

made this book possible. The technical preparation of the manuscript for publication was undertaken by a team coordinated by Gail Kirkpatrick Devlin, which included Aline Gélinau, Islay Mawhinney, Catherine Devlin and James Hyndman. Another member of this group, Isobel Cameron, chose the photographs and prepared the list of persons, the list of abbreviations and the index. Within the Historical Section, they were aided by Ted Kelly, Janet Ritchie and Calla Fireman. I have also derived support for this project from Kathy Giles-Mackenzie, Anna Mackenzie and Sarah Mackenzie. Some of the editorial preparation of this work was made possible by assistance from Maria Horner and the late Imre Horner, to whom I express my profound gratitude. All of those mentioned above have assisted me, but I am responsible for the selection of documents in this book.
