

20. Any person residing in the Province of Quebec may become a member of the Society on payment of an annual membership fee of two dollars, for which payment he will receive a ticket of admission to the Exhibition for his own use, and four single admission tickets. Also, a copy of any reports published by the Society, and will be permitted the use of any of the books of reference in the Society's library.

21. Any person residing outside the Island of Montreal, but in the Province of Quebec, will be permitted to compete for any of the prizes offered by the Society, on payment of an entrance fee of one dollar. A ticket of admission to the Exhibition, for his own use, will be furnished free ; also, copy of Fruit Report and Journal.

22. The Secretary shall not be obliged to receive any entries not made in writing, blank forms for which will be furnished on application to the Secretary. Parties living at a distance may make their entries by mail.

23. Cards corresponding with the entries will be furnished the exhibitors, who alone will be responsible for the placing of them, and are requested to satisfy themselves that the cards correctly describe the objects exhibited. The Society cannot be responsible for any mistake arising from the non-observance of this or any other rule.

24. A Committee will be appointed by the Society to assist in naming fruit about which Exhibitors may be doubtful, but the Society do not assume any responsibility in the matter.

25. The Society will, under no circumstances, pay cartage on plants sent for competition. Cartage, however, may be paid if deemed advisable on plants sent for Exhibition only.

26. Prize Lists and all other information may be obtained by applying to the Secretary, and all persons interested in Horticulture are invited to contribute articles for exhibition.

HENRY S. EVANS,
