Great Britain has much staked upon the of Nora Sectia.

Great Britain has much staked upon the logalty and lowe-of-these North, American colories. The prosession of Haifax and Bermoda gives us in the time of war the common the statement of the whole North American coats. Within these two statements in bur possession, and with a constant communication maintainer, and the statement shown, our destination of the statement of the statem the maintenance of the colonial Actus which binds the countries behind it to the mo-ther country. And the only condition upon, which this accuracy can be maintained is by keep-ing-tis-colonists loyst. To make and keep-them so there is no other recipe than that of leaving their local government in their own-bands. Self-covernment in all local condibands. Self government in all local affairs, will soon render them as prosperous as their neighbours are United Status, and prosperity
