

he beholds the end of all those glorious prospects, as between the huts of Quatre-Bras and the hamlet of Waterloo, the conquering hero bows before the will of the Invincible.

GOUGING.

There has been of late, in this city and vicinity, a regular craze for what is called "gouging out eyes"—whether of dumb animals or men. We are not acquainted with the process, nor are we anxious to learn it from experience or observation.

Of late several cases of this terrible cruelty have been brought before the public through the medium of press reports. We would beg of these mercenary fiends, as they would a wolf and to frighten others by the examples made.

EMILE ZOLA.

It is stated that Emile Zola, the author of so much filthy realism, is going to Lourdes on a pilgrimage to seek material for a fresh sensational novel.

The Rev. H. P. Peeters' Fund. Mr. Felix Callahan, sen., $5; Miss Scott, Ottawa, Ont., $5; A sympathizer, Smeborough, Que., $3; Mrs. F. Callahan, $2; Mr. W. H. Callahan, $2; Mr. V. Lampson, Kemptonville, Ont., $2; Mr. Alex. Hammond, $1; Mrs. Robert Warren, 14 Mayor street, $1; Mrs. H. J. Ward, $1; Mrs. M. J. McAndrew, $1; Miss M. Dole, Antigonish, N.S., 27c; Mr. L. A. Lambert, Kingston, Ont., 25c.

CORRESPONDENCE.

"The Manitoba School Question."

To the Editor of THE TRUE WITNESS: Sir.—The bigots in Manitoba have had their own way this time, consequently, for some time to come, we shall bear their singing their song of victory and (metaphorically) dancing upon the bodies of their victims.

It is as evident as the noon-day sun, that in the present case it is not the interests of the province that have been sought, but those of the English majority.

Equally clear and evident is it, that a love of justice did not bring about the obnoxious measure, for a more manifest injustice can hardly be conceived, than to oblige men to pay for the support of institutions, to which they conscientiously object, and from which, for the same reason, they can derive no benefit.

Moreover the act is a gross injustice towards the French population of Manitoba, who first undertook the colonization of the country, who throughout the whole of Canada's history have acted as the noblest and bravest and most enduring pioneers of civilization.

Nor was the strengthening of brotherly love and friendship between the two elements of Manitobian society a consideration which passed through the brains of the members of the Manitoba legislature. No, no; they well knew, they must have known, that the passing of the act would merely tend to fan into a blaze that smouldering spark of discontent, that has slowly but surely, been burning in many a Manitobian's breast.

The Catholics of Manitoba, then, will pay their school-tax like good citizens; they will, of course, have their own schools to support as well. What of that? It is not one hundred thousand that bear in Ireland, and in England, also, not a hundred years ago.

As a general rule, the Catholic population of Manitoba is poor compared with that of Quebec. Yet in Quebec Catholics have their own schools, supported, like those of their Protestant fellow-subjects, out of the school rates.

Now, it seems to me that Catholics should help one another all over the world; much more so should they of one nation help their co-religionists. This is in accordance with the words of Holy Writ.

I propose then, that at certain times, a voluntary subscription should be taken up, throughout the whole of the Province of Quebec, for the aid of the Catholic schools of Manitoba, and that this sum, be forwarded to his Grace Archbishop Tache, to be disposed of, as he sees fit.

BERTRAM GREENE, 132 Notre Dame street, Montreal, 9th August 1892.

Disreputable Houses and Disreputable Men.

To the Editor of THE TRUE WITNESS: Sir.—In your interview with the Chief of Police, as recorded in your issue of the 3rd inst., "Disreputable Houses," that functionary is reported as saying, "he is desirous of hearing any suggestions that citizens may desire to make, and to act upon them if at all practicable."

article on "Disreputable Places," mention was made of two policemen in uniform, of No. — station, having spent a considerable portion of a Sunday evening in one of those dens—at present vacant, but at the time in which those illustrious? uniformed visitors honored it with their presence, it was looked upon as one of the most infamous nests among the many vile resorts to be found in the locality.

modestly furnished, but I find it absolutely impossible to pay for it without appealing for aid to all our friends who sympathize with the struggling Catholics of St. Yvonne. His Grace Archbishop Walsh, deeply sympathizing with pastor and people, seeing their laudable efforts during the past five years, cordially approves of this Bazaar, hopes it will be crowned with success, and blesses all who aid it.

Continued from first page. GLADSTONE'S SUCCESS. THE VOTE ANNOUNCED. The tellers appeared at 22.25 a.m., with the paper containing the numbers showing the result of the division, and handed the paper to Mr. Arnold Morley, the Liberal whip.

The Cabinet has been summoned to meet at noon tomorrow (Friday) and Lord Salisbury will leave at 1 p.m. for Osborne house. After formally resigning Lord Salisbury will remain at Osborne house for the night.

