

Sussex Votes For a $25,000 School Building.

Enthusiastic Meeting of Ratepayers Pass Resolution Calling for Erection of Fine New School.

The ratepayers of Sussex at a meeting held Saturday morning decided to erect a $25,000 school building, the structure to be of brick or stone, and the site to be decided at a later meeting.

- The committee, whose report was decided Sussex ratepayers to erect a $25,000 building. J. R. McLean, chairman trustee. J. W. HUMPHREYS, trustee. HON. A. S. WHITE, trustee. DR. PEARSON, trustee. J. M. McINTYRE, trustee. H. H. DRYDEN, trustee.

The state of the present building and its cramped quarters made some change necessary, and at the annual meeting of the school board the question was brought up. Practically two propositions were before the board—extend the old building or erect a new one.

The meeting was called at ten o'clock Saturday morning, and was held in the schoolhouse. A large representation of ratepayers was present. J. Arthur Freese, secretary, called the meeting to order, and on motion of J. D. McKenna J. R. McLean was elected chairman.

The report for the year was read by the secretary. The pupils enrolled on the register totalled 315, as against 303 for the previous year. W. B. McKay has audited the secretary's accounts, which show a list of $48 taxes which cannot be collected. The delinquent list totalled $138.

Palmer Hammocks. For Ease, Comfort and Luxury in your Summer Home, get one of our Palmer Hammocks. The Colors, Qualities and Prices are just right. Exceptional values at $3.00 and $4.00. Have you seen our Baby Hammocks and Stands? W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd Market Square, St. John, N. B.

TRAIN WRECK; 35 KILLED. Freight and Express Men Head On—Victims Were All Employes of the Railroad Going Home.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 18.—The death toll of last night's disaster on the Western Maryland Railroad now totals 35, and this number is likely to be increased from among the list of those badly injured.

Another steamer ashore in the St. Lawrence. MONTREAL, June 17.—The Norwegian collier Agnar, 984 tons net register, went aground at five o'clock this morning on the channel bank to the south of the Longue Point shoals.

Still a mystery. The child, May Ward, when found, was dead, and by direction of the coroner the body was taken to the morgue.

Death of Alex. Wood near Campbellton still unexplained—Some claim he was struck by train. CAMPBELLTON, N. B., June 18.—The mystery surrounding the death of Alex. Wood remains as dark as ever.

Parliament may end in a month. OTTAWA, June 18.—It is likely that the autonomy bills will pass within further debate and that prorogation will be reached within a month.

Woman brutally murdered in Montreal. MONTREAL, June 18.—Mary Quinn, who lived alone in a small house in the north end of the city, was found lying dead in her doorway at an early hour this morning.

HORRIBLE CHILD MURDER IN THE WOODS NEAR DIGBY. Two Little Ones Left Bound and Gagged—When Found One Was Dead—The Other, a Baby Survived—The Inquest.

DIGBY, June 18.—At about three o'clock yesterday afternoon Fred O'Neill, a seventeen year old lad, found little Elma Young in the Scribner woods about a mile back from the settlement of Plympton, an hour later his brother, Clifford, an boy of twelve, came upon the remains of a year old Mary Ward and a quarter of a mile further back.

Spot anxious to see that any suspected persons did not slip away, for suspicion is rife in Plympton. The woman, Mary Hope Young, was at the house when she was with a child in her arms.

When Elma was found the crowd thronged the woman with having unless she showed them where the child was. Naturally all kinds of rumors were afloat, one of them being that the child, Elma, was cruelly treated and that she was in a state of unconsciousness.

Some way to the right of this road the living child was found on the face of a tree. The child was found with its feet free it had scraped its toes off its shoes and its dimpled cheek was scarred with the rough underbrush which had chafed it as a result of its baby's body of the other child in a scooped out place between two or three hills.

Annual school meeting. HAMPTON, Kings Co., June 17.—The annual school meeting of District No. 2 (Hampton Station) was held this morning, opening at 10 o'clock, when Dr. F. H. Wetmore was called to the fore.

Killed his wife with hatchet. BUFFALO, N. Y., June 19.—Vincenzo Govidiso is under arrest charged with the murder of his wife early today by beating her to death with a hatchet.

Manitoba wheat crop returns most cheering. OTTAWA, June 18.—The Manitoba wheat crop returns are most cheering. Wheat shows an increase of eleven per cent over last year's crop.

Woman brutally murdered in Montreal. MONTREAL, June 18.—Mary Quinn, who lived alone in a small house in the north end of the city, was found lying dead in her doorway at an early hour this morning.

Special Values in Men's Suits. The fact that we are selling more Clothing each season, and more this season than ever, proves that our values are the best and that there is satisfaction in buying here.

War Party in Russia Strongly Oppose Peace. Glowing Reports from Linevitch Induce Military Elements to Believe that Victory is in Sight.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Kororo Takahira, the Japanese minister, called at the White House today to inform the president that the Japanese plenipotentiaries would be able to reach Washington the first part of August.

Another correspondent, reiterating the report that Japan was now calling for a temporary cessation of hostilities, for between now and the beginning of the rainy season, in August, Oyamia is expected to accomplish great achievements in Manchuria.

Another correspondent, reiterating the report that Japan was now calling for a temporary cessation of hostilities, for between now and the beginning of the rainy season, in August, Oyamia is expected to accomplish great achievements in Manchuria.

Another correspondent, reiterating the report that Japan was now calling for a temporary cessation of hostilities, for between now and the beginning of the rainy season, in August, Oyamia is expected to accomplish great achievements in Manchuria.

Cossacks' Brutal Attack On Japanese Red Cross. Russians Have Recaptured Several Villages Occupied a Day or Two Before by Japs.

LONDON, June 20.—The Tokio correspondent of the Daily Telegraph describing a Cossack attack on a Japanese field hospital which occurred during an attack on a Japanese convoy at Tiphoushin May 20 as the most disgraceful incident of the war, says: "Despite the prominent display of Red Cross badges, the Cossacks fired volleys at close quarters and then charged with drawn swords, and the result that many non-combatants were killed or wounded."

From the south to about five miles of Liaoyangwopeng. Our detachment southward checked the offensive movement and the Japanese retreated. At about 8 a. m. a turning movement on the left flank executed by a battalion of Japanese infantry and three squadrons of cavalry was also reported.

From the south to about five miles of Liaoyangwopeng. Our detachment southward checked the offensive movement and the Japanese retreated. At about 8 a. m. a turning movement on the left flank executed by a battalion of Japanese infantry and three squadrons of cavalry was also reported.

From the south to about five miles of Liaoyangwopeng. Our detachment southward checked the offensive movement and the Japanese retreated. At about 8 a. m. a turning movement on the left flank executed by a battalion of Japanese infantry and three squadrons of cavalry was also reported.