The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

WHEN young Mr. Housewife first aspired, to build the home her mate desired, she dreamed of castles in the air, with never a "nor" nor care. She half imagined, in a way, that keeping house was only "play."

Too soon the sordid side of life—the dust and grime and soot and strife—each one, in turn, reminded her, that little problems must occur. A part of thrift is in the knack of fighting dirt around you, back, and of keeping constantly at work where dust and germs of illness lurk.

This housewife had her little cry, gave up—and scarcely knowing why. Then, from the sombre clouds of doubt, two rays of golden hope crept out. The Gold Dust Twins threw wide the door and entered, eager for a chore. They polished all the silverware, they scrubbed the bathroom and the stairs. Each mirror soon was shining bright, the kettles shone with gleaming light, and all around, from pit to dome, they garnished up that little home.

Ah! Ye who feel that, once begun, a housewife's work is NEVER done, have cheer! The Gold Dust Twins make play of any task that comes their way. A mop—a cloth—a busy brush, and honestly it makes us bluish, to think we ever played the drone by working in the house alone.

START ACTION AGAINST OWNERS OF STORSTAD

C.P.R. will prosecute former owners for $2,000,000 for loss of Empress of Ireland.

Montreal, July 13.—"We shall proceed immediately with our action against the former owners of the Storstad for $2,000,000 for loss of the Empress of Ireland," declared A. R. Holden, K. C., solicitor for the C. P. R., this afternoon.

"The action will be heard," Mr. Holden said, in the Admiralty court in this city in September. Money paid by the Prudential Trust Company on behalf of the Norwegian purchasers of the Storstad amounting to $175,000 has been paid into court, and we will, of course, lay claim to it on behalf of our clients."

Mr. Holden claims that the unanimous finding of the commissioners shows the C. P. R. is not liable for damages to the relatives of drowned persons or injured passengers.

MUSQUASH ORANGEMEN CELEBRATE "TWELFTH"
BY ENJOYABLE PICNIC

Guardian L. O. L. proved themselves peerless as hosts and visitors had a delightful day.

With fine weather and a large attendance yesterday the annual celebration of the Orange Men of Musquash was a great success. A picnic was held under the auspices of Guardian L. O. L. No. 5, Musquash. The visitors formed up at the Orange Hall in the morning when details of the picnic were arranged. It was held on the grounds of the Lislewood Fish and Game Corporation. Proceeded by the St. John Pipe Band members, the following lodges lined up in procession: Guardian L. O. L. No. 5, Musquash; Mount Purple L. O. L. No. 29, Lorneville; King's Own L. O. L. No. 140, Mac's Bay; Willis L. O. L. No. 7, Fairville; True Blue L. O. L. No. 11, St. John West.

Upon arriving at the picnic grounds interesting and appropriate speeches were made by David Hargrove, county master of St. John county, west; Rev. Mr. Ellis, Anglican rector of Musquash; Past County Master Moody, St. John county, west; Past County Master Turnbull, St. John county, west; R. M. McLean, past county master of St. John county, west. All present voted the picnic to be in every way successful. An enjoyable dinner was served under supervision of Guardian L. O. L. No. 5, in the Orange Hall at Musquash.

The following committee had charge of the arrangements for the day: Refreshments, William Shepherd, James Davidson, David Taylor; dinner and supper, Past County Master Moody, Charles Spencey, Edward Boyd; games and amusements, John Reid, Albert Shepherd, John McLean. During the afternoon dancing games in order and were much enjoyed. J. B. M. Baxter, M. L. A.; T. B. Carson, M. L. A. and G. Earle Logan, county master of St. John county, east, visited the scene of the festivities and were accorded a hearty welcome. The St. John Orangemen returned to the city on the Shore line train well pleased with the pleasant outing.

WATER SUPPLY FROM CITY MAINS FOR SCHOOL AT BEACONSFIELD

Committee appointed at meeting of Rate-payers of School District No. 1, held last night, to interview Common Council.

