Ottawa, August 15, 1917.

Rev. Sir,-

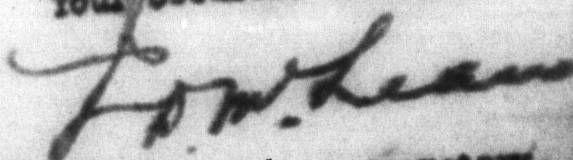

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th instant in reference to the three Gilbert children, Lizzie, Flora and James, who are pupils of the Shingwauk Home.

In reply I beg to say that the Department has decided that these three children are to remain in your school for a further period.

I have also to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th ultimo in reference to the case of the two young children of Mrs. Henry Mason of the Saugeen Reserve and whom she wished placed in your school.

As these children are too young to enter a residential school, the Department is endeavouring to make some other arrangements for their care.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Rev. B. P. Fuller,
Principal,
