THIS FORM IS TO BE USED IN ACCORDANCE WITH PARAGRAPHS 1931 AND 1932, K.R. & O. FOR THE R.G.A.F. AND AIR FORCE ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER A.39/1.

DAILY DIARY

SHEET 1, PAGE 1

(OF

(UNIT OR FORMATIONNO. 2 S.F.T.S., Uplands, Ontario

Uplands, Ontario let Dec. 1942  2nd Dec. 1942  Snowing. High winds. Mr. Gregory Clark, feature writer for The Toronto Star, visited the Station, procuring material for an article for his newspaper.  3rd Dec. 1942  Snow. High Winds. Physical Training and Drill for Training Wing personnel.  Overcast. Snow Showers. Very poor flying weather.  Overcast. Snow showers. Headquarters Squadron held a dance in the Recreation Hall this evening, ever three hundred being in attendance. The R.C.M.P. Orchestra provided the music for the evening.  Sth Dec. 1942.  Clear. Divine Services were held in the Recreation Hall this morning.  At 1330 heurs, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LAO Michell, J.B., R145198, closed from behind and above on approach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corporal Boileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top en aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and beth landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with ne further damage.  Oleudy to evercast. Scattered snow showers. Very little flying.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.	REFERENCE TO APPENDICE	SUMMARY OF EVENTS	* TIME	DATE	PLACE
the Station, procuring material for an article for his newspaper.  Snow. High Winds. Physical Training and Drill for Training Wing personnel.  Overcast. Snowflurries. Very poor flying weather.  Overcast. Snow showers. Headquarters Squadron held a dance in the Recreation Hall this evening, ever three hundred being in attendance. The R.C.M.P. Orchestra provided the music for the evening.  Oth Dec. 1942.  Clear. Divine Services were held in the Recreation Hall this morning.  At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LaC Michell, J.D., RI45198, closed from behind and above on approach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corperal Beileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top an aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and beth landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with no further damage.  Oth Dec. 1942.  Cleudy to evercast. Scattered snow showers. Very little flying.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.		Overcast. Snowflurries. Flying for part of the day.		1st Dec. 1942	Uplands, Ontario
Overcast. Snowflurries. Very poor flying weather.  Overcast. Snow showers. Headquarters Squadron held a dance in the Recreation Hall this evening, ever three hundred being in attendance. The R.C.M.P. Orchestra provided the music for the evening.  Clear. Divine Services were held in the Recreation Hall this morning.  At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LaC Michell, J.D., R145198, closed from behind and above on appreach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corporal Boileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top en aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and both landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with ne further damage.  Oth Dec. 1942.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.		Snowing. High winds. Mr. Gregory Clark, feature writer for The Toronto Star, visited the Station, procuring material for an article for his newspaper.		2nd Dec. 1942
Overcast. Snow showers. Headquarters Squadron held a dance in the Recreation Hall this evening, ever three hundred being in attendance. The R.C.M.P. Orchestra provided the music for the evening.  Clear. Divine Services were held in the Recreation Hall this morning.  At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LAC Michell, J.D., R145198, clesed from behind and above on approach to land, and collided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corperal Beileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top en aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and beth landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with ne further damage.  7th Dec. 1942.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.	,	Snow. High Winds. Physical Training and Drill for Training Wing personnel.		3rd Dec. 1942 evening, ever three hundred being in attendance. The R.C.M.P. Orchestra provided the music for the evening.  Clear. Divine Services were held in the Recreation Hall this morning.  At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LAC Michell, J.D., R145198, closed from behind and above on approach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corporal Belleau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top en aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and beth landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with ne further damage.  7th Dec. 1942.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.		Overcast. Snowflurries. Very poor flying weather.		4th Dec. 1942
Clear. Divine Services were held in the Recreation Hall this morning.  At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LAC Michell, J.D., R145198, clesed from behind and above on approach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corporal Beileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top on aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and both landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with ne further damage.  7th Dec. 1942.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.		evening, ever three hundred being in attendance. The R.C.M.P. Orchestra provided the		5th Dec. 1942
At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LAC Michell, J.D., R145198, closed from behind and above on approach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corporal Boileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top on aircraft 3113. Both pilets uninjured, and both landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with ne further damage.  7th Dec. 1942.  Cloudy to overcast. Scattered snow showers. Very little flying.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.			•	and the same of the aircraft 3113. Both pilots uninjured, and both landed their aircraft at the main aerodrome with no further damage.  7th Dec. 1942.  Cloudy to evercast. Scattered snow showers. Very little flying.  Sth Dec. 1942.  Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.		At 1330 hours, Harvard aircraft 3278, pileted by LAC Michell, J.D., R145198, closed from behind and above on approach to land, and cellided with Harvard aircraft 3113, pileted by Corporal Beileau, L.C., R53392, the wing tip striking and breaking the coupe top en		6th Dec. 1942
Sth Dec. 1942. Clear. Training Wing took advantage of the clearing weather, and were able to put in a good day's flying.		aircraft 3113. Both pilots uninjured, and both landed their aircraft at the main
a good day's flying.	g 9	Cloudy to evercast. Scattered snow showers. Very little flying.		7th Dec. 1942
				8th Dec. 1942	Colympia Currente
Oth Dec. 1942. Clear to partly cloudy. The Hiking Club of Uplands held another enjoyable dance in the Recreation Hall. The R.C.A.F. Orchestra from Rockcliffe played for the evening.	* 	Clear to partly cloudy. The Hiking Club of Uplands held another enjoyable dance in the Recreation Hall. The R.C.A.F. Orchestra from Rockeliffe played for the evening		9th Dec. 1942	