The annual meeting of the rate-payers of Beaconsfeld school district No. 1 in the parish of Lancaster, took place last evening in the Tower school. G. Earle Logan presided and George M. Bailly acted as secretary. W. O. Dunham, who has been secretary of school trustees, was re-elected to office. George M. Bailly, and James G. Carleton were selected as auditors. The annual report has been prepared and will be submitted at a special meeting of the rate-payers to be held later.

It has also been proposed to secure the water supply for the school from the city mains, with this idea in view a special committee consisting of S. M. Wetmore, Samuel Clarke, H. Colby Smith and G. Earle Logan was selected to wait on the city commissioners in order to see what arrangements can be made. At the present time the school is supplied with water from a well but this has been found inadequate and the new system is expected to improve conditions. It was also the intention to have the meeting discuss the matter of increased assessment for school purposes but this was postponed until the next meeting.

Inquest Into Shooting of Policeman O'Leary

Thomas Gillespie Called as Witness.
Thomas Gillespie was called and sworn. He testified that he resided in St. Patrick street, St. John, and was by occupation, a blacksmith. He knew the deceased, Frank O'Leary by sight. His (Gillespie's) home was in the same building as that occupied by the family of the accused. The Braman family lived on the right hand side of the house, while witness resided on the left.

Witness had not been working on July 8th last on account of sickness, and while lying in the bed in his house, he heard a noise in the toilet of the house. He did not hear any words spoken but later heard a report, but he did not know whether it was from a revolver or not. There was a second report a moment or two later and he felt the second report was from a revolver. Just following the second report he heard a man crying out. On opening the door of the toilet he saw Officer Frank O'Leary, who was in a slumped position. O'Leary said to witness, "Come up and help me take this man."

O'Leary Held On to Braman After He Was Shot.

O'Leary was holding Braman by the neck, the latter's head being down towards the floor. Witness entered and took hold of the prisoner's left arm, shoving him towards the defendant's room. Witness then said to O'Leary, "He's got a shooter," having seen the revolver in Braman's hand, which the witness was holding. O'Leary said, "Yes, he has shot me." Both the deceased and the witness were holding the prisoner, and finally the deceased wrested the revolver from Braman.

Witness did not at this time see any wounds or blood on the deceased. Witness and O'Leary proceeded and the accused and the deceased then proceeded to search the prisoner. In the course of the search the accused told the officer that there was some money in the left pocket of his vest and said, "You had better take that." Witness said, "If he gets away from you I'll shoot." Witness thought to be very nervous and weak and had great difficulty in speaking from want of breath. Witness and O'Leary took the accused out the alleyway from the house to St. Patrick street. After reaching the street O'Leary lay down the prisoner for a moment, but laid down on the sidewalk on account of his weakness. Two or three people whose witness did not know came and took charge of the prisoner. The deceased drew his revolver and pointing it towards the prisoner, said, "If he gets away from you I'll shoot." Witness thought he would shoot the prisoner. The ambulance arrived and witness helped to place O'Leary in the ambulance.

After returning to his house witness said that he did not see the prisoner return to the house with the prisoner. Witness asked the prisoner "Where do you get these goods? Where did you steal them?" The prisoner said, "I got them from a man named later Deputy Chief Jenkins took the man to the police station. The members of the jury were then called together to inquire into the death.

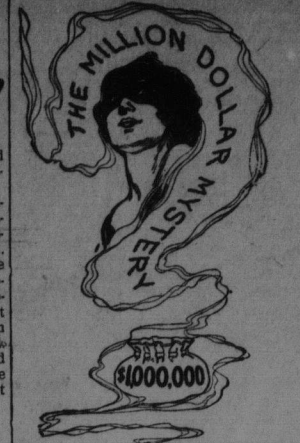

Dr. W. W. White.
Dr. Walter W. White, physician and surgeon at the suggestion of the coroner, gave his evidence without examination. He said that on Monday, July 6th, while at the General Public Hospital, seeing his private patients, he was requested by the superintendent to see a patient who it was alleged had been shot. Witness visited man and immediately saw the serious nature of the injuries. He gave directions to have the patient taken up stairs and have an X-ray picture taken with a view to locating the bullet which he (witness) believed was in the man's body. Preparations were also going on for an operation, if it was deemed advisable. Commissioner H. R. McLehane, who was present, told witness to take charge of the patient, place him in a private room and do everything possible to save his life.