MR. GLADSTONE'S MOVEMENTS. The Queen's Anxiety. LONDON, August, 12.—Mr. Gladstone will go to Osborne house Monday with a complete list of the next Cabinet to submit to the Queen, but in pursuance of constitutional usages he maintains absolute silence on the appointments.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS. Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself.

LUBY'S PARISIAN HAIR RENEWER. RESTORES GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL COLOR. STRENGTHENS AND BEAUTIFYS THE HAIR. CURES DANDRUFF AND ITCHING OF THE SCALP. KEEPS THE HAIR MOIST AND THE HEAD COOL. IS NOT A DYE, BUT RESTORES THE HAIR NATURALLY. FOR THE HAIR. IS A DELIGHTFUL DRESSING FOR LADIES' HAIR. RECOMMENDS ITSELF, ONE TRIAL IS CONVINCING. IMMEDIATELY ARRESTS THE FALLING OF HAIR. DOES NOT SOIL THE PILLOWSLIPS OR HEAD-DRESS. Sold by all Chemists and Perfumers, 50 cents a Bottle. R. J. Devins, GENERAL AGENT, MONTREAL. PRINCIPAL LABORATORY, RUE VIVIERNE, ROUEN, FRANCE.

"THE PALLIUM."

ARCHBISHOP VAUGHAN INVESTED.

A Symbol of Submission—Interesting Information on the Subject—the Ceremonies.

Yesterday, the 16th August, the imposing ceremonies of the investiture of Archbishop Vaughan with the pallium took place in his own Cathedral. It was a remarkable event and will be a landmark in the history of the Church in England. The following interesting information appeared in the London Universe.

THE GLADSTONE CABINET.

The following despatch from London, gives the names and appointments in the new Cabinet: The News announces that Earl Roseberry will be foreign secretary; Baron Herschel, Lord Chancellor, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Herbert H. Asquith, Home Secretary; Rt. Hon. Henry H. Fowler, President of the Local Government Board; Rt. Hon. H. Campbell-Bannerman, Secretary for War; Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty; Rt. Hon. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland; Rt. Hon. A. J. Mundella, President of the House of Trade; Sir Charles Russell, Attorney-General; John Rigby, Solicitor-General; Right Hon. Samuel Walker, Lord Chancellor of Ireland; Mr. Macdormald, attorney-general for Ireland; Rt. Hon. Edward P. C. Magdon, patronage secretary; Alexander Asher, solicitor-general for Scotland; and Right Hon. J. E. Balfour, Lord advocate.

THE HOUSE TO ADJOURN.

The House of Commons will resume business on Thursday next mainly to issue writs for the re-election of ministers. Most of the members of the House have already left town and intend not to return till the opening of the session in January. Neither Mr. Gladstone nor his leading colleagues will appear in the House on Thursday. The prorogation of Parliament is expected to take place on 1 August 22.

THE RESIGNATION MOVY.

The Cabinet has been summoned to meet at noon tomorrow (Friday) and Lord Salisbury will leave at 1 p.m. for Osborne house. After formally resigning Lord Salisbury will remain at Osborne house for the night. Mr. Gladstone will see the Queen on Saturday. The representative of the Associated Press learns definitely that Sir William Vernon Harcourt has accepted the post of Chancellor of the Exchequer in the new Cabinet. Mr. Gladstone has cooled towards his former favorite, Mr. Fowler, owing to the latter's want of energy during the electoral period.

MR. GLADSTONE'S MOVEMENTS.

The Queen's Anxiety. LONDON, August, 12.—Mr. Gladstone will go to Osborne house Monday with a complete list of the next Cabinet to submit to the Queen, but in pursuance of constitutional usages he maintains absolute silence on the appointments. It has been impossible to conceal the arrangements made for Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt at the exchequer and for Mr. John Morley as Irish secretary, but Mr. Gladstone's intentions regarding other ministers are not known even to some definitely appointed members of his ministry. He has received queries from aspirants for office and has discussed the composition of the cabinet with his chief advisers without definitely communicating to any one his final selections. Being a punctilious observer of official precedent he will not formally offer a place to any one until he has actually received the Queen's command to form a ministry. Surmises are rife regarding new ministerial combinations. Among the most striking reports finding credence in official legal quarters is one to the effect that Lord Herschel will become governor-general of India; that Lord Chief Justice Coleridge will become Lord Chancellor and that Sir Charles Russell will become Lord Chief Justice. Lord Herschel's appointment will cause a shudder of apprehension throughout the country in view of the critical position of the Indian-Russian relations.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS.

Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself. Another source of the Queen's disquietude is the change in the Royal household appointments inevitable on Mr. Gladstone's accession to power. While the Liberal ranks included the old Whig families changes in the Royal household mattered little to

"THE PALLIUM."

