

These words mean that Jesus came like a Light, when people were longing for some clearer idea of God and of heaven, to show them what God really is, and to show them the way to the beautiful home. He was a Mighty Worker, and we know His light spread, and we are helping to spread it now. Let us watch Jesus from the time He came into the world on as far as our Lessons have gone.

Lesson I. (Use the blackboard outlines given in each Lesson.) We have a promise from God that one should be born who would prepare the way for Jesus. Lesson Thought—I should believe God.

TELL OTHERS OF JESUS THE MIGHTY WORKER

Lesson II. We see God's promise kept and the babe John is born, and God prepared him for his work. I should ask God to be with me.

Lesson III. We see the light in the sky! We hear the heavenly music! We hear the glad tidings told to the shepherds,—“The Mighty Worker is born, Jesus our Saviour!” I should tell others of Jesus.

Lesson IV. We see the Mighty Worker, a little Babe carried in His mother Mary's arms to the temple to be presented to the Lord. I belong to God.

Lesson V. We see the Mighty Worker sought, found and worshiped by the Wise Men led by a star. I should worship Jesus.

Lesson VI. Here is the Mighty Worker a Boy going to the temple to worship and remaining to talk with the learned men. I should love God's house.

Lesson VII. Here we see and hear the man John getting the people ready for the Mighty Worker, Jesus. We listen to him calling out, “Repent.” I should forsake sin.

Lesson VIII. God is getting the Mighty Worker ready for His work. We see the Holy Spirit coming down upon Him. We see Satan trying to tempt Him to do wrong, and we see Jesus overcoming temptation. I should pray for the Holy Spirit.

Lesson IX. Here is the Mighty Worker beside the Sea of Galilee. He is calling helpers to follow Him. We see Peter, Andrew, James and John leaving their fishing boats and becoming the first disciples. I should help Jesus.

Lesson X. Here is the Mighty Worker in a house in Capernaum where is a sick woman; and He heals her and many others. I should thank Jesus for keeping me well.

Lesson XI. We see a sick man let down through the roof to be healed by the Mighty Worker, who can cure sin sickness as well as other sickness. Jesus can heal soul and body.

Lesson XII. Here we see the Mighty Worker eating with sinners and we hear the sneering words of the haughty scribes. I should be loving.
