Mr. G. McGuire, Provincial Land Sur-Mr. G. McGuire, Provincial Land Sur-report, was accidently drawned near the Grand Trunk Forry Wharf, at Quebec on Tuesday night. The body was found float-ing yesterday afternoon a short distance above the spot where the accident occurred. Mr. McGuire lately completed a valuable map of the Gold-mining district of the Chau-diano region, which forms a part of the Par-limentary report just issued.

WATCH THE CATTLE DROVERS .-- OR WATCH THE CATTLE DROVEMS.--On Seturdsy last a cattle dealer was driving a herd of cattle along the Montreal road for shipment at Kingborn's wharf, when he was observed to leave his cattle and proceed a little distance on the adjacent common and deliberately drive three cows which were grasing there, and include them amongst his drove, and then quietly proceed on his way. Mr. John Fleming, the person who observed these operations, immediately followed the man to Kingbora's wharf, and succeeded is making him give up the cows, followed the man to Kinghern's wherf, and succeeded in making him give up the cows, which were returned to the common from whence their owner being unknown. It is a pity Mr. Fleming did not give the fellow over to the police.—Kingston American.

The St. Paul's Press of the 12th learns that no new depredations have been com-mitted by the Indians on the frontier. They are attempting to leave the settlements. The excitement has subsided, and the settlers have returned to their homes. Squade of minute men are organized ready for any emergency.

On Monday afternoon, says the St. Catharines' Journal, the wife of Mr. John Ross, merchant, of that town, died very suddenly. She appeared to be in perfect health ten minutes before her death. The storekeepers had a shutter on each window on Tuesday, as a mark of respect.

Town Clerk. A sudden panic fell upon the worship pers on Easter Day in a large church at Lisbon. An enormous spider was suddenly seen to descend to an ancient web that is and excitent of lowed. When the women began to serem, and a scene of general ter-rwas captured she began to scream, and a scene of general ter-ror and excitement followed. When Arachne was captured she was found to be, with legs extended nearly five feet long. She weighed siz pounds.

KIDNAPPING A girl named Mary Ann Saunders kidnapped a child, aged three-and-a-half years, from Hamilton, Canada West, a few days since. The mother of the child, Mrs. Mary Smith, was in Buffalo on Wed-nesday, and in Cleveland on Thursday, in search of the kidnapper, but she found she had departed previously for Cleveland, taking the child with her.

RAIN AND HAIL STORM .- Yesterday this township was visited by one of the most severe and destructive wind and hail storm which we have ever witnessed. In many places the fences were carried away by the reshet, and many farmers are to-day lamenting the destruction of some of their choicest and most promising fields of grain. Messrs. Vernon, McGill, Taylor, Wales, Gilroy, and Robson, are the principal suf-ferers of whom we have heard. On the ridges the hail storm was most severe, and many of the stones were as large, as some of our informants say, as pigeons' eggs.-Prince Albert Observer.

The Dunnville Tribune states that Tuesday morning last the saw mill of Mr. A. Spencer, in that town, was destroyed by fre. The mill was valued at $4,500 and insured for $2,500. About 150,000 feet of hary.

THE NEWSPAPER APPRECIATED.-Without any newspaper, life would narrow itself to the small limits of my personal experiences, and humanity be compressed into the ten or fifteen people I mix with. Ncw, I refuse to accept this. I have not a six-pence in consols, but I want to know how they stand. I was never—I never in all likelihood shall te in Jupan; but I have an intense curiosity to know what our troops did at Yokonama. I deplore the people did at Yokonama. I deplore the people who suffered by that railroad smash; and I sympathise with the newly married couple so beautifully depicted in the "Illustrated," as they drove off in a chaise and four, the bald head old gent at the hall door waving them a last adien. I like the letters of the correspondents, with their little grievances about unpunctual trains or some unwar rantable omissions in the Liturgy. I even like the people who chronicle the rain fall, and record the little facts about the mildness of the season. As for the advertise ments I regard them as the glass and mirror of the age. Show me but one page of the Wants' of any country and I engage myself to give a sketch of the current civilisation of the period. What glimpses of rare interiors do we gain by these brief paragraphs ! How full of suggestiveness and of story are they—Blackwood's Maga-
