The restoration and alterations at the Church of Holy Trinity, Paddington, are now complete, and the published accounts show that the cost of the whole undertaking has been just upwards of £5,000. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as landowners, contributed £1,100, the rest having been subscribed entirely by the parishioners, many of whom gave very liberally.

Bishop Hall, who has been ill for three months, has lately been gaining steadily. He is distinctly stronger than he was a month ago, sits up a number of hours each day, and walks from one end of the house to the other. It is anticipated that he will be able to go away to the seaside within a month. He has lately been examined by a specialist from Boston, who confirms the diagnosis of the attending physicians and advises a prolonged period of rest.