ARCHBISHOP VAUGHAN INVESTED.

A Symbol of Submission—Interesting Information on the Subject—the Ceremonies.

Yesterday, the 16th August, the imposing ceremonies of the investiture of Archbishop Vaughan with the pallium took place in his own Cathedral. It was a remarkable event and will be a landmark in the history of the Church in England. The following interesting information appeared in the London Universe.

THE GLADSTONE CABINET.

The following despatch from London, gives the names and appointments in the new Cabinet: The News announces that Earl Roseberry will be foreign secretary; Baron Herschel, Lord Chancellor, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Herbert H. Asquith, Home Secretary; Rt. Hon. Henry H. Fowler, President of the Local Government Board; Rt. Hon. H. Campbell-Bannerman, Secretary for War; Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty; Rt. Hon. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland; Rt. Hon. A. J. Mundella, President of the House of Trade; Sir Charles Russell, Attorney-General; John Rigby, Solicitor-General; Right Hon. Samuel Walker, Lord Chancellor of Ireland; Mr. Macdormald, attorney-general for Ireland; Rt. Hon. Edward P. C. Magdon, patronage secretary; Alexander Asher, solicitor-general for Scotland; and Right Hon. J. E. Balfour, Lord advocate.

THE HOUSE TO ADJOURN.

The House of Commons will resume business on Thursday next mainly to issue writs for the re-election of ministers. Most of the members of the House have already left town and intend not to return till the opening of the session in January. Neither Mr. Gladstone nor his leading colleagues will appear in the House on Thursday. The prorogation of Parliament is expected to take place on 1 August 22.

THE RESIGNATION MOVY.

The Cabinet has been summoned to meet at noon tomorrow (Friday) and Lord Salisbury will leave at 1 p.m. for Osborne house. After formally resigning Lord Salisbury will remain at Osborne house for the night. Mr. Gladstone will see the Queen on Saturday. The representative of the Associated Press learns definitely that Sir William Vernon Harcourt has accepted the post of Chancellor of the Exchequer in the new Cabinet. Mr. Gladstone has cooled towards his former favorite, Mr. Fowler, owing to the latter's want of energy during the electoral period.

MR. GLADSTONE'S MOVEMENTS.

The Queen's Anxiety. LONDON, August, 12.—Mr. Gladstone will go to Osborne house Monday with a complete list of the next Cabinet to submit to the Queen, but in pursuance of constitutional usages he maintains absolute silence on the appointments. It has been impossible to conceal the arrangements made for Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt at the exchequer and for Mr. John Morley as Irish secretary, but Mr. Gladstone's intentions regarding other ministers are not known even to some definitely appointed members of his ministry. He has received queries from aspirants for office and has discussed the composition of the cabinet with his chief advisers without definitely communicating to any one his final selections. Being a punctilious observer of official precedent he will not formally offer a place to any one until he has actually received the Queen's command to form a ministry. Surmises are rife regarding new ministerial combinations. Among the most striking reports finding credence in official legal quarters is one to the effect that Lord Herschel will become governor-general of India; that Lord Chief Justice Coleridge will become Lord Chancellor and that Sir Charles Russell will become Lord Chief Justice. Lord Herschel's appointment will cause a shudder of apprehension throughout the country in view of the critical position of the Indian-Russian relations.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS.

Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself. Another source of the Queen's disquietude is the change in the Royal household appointments inevitable on Mr. Gladstone's accession to power. While the Liberal ranks included the old Whig families changes in the Royal household mattered little to

"THE PALLIUM."

ARCHBISHOP VAUGHAN INVESTED.

A Symbol of Submission—Interesting Information on the Subject—the Ceremonies.

Yesterday, the 16th August, the imposing ceremonies of the investiture of Archbishop Vaughan with the pallium took place in his own Cathedral. It was a remarkable event and will be a landmark in the history of the Church in England. The following interesting information appeared in the London Universe.

THE GLADSTONE CABINET.

The following despatch from London, gives the names and appointments in the new Cabinet: The News announces that Earl Roseberry will be foreign secretary; Baron Herschel, Lord Chancellor, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Herbert H. Asquith, Home Secretary; Rt. Hon. Henry H. Fowler, President of the Local Government Board; Rt. Hon. H. Campbell-Bannerman, Secretary for War; Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty; Rt. Hon. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland; Rt. Hon. A. J. Mundella, President of the House of Trade; Sir Charles Russell, Attorney-General; John Rigby, Solicitor-General; Right Hon. Samuel Walker, Lord Chancellor of Ireland; Mr. Macdormald, attorney-general for Ireland; Rt. Hon. Edward P. C. Magdon, patronage secretary; Alexander Asher, solicitor-general for Scotland; and Right Hon. J. E. Balfour, Lord advocate.

