Mr. J. E. Atkinson,
237 Warren Road,
Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Atkinson:

I thank you and Mrs. Atkinson very heartily for the invitation you have so kindly extended to me to spend the week-end with you in Toronto before going up to North York. I shall be very pleased indeed to arrange to be with you on Sunday, August 1st, unless, perchance, you should find it equally convenient to substitute Sunday, the 15th of August.

I expect to address a meeting at Centre Island on the afternoon of Saturday the 14th, and to be back in North York on Monday the 16th. The advantage to me of that week-end in preference to the other would be that it would allow me a Saturday evening with you, in addition to Sunday; whereas, as regards Sunday August 1st, it will not be possible for me to be in Toronto until the morning of Sunday, because of an engagement already made for July 31. I have made an engagement for Sunday, August 1st, which I will keep if the other Sunday is equally convenient to you. If, however, it should not be equally convenient, I think I can without difficulty arrange to cancel or postpone the August 1st engagement, so as to have the Sunday with you.

I thank you very heartily for thinking of the article of which you make mention in your letter, and for requesting the data asked for in this connection.
