

GREENOCK.—LIFEBOAT FOR TROON.—On Thursday the town was astir on the occasion of the public inspection of a splendid and substantial new lifeboat, sent by the National Lifeboat Institution to Troon via Greenock, through the generous donation of £500 to the society's funds by Mrs. Sinclair, Rankhouse, Greenock. The boat was paraded through the principal thoroughfares of the town, and remained for several hours in Calver Square, where she was the subject of a public examination. The boat, which is named "Mary Sinclair," will be launched at Troon.

The movement for a better ministers, who have not only been put on a par with the Church of England, but have been taken a new status. A number of Churchmen and Nonconformists have joined together for the attainment of this end. That a new lifeboat is sent to Troon is a valuable contribution to the cause, and will be a great help to the poor of the town.
