. . Camp Borden Airmen Win Dive-Bombing Honors hree student-pilots from Camp Borden, who had only a few hours' the day before, copped the honors in an RCAF dive-bombing ition held at the RAF school at Kingston yesterday. Teams from le, Aylmer, Camp Borden and Kingston competed. The winning a shown in upper right with Group Captain C. Carling-Kelly, nding officer of Camp Borden. The trio are, left to right, Lindsay, Montreal; Brian Smith, Schemberg, and M. Tuchak,

Three student-pilots from Camp Borden, who had only a few hours practise the day before, copped the honors in an RCAF dive-bombing competition held at the RAF school at Kingston vesterday. Teams from Dunnville, Aylmer, Camp Borden and Kingston competed. The winning feam is shown in upper right with Group Captain C, Carling-Kelly, commanding officer of Camp Borden. The trio are, left to right, Jeffrey Lindsay, Montreal; Brian Smith, Schomberg, and M. Tuchak, Winnipeg. Seated in the cockpit of his Harvard trainer is LA.C. Dick Roach, 21, of 116 Braemar avenue, who was the best marksman of several Taronto pilots who took part. In the lower photograph, Group Captain J. S, Scott of No. 1 Training Command (right) presents the winning trophy to Group Captain Carling-Kelly of Camp Borden. Looking on are Group Captain Le Poer Trench, O.C., Kingston, (left) Group Captain Norman Irvin, C.O., Aylmer, and Group Captain V. H. Patriarche, A.F.C., commanding officer of the Dunwille School.