

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

PREFACE	Page v
-----------------	-----------

MAP (follows page vi).

Memorandum.

1784-1814.

Description of fisheries	1
Early Acts of Parliament regarding fisheries	4
Fishery rights of foreign Powers	5
Treaty of Utrecht	5
France	5
Treaty of Paris	6
Spain	6
Rights of the Colonists	7
Article X of Treaty of Commerce between France and the United States of 6th February, 1778	7
Negotiations in Paris for Treaty of Peace between Great Britain and the United States.	7
Extracts from Journal of Mr. J. Adams on subject of French exclusive rights on coast of Newfoundland	13
Definitive Treaty of Peace, signed in Paris, 3rd September, 1783	16
Complaints of Colonists at stipulations of Treaty	16

1814-1818.

Negotiations of Treaty of Peace at Ghent in 1814	17
Treaty of Peace signed at Ghent on 24th December, 1814	21
Instructions sent to Governor of Newfoundland	21
Concessions proposed by Sir R. Keats	23
Mr. Bagot instructed to negotiate	24
Negotiations commenced in London	25
Convention signed in London, 20th October, 1818	32
Correspondence between France and United States on subject of Newfoundland fisheries	33

1818-1854.

Complaints of Colonists at stipulations of Treaty of 1818	35
Gut of Canso	36, 37, 38
Complaints of American Ministers at measures adopted by the Colonial Governments	37
Exclusion of American fishermen from Bay of Fundy	39
The Bay of Fundy opened to American fishermen	39
Opinion of the Earl of Aberdeen in favour of immediate opening of fisheries to United States fishermen	40
Colonists opposed to concessions proposed by the Earl of Aberdeen	41
Commencement of commercial negotiations with the United States	41
Instructions to Sir H. Bulwer with regard to commercial negotiations	42
Measures adopted by Imperial and Colonial authorities for enforcing fishery rights	43
Ill-defined rights of fishery in bays	43
Opinion of Dr. T. Twiss regarding interpretation of Article I of Treaty of 1818	46
Mission of the Earl of Elgin	47
Power of the Crown to conclude Convention without consent of Colonial Legislature	49
Fisheries on coast of Newfoundland	50
Signature of Treaty on 5th July, 1854	50
Difficulties with regard to Newfoundland	50
Advantages obtained by Treaty of 1854	51
Appointment of Commissioners to settle river fishery limits	53
List of Imperial Acts, &c., to carry into execution Treaty of 1854	54

1854-1866.

Termination of Treaty of 1854	55
Negotiations proposed by Her Majesty's Government	55
Proclamation issued by the Canadian Government	57
Instructions sent to Sir F. Bruce regarding the termination of Treaty of 1854	57