

of M. Turgeon as coadjutor to the bishop of Quebec, 14; bishop Inglis's remarks on the progress of Roman Catholics and the behaviour of M. Burke, 181; charges that ecclesiastics wish to dominate everything, 239; charter for the establishment of the Hospital Nuns of Quebec, 227; circular on precedence in the colonies with regard to prelates, 52; claim of the bishop of Quebec to exercise ecclesiastical functions in N. S., 167; claims of Roman Catholics, 25; clergy and religious communities of Louisiana, 235; complaints against members of religious orders, 239; complaints against the bishop of Quebec for marrying officers and soldiers without the king's permission, 230; complaints against the vicar-general of Louisiana, 229; condition of the clergy and religious communities, 233; decree of Clement X forbidding missionaries to print books, etc., without permission of the Propaganda, 263; details as to clergy, missionaries, and religious communities, 236; dispute between the chapter and the seminary at Quebec, 261; education, 23, 25, 128, 148, 149, 150; English Roman Catholics in New France, 216; erection of a chapter in the cathedral church at Quebec, 250; erection of churches, 241; establishment of parishes and missions, 250; establishment of religious and charitable institutions, 249; grants to the Brothers of Charity, 245; increase in allowance to heads of, 9; instructions respecting the clergy, 112; interference of priests in temporal matters, 216; introduction of priests from France, 11, 101, 123; issue of letters patent constituting the bishop of Montreal and his successors a corporate body, 17; lands held by religious orders, 107; legal opinion as to the appointment of a bishop, 11; letter to Cardinal Dubois on ecclesiastical matters in French colonies, 260; letters of the abbé de l'Isle Dieu on missions and religious communities in Canada, Acadia, Ile Royale, and Louisiana, 235, 236; mandement on levity, lack of reverence in churches, and the style of feminine apparel, 250; means to be taken to convert the Indians, 259; measures to establish a bishop at Montreal, 15; memoir on, 254; multiplication of religious establishments, 215, 251; numbers of adherents in U. C., 151; papers relating to, 1658-1782, 237, 248-249; parochial subdivisions in L. C., 126; payment of priests and teachers, 153; petition for a separate diocese of Montreal, 130; petition of the "religieuses hospitalières de St. Joseph de Montréal," 260; powers of the bishop of Quebec, 115, 215; proceedings of French Roman Catholics in L. C., 141; proposal to divide the diocese of Quebec, 134, 147; proposed diocese of Bytown, 65; question of appointing a co-adjutor to the bishop, 101; question of dividing the see of Upper Canada, 64; question of the appointment of a bishop, 126; relief of Roman Catholics from civil and military disabilities, 12, 23; religious orders and establishments, 213, 221, 222, 227, 232; religious dissensions, 232; religious institutions, 251, 252; reluctance of religious communities to render an account of their revenues, 231; remarks upon his position in B. N. America, 10; request for letters of denization for certain Sulpicians, 13; rights of the Crown with regard to the property of, in L. C., 146; royal proclamations on religious orders, and their holding land in mortmain in the colonies in America, 1743, 260; seminary at Nicolet, 128; seminary at St. Hyacinthe, 14; state of the diocese of Quebec, 224; suggestion that the bishop be appointed to the Executive Council, 120; the king's supremacy in the appointment of the clergy, 11; tithes, 19, 232; tithes, 213, 222, 225, 252; work of priests and missionaries, 230. See also ecclesiastical matters.

Ross & Co., claim.

Ross family, claim of, 135.

Ross, Maj., 206.

Ross, Rear Adm., instructions as to his duties on the northwest coast of America, 137.

Rottenburg, Maj.-Gen. de, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 21, 146; proclamation of martial law, 21.

Roubaud, Pierre, papers relating to, 209.

Rouse's Point, 33, 34.

Roux, M., memoir by, 261.

Rowan, William, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 35, 65.

Royal American Regiment, 195; recruiting of, 200.

Royal Artillery, papers relating to, 1788-1870, 80.

Royal Canadian Rifle Regiment, 36; constitution of, 66; papers relating to, 1840-1870, 80.

Royal Canadian Volunteers, orderly-book, 85.

Royal Engineers, Canada, correspondence, 89-90, 93, 94, 95; decision to dispense with in B. C., 59; N. S. command, correspondence, 90, 91, 92, 95, 96, 97; papers relating to, 1771-1870, 73-74, 207; work by, 119, 122.

Royal Institution, 10, 11, 124, 126, 127, 128, 129; proposed changes in the board, 150.

Royal Marines, 1813-1843, 80, 99.

Royal Montreal Cavalry, muster-roll, 83.

Royal Newfoundland Regiment, papers relating to, 79, 83.

Royal Nova Scotia Regiment, 179, 181.

Royal Veteran Battalions, papers relating to, 80.

Royalists, French, immigration of, 75; lands granted to, 144; provision for, 20; question of granting lands to, 143; settlement of, 108, 143, 211; validity of titles of lands granted to, 143.

Rum, duty on, 11, 175, 176, 188, 191; importation of, 178.

Russell, Lord John, correspondence with the bishop of Toronto, 18.

Russell, Peter, chagrined at the assumption