

In this sum is included a donation of $10,000 from the Henderson family, specially appropriated to the erection of the College Chapel; a sum of £5,000, promised by an anonymous donor, a member of the University of Oxford, towards the Endowment of a Chair in Divinity and a Chair in Science; and a grant of £3,000 from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, which required a further sum of £6,000 to be raised to meet it, as follows:

£1,500 towards the Endowment of three Fellowships, to meet £3,000 to be otherwise raised for the same purpose.

£1,000 for an additional building to accommodate 20 Students, on condition that £1,500 more was raised.

£500 to endow a Lectureship in History, on condition that £1,500 more was raised.

Of these grants £500 has already been paid for the foundation of a Fellowship, which is at present appropriated to the Natural Sciences. The Corporation hope shortly to be able to claim the grant of £1,000 towards the new building now in course of erection. The remaining grants, amounting to $1,500, towards the foundation of two Fellowships and the Lectureship in History, expire on June 1st, 1891. It is of the utmost consequence that the sum of £3,500 required to meet them should be raised as speedily as possible, so as to secure to the University these great advantages, and prevent the loss of these grants.

The following Benefactions have been made specially appropriated to Scholarships or Exhibitions:
