

Famous Hymns All Churches Use

The determination of the General Synod of the Anglican church to bring out a hymn book for Canadian use is a tribute to the influence of the sacred song in worship.

HOW THE CHANGE CAME. In all probability the change was produced by the influence of the Wesleyes. These powerful preachers were also voluminous writers of hymns.

THE TIE THAT BINDS. Every denomination sings the hymns of sister churches, and it is edited by them. Charles Wesley wrote many of the hymns just cited are priceless treasures of the Church of England.

CANON DEVEBER'S LONG AND USEFUL LIFE ENDED.

He Died Friday --- Was Fifty-One Years a Clergyman and Thirty-Four Years Rector of St. Paul's.

Canon W. H. DeVeber passed away Friday morning at half-past seven o'clock at his residence, 83 Carleton street. Canon DeVeber was the oldest clergyman in the diocese of Fredericton and had entered upon his first year. Ever since the death of Mrs. DeVeber, in January last, he has been in failing health until the end came.

Canon Wm. Hubbard DeVeber was born in St. John, N. B., January 23, 1852, the third son and fourth child of Reverend H. DeVeber. His grandfather and great-grandfather during the American Revolution fought for the crown against the revolted colonists, and when the independence of the United States was achieved the latter came to New Brunswick and settled in Sunbury county. Levert DeVeber came to St. John and settled here, conducting a mercantile and banking business.

Canon Wm. Hubbard DeVeber obtained his elementary education in the grammar school conducted by James Patterson, L.L.D. In June, 1869, he married Elizabeth, daughter of St. Paul's church, after the regular course of four years' study he took his degree in June, 1872. Then, returning to St. John, he was licensed as lay reader by the Rev. Archdeacon Cator, ecclesiastical chancellor, and assigned to the parish of Simonds, under Canon Harrison.

Canon DeVeber was married Sept. 28, 1864, to Miss Mary E. Paddock, a daughter of Dr. Thomas Paddock of St. John. Of this marriage there were five children, of whom three were deceased. The two living are William Herbert and Allewyn Woodbridge. Mr. Herbert DeVeber married Harriet M., daughter of the Rev. Richard Mathers, of the Wignish Orphan Institution. He resides at Lower Woodstock.

WHAT ST. JOHN WOMEN WEAR, AND ARE LIKELY TO WEAR. A Little Commonsense Chat, not on New York or Paris Styles, but Home Styles. By POLLY GADABOUT.

THREE WEEKS OF RAIN, FOG AND MUGGINESS has almost driven thoughts of new clothes out of our minds. Wives and realists will sagely tell us we should set our minds on getting something more exalting, something more serious than mere togery, which is indeed a fact-but not a female will admit that she wears prayers continuously at the shrine of fashion; nor is such the case.

THIN BLOOD MAKES A WEAK BODY

But You Can Enrich the Blood and Send New Vigor Throughout the System by Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Every nerve and every muscle of the body depends on the blood for nourishment. Thin, watery blood makes weak nerves and flabby muscles. The heart fails in its work of forcing blood through the body; the lungs, the stomach, the liver, kidneys and bowels all do their work in an imperfect way, and you drift along weak, tired and miserable.
