

LIVE STOCK MARKETS. TORONTO.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market were, as reported by the railways, 69 carloads—1078 cattle, 1111 hogs, 1870 sheep and lambs, and 72 calves.

Very few good cattle were offered, and no choice, the bulk being common and medium.

Trade was slow, altho there was a light delivery, with prices easy at quotations given below.

Exporters—None were offered, unless it was a few picked out of loads of butchers. Good to choice export steers are worth from $4.75 to $5; bulls $3.75 to $4.25.

Butchers—One small lot of butchers sold as high as $4.90, which was the highest price quoted. George Rowntree bought 100 butchers for Harris Abattoir Company at following prices: Steers and heifers, $3.50 to $4.25; cows, $2.25 to $3.50; canners and bulls at $1 to $2 per cwt.

Feeders and stockers—H. & W. Murray report few good feeders or stockers on sale, although there is a good demand for those of choice quality. They bought 100 cattle at $3 to $3.85 for feeding steers, and $2.75 to $3.25 for stockers.

Milkers and springers—Between 40 and 50 milkers were on sale and prices ranged from $30 to $62 each.

Veal calves—About 70 veal calves were on sale. Prices ranged at from $3 to $6 50 cwt.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts of sheep and lambs were fairly large—over 1800. Prices were steady, at $3 25 to $3 40 per cwt for ewes, and $2.50 to $2.75 for rams; lambs at $4 to $4 50 cwt.

Hogs—About 1100 hogs were reported from all sources. Mr. Harris reported the market easier, at $6 for selects, fed and watered, and $5.75 for lights.

WANTED TO KNOW THE TIME

From an eastern city comes a sad story of a pawnbroker. He was enjoying a beauty sleep when a furious knocking at the street door brought him to the window with a jerk, according to the Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

"What's the matter?" he shouted.

"Come down," demanded the knocker.

"But—"

"Come down!"

The man of many nephews hastened down stairs and peeped around the door.

"Now, sir," he demanded.

"I want to know the time," said the reveler.

"Do you mean to say you waked me up for that? How dare you!"

The midnight visitor looked injured.

"Well, you've got my watch," he said.

CURING NERVOUS DYSPESIA

The doctor had told her she had no organic trouble and the cure rested with herself. She had doctored and drugged for years, so, learning this good news, she determined to try a new plan.

Here is what she did:

She cut out all medicine.

She stopped dieting—that is, she tested things till she found those that agreed with her and ate of them freely.

She ate slowly, laughing and talking much in the process.

She gave up violent physical exercise, but took a brisk walk each day.

She took a cold sponge each morning, going back to bed for five minutes afterward before beginning to dress.

She gave herself massage of the abdominal, chest and throat muscles for five minutes morning and evening.

She stopped overstraining her mind. When her head or eyes began to feel tired she rested them.

She neglected to worry and cultivated her amusing friends.

In a month she was well.

—E. W. Attwood of Walkerton died very suddenly on Sunday with heart disease. He was 72 years old.

Two Scotch travellers, a merchant and a farmer, were discussing political economy in a railway carriage.

After a while the merchant, filled his pipe, lit it, and settled back for a comfortable smoke. The farmer took his pipe from his pocket, and, after gazing longingly at his empty bowl, asked his companion for a match. The merchant selected one from a large boxful and handed it over.

Said the farmer:

"I am afraid I've come away without my 'baccy pouch.'"

"Well," said the merchant, holding out his hand, "then ye'll no be in need of that match."

WORSE THAN ONIONS

Bad Breath From Indigestion Cannot Be Overcome With Perfumes

Nine-tenths of the offensive breath is a result of stomach trouble. It cannot be overcome by breath perfumes or any other palliative measures.

If you have a bad breath; if there is heartburn, flatulence and gurglings of undigested food; if the stomach burns or smart; if there is sleeplessness, nervousness, headaches or any other symptoms of indigestion, use Ni-on-a stomach tablets and get well.

A 50c box of Ni-on-a stomach tablets lasts for a couple of weeks and will ward off a dozen mild attacks of indigestion, while its continued use will give an absolute and complete cure.

J. Coates has seen so many cures made by Ni-on-a stomach tablets that he gives a guarantee with every box to refund the money if it fails.

James Neilson, a young married man living at Proton, was terribly injured on Wednesday. Being in Dundalk, and desirous of reaching home, he boarded a C. P. R. freight train coming up the line. This was a through freight, however, and passed Proton at the rate of twenty-five miles per hour. Neilson, failing to properly estimate the speed, jumped off, falling upon his head, terribly crushing it. Dr. McWilliam removed a stone as large as an egg from his skull. His condition is hopeless.

An exchange very aptly remarks that in a small town like this the vice of rash judgment is altogether too common. Where people know nearly all their fellow citizens there are some who are so ungracious and so unchristian as to attribute an evil motive when the actions are prompted by the best of motives, and they are rather disposed to relish a rumor that reflects against a neighbor. Everybody commits indiscretions, either wilfully or through ignorance or weakness; but rash criticism and rash judgments do not help the offended, but shove him down. The golden rule should be applied in such cases.
