

coe, signed by four hundred and sixteen (416) members and sixty-eight (68) adherents. The Call was accompanied with reasons of translation, and a guarantee of stipend at the rate of sixteen hundred dollars ($1600) in weekly payments, with a month's holidays. Commissioners in prosecution of the Call were heard as follows : Dr. Torrance and Mr. Horne for the Presbytery of Guelph. and Dr. Wardrope, James A. McCrae and A. W. Alexander for the session and congregation of Knox church, strongly urging the translation of Mr. Ross.

Commissioners from Glencoe were next heard, viz. : Messrs. Rathburn, J. Young, and James A. Younge, who pleaded earnestly for the retention of Mr. Ross, speaking in the highest terms of him and his work. Mr. McCrae replied briefly on behalf of the Guelph commissioners. The Call was then placed in the hands of Mr. Ross, who, with deep feeling, signified his acceptance of it.

On motion of Dr. Johnston, seconded by Dr. Proudfoot, it was agreed to grant the translation. It was further agreed on motion of Dr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Moffat, that Mr. Henderson preach and declare the Glencoe congregation vacant, and thereafter act as interim Moderator of Session.

The business for which Presbytery was called being finished, the sederunt was closed with the benediction.

D. C. JOHNSON, Clerk.

ST. THOMAS, AUG. 22, 1899.

At St. Thomas, and within Alma Street Church, on the 22nd day of August, one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-nine, at eight o'clock in the evening, the Presbytery of London met by order of Moderator and was constituted. Sederunt : Rev. N. Lindsay, Moderator ; D. C. Johnson, Clerk, J. Currie. E. H. Sawers, J. H. Courtenay and A. Henderson.