THE HOUSE TO ADJOURN.

The House of Commons will resume business on Thursday next mainly to issue writs for the re-election of ministers. Most of the members of the House have already left town and intend not to return till the opening of the session in January. Neither Mr. Gladstone nor his leading colleagues will appear in the House on Thursday. The prorogation of Parliament is expected to take place on 1 August 22.

THE RESIGNATION MOVY.

The Cabinet has been summoned to meet at noon tomorrow (Friday) and Lord Salisbury will leave at 1 p.m. for Osborne house. After formally resigning Lord Salisbury will remain at Osborne house for the night. Mr. Gladstone will see the Queen on Saturday. The representative of the Associated Press learns definitely that Sir William Vernon Harcourt has accepted the post of Chancellor of the Exchequer in the new Cabinet. Mr. Gladstone has cooled towards his former favorite, Mr. Fowler, owing to the latter's want of energy during the electoral period.

MR. GLADSTONE'S MOVEMENTS.

The Queen's Anxiety. LONDON, August, 12.—Mr. Gladstone will go to Osborne house Monday with a complete list of the next Cabinet to submit to the Queen, but in pursuance of constitutional usages he maintains absolute silence on the appointments. It has been impossible to conceal the arrangements made for Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt at the exchequer and for Mr. John Morley as Irish secretary, but Mr. Gladstone's intentions regarding other ministers are not known even to some definitely appointed members of his ministry. He has received queries from aspirants for office and has discussed the composition of the cabinet with his chief advisers without definitely communicating to any one his final selections. Being a punctilious observer of official precedent he will not formally offer a place to any one until he has actually received the Queen's command to form a ministry. Surmises are rife regarding new ministerial combinations. Among the most striking reports finding credence in official legal quarters is one to the effect that Lord Herschel will become governor-general of India; that Lord Chief Justice Coleridge will become Lord Chancellor and that Sir Charles Russell will become Lord Chief Justice. Lord Herschel's appointment will cause a shudder of apprehension throughout the country in view of the critical position of the Indian-Russian relations.

HER MAJESTY'S FEARS.

Until Tuesday, when Mr. Gladstone returns from Osborne house, the exact composition of the Cabinet will remain unknown. The Queen will have an unusually exciting time during her conferences with Mr. Gladstone over the nominations. The names of the old group re-entering the Cabinet she knows, but most of the new set she dreads knowing. It is known in the Court circle that it is fear regarding the personnel of the Gladstone ministry that mainly induced the Queen to consult the Duke of Devonshire during his visit to Osborne house, just concluded, as to whether it was possible for him to re-unite with Mr. Gladstone and sweeten the Liberal ministry by taking office himself. Another source of the Queen's disquietude is the change in the Royal household appointments inevitable on Mr. Gladstone's accession to power. While the Liberal ranks included the old Whig families changes in the Royal household mattered little to

OBITUARY.

Rev. Alexis Brunet, O.M.I. The congregation of the Oblate Fathers sustained a great loss in the recent death of the Rev. Father Alexis Brunet. He was born in the diocese of Laval, France, in 1812 and ordained priest in 1837. At first he acted as curate for a few years, but finally he entered the community of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate. He made his vows in 1876 and proceeded with Bishop Grandin to the diocese of St. Albert. During five years he studied the Indian language and devoted himself to the humble mission confided to his care. He returned to Montreal in 1881. Since then he ceaselessly preached retreats in different parishes and religious communities. Charity was his characteristic virtue. Wonderful the good he performed wherever he went. He was specially devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary and spoke of her in his sermons as frequently as possible. Touched with what proves to be his final illness, he in 1891 he ceased preaching. The careful nursing that he received at the Hotel Dieu, during six long months, failed to check the malady. He left for the Oblate Mission house at Mattawa, and there on the 4th August. His death was a most edifying scene. Bishop Lorrain, of Pembroke, chanted the Requiem Mass.—La Semaine Religieuse.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Mrs. Bellamy Stover, wife of the congressman from the First Ohio District, has joined the Catholic Church. The Holy Father has received in private audience Mgr. Thomas Boneau, Bishop of Lincoln, Nebraska, U.S.A. Mgr. Agapito Panici, sub-librarian of the Vatican for Economy and Discipline, has been promoted to the office of sub-dataro. The county El Paso, Tex., has been added to the territorial jurisdiction of Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Brennan, D. D., Bishop of Dallas. Mgr. Farley, V. G., of New York, has sailed for Europe. He was presented with a handsome purse of gold by his parishioners of St. Gabriel's Church, on the eve of his departure. Isaac Resnesky, a prominent Hebrew of Boston, has just succeeded in raising the sum of $4,000 to aid the good Sisters in charge of the Carney hospital, South Boston, to continue in their human work.