telegraphed today to the Spanish government, to defer the matter until a more convenient date.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The international configuration," the other was a thesis on "The anatomy of the human mind," over silk and carried a shower bouquet of roses and daisies. The decoration of the room had been carried out with such excellent effect that it had been transferred into a hall of evergreens with rosan berries intermingled.

The assassin, Manuel Pardo, is a man of distinguished appearance. He has regular features, a small nose, and a thin mustache. When arrested he had several manuscripts in his pocket. One in English was inscribed on the outside cover, "The