"Does Wilkins own his house or does he rent it?" inquired one neighbor of another.

"Rents it," was the decided response.

"How do you know?"

"He strikes matches on the paint."

There is a species of sentry groups employed near the trenches. These are called "listening patrols," and their duties are to be always on the alert and give timely warning of any attempted attack. One night an officer on his rounds inspected a listening patrol stationed in an empty farm. He asked, "Who are you?"

The reply was, "Listenin' patrol, sir."

"What are your duties?"

"We listen for the hen cacklin', and then we pinches the egg, sir."
