and a numerous assembly of ladies and gentlemen interested in the affairs of the Society.

The Right Revd. the PRESIDENT took the chair at 7½ o'clock, and opened the proceedings by inviting those present to sing two verses of the Hundredth Psalm.

The Venerable Archdeacon WILLIS read Prayers.

His Lordship the President then briefly stated the object of the Meeting, and called upon the Assistant Secretary to read the following REPORT.

"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praise unto thy name, O most Highest!" And the Committee of the DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY OF NOVA-SCOTIA feel that they have cause for thanksgiving unto the Lord, for the privilege of being again assembled with their brethren in the celebration of their anniversary,—for the evidences of increasing interest in the welfare of the Society which they are enabled to detail,—and for the daily opening prospects of increased usefulness in the promotion of the cause of Christ and His Church.

It is a subject of thankfulness to our gracious Lord that the General Meeting of this Society attracts so large a number of the friends of the Church in the city, to greet the presence of our brethren, the Ministers and members of the Church from different portions of the Province, and to hear from their lips the account of the way in which the Lord prospers them in their various districts, and makes the Church we love an instrument of good to the souls of men.

It is a subject of thankfulness that there now remains not a single mission in this Province in which there does not exist a branch of this Society, and that those Committees, which have been but lately formed,