The examination of deceased showed that the bullet, lodged between the lumbar vertebrae, while the patient was suffering from severe internal hemorrhage. On the left side between the ninth and tenth ribs was an opening which appeared to have been made by a bullet, while blood was escaping from the opening.

Witness believed the man to be bleeding to death internally and thought that immediate action was necessary. He opened the abdominal cavity, which was filled with blood and inserting his hand felt the blood came most profusely from a hole in the spleen. On enlarging the incision to give better access to the wound where a bullet had perforated the diaphragm, a partition which shuts off the lungs and heart above from the bowels below. The bullet was nowhere to be found and the condition of the patient forbade any extended attempt to locate it. It was not considered good surgery to hunt for the bullet when the patient was bleeding to death. With the assistance of Dr. Hogan and Dr. Malcolm, he was able to arrest the bleeding by packing with gauze. The patient was sent to his room, a day and night nurse provided.

Henry E. Mason, a driver of coal for the Gibbons Company, and Frank H. Mason, his son, gave evidence in regard to assisting in holding the accused until the arrival of the deputy chief. Mr. Mason, Jr., said that the accused then made the statement that "If the rest of the bunch were around there would be more than O'Leary shot."

This concluded the evidence and Dr. Roberts briefly reviewed the testimony presented at the inquest. He paid a high tribute to the deceased officer. Deploping the existing conditions which resulted in the shooting, the coroner urged that steps should be taken for the betterment and the uplifting of the youth of the city. He pointed out the duty which devolved upon the jury and urged them to make their finding entirely free from bias and solely on the evidence adduced. It was a few minutes after eleven o'clock when the jury returned, and when they returned with their finding

CAPT. KENDALL MAY GIVE UP SEA POST

Given extensive leave of absence and will probably get shore position when he returns to duty.

Montreal, July 13.—Captain Kendall, who commanded the sunken Empress of Ireland, is not likely to go to sea again, though he was exonerated by the Dominion wreck commission in its finding on the disaster last Saturday. It is understood here that the C. P. R. authorities have given him several months leave of absence and that at the conclusion of it he will accept a shore position either in Canada or in England in the service of the company.

"THE LAST SUPPER", A FILM THAT OFFERS FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Lyric has Picture Programme of unusual merit and Vaudeville feature that delights large audiences.

The patrons of the Lyric were last night shown a film, produced by the Americana Company, entitled "The Last Supper." The subject is unusual, and it is claimed that it asks the question "Is the Word of God heeded by the world?" But it is not a biblical subject, as most would assume from its title. The subject is, however, a religious atmosphere about the production which affords the opportunity for earnest thought by those who are interested in such a question as has been suggested. It is evident that in the treatment of such a subject great care was necessary from the part of those who are responsible for its production, and it seems safe to say that in "The Last Supper" there is presented a picture-story that may be advantageously heeded by men and women today.

"The Man With the Razor," a comic film, caused much merriment, whilst the singing and dancing of Hayes and Wynne, the Australian champion dancers, was particularly good. The impersonations of Vesta Tilley by the former were well done and brought forth much applause, while Mrs. Wynne is certainly a star amongst the fast dancers.

OBITUARY.

Annie Brand.
Annie, eldest daughter of Joseph and the late Ellen Brand, died at the General Public Hospital at an early hour yesterday morning. Miss Brand had been ill since Thursday, and died after an operation on her throat. She came from Norton, Kings county, and was in the 21st year of her age. She was employed as a stenographer in the firm of Baird & Peters. Miss Brand is survived by her father, one sister, three brothers and an aunt, Miss Emma Urd, who was with her at the time of her death. The body was taken to Norton yesterday afternoon.

At 11:35 o'clock scarcely a dozen spectators were in the court room, although at intervals during the evening there were numbers of spectators and a great deal of interest seemed to be evinced in the enquiry.

Coroner Roberts thanked Foreman Rowan and the members of the jury for their assistance and adjourned his court at 11:45 o'clock.
