BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 11.—A report upon the street cleaning and watering departments of the city of Boston by Richard T. Fox, of Chicago, an expert brought here to make an investigation by a committee of citizens was issued tonight and covers many pages detailed comment upon the conduct and efficiency of this department.

Mr. Boone died, and Mrs. Boone went to live on a farm. The child claims she was ill-treated by her adopted mother and fled to the woods. Since then Eisle has lived in a thicket subsisting on what edible things she found in the woods. At night she slept on a bed of leaves and an old quilt. Through neighbors it was learned that the girl was in a thicket pear a swamp in the pine.
