

"EXPERIENCE"

Coming to Griffin's, Belleville, Wednesday, November 19th

"The most wonderful play in America"—as "Experience," Geo. V. Hobart's modern morality comedy-drama of today is called, comes to Griffin's opera house, Belleville next Wednesday, November 19th for one night only. "Experience" is a joyous combination of the new type of sunshine play and melodrama, without a dull moment in it, and the characters are passionate and pulsating with vitality and nature, too virile to be mistaken for anything else except the average man and woman you meet in everyday life. There is that about the play which touches the heart strings of all, giving that feeling of life as it really is, and it is a drama that flows from comedy to tragedy with all known elements of, stake appeal contributing. These characters are impersonated by select players, including many old favorites in their original roles.

In ten unusual and spectacular episodes, "Experience" tells the love story of Youth—the average young man of today—and the adventures he meets when he leaves his home in the country and goes to the big city to make a name for himself. The temptations that he meets are represented by beautiful young girls, who are called by the names of the various vices and virtues they portray in the play. Messrs. Comstock & Co. promise a production "bigger and better than ever" for its sixth season of success.

Among the scenes is the Primrose Path of Pleasure, in which the gay night life is shown at its best—or possibly worst. In the corridors of Chance act, a modern gambling house is shown in full operation, with every known device actually being played before the audience. In the House of Lost Souls episode, the terrible effects of drugs on human beings is shown.

Agnes Herndon, Albert Andrus, Fraser Coulter, Claudia Carleton, Wheeler, William Betts, Betty Frewen and William Haskins, all originators of the roles, appear in the notable cast, reinforced by such picked young players as D. Storret Scanlan, Phil Sheridan, R. Van Rensselaer, Viola Carlstedt, Maude Gage Fites, Frances Richards Doty Edwards, Blanche Crossman, Ada Howell, Liane Stefano, Vera Ruby, Margaret Broadnax and Anna Rowe.

Wedding Bells

O'RAY—McCAULAY

The church of St. Francis, Frankford was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday, Nov. 4th at 3:30 o'clock when Miss Margaret McCaulay, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCaulay, was united in marriage to Mr. Bernard O'Ray, son of the late James O'Ray, by Rev. Father O'Reilly.

The bride entered the church, leaning on the arm of her brother, Frank, who gave her away, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Sullivan, of Peterboro.

The bride looked very beautiful in a suit of brown girdling with hat to match and Marabou fur. She was attended by Miss Desjardines, of Trenton and Mr. Leo McCaulay, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony the guests were invited to a sumptuous wedding breakfast at the bride's home. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check, and to the bridesmaid a pin, and to the groomsmen a tie pie set with pearls. They left on the noon train for Syracuse, N.Y., and on their return they will reside on their farm in Murray.

Masonic Grand Master Visits Busy Trenton

M. W. Bro. F. W. Harcourt, of Toronto at Trent Lodge last night—Unique Gathering of High Officials of the Craft.

At Trenton last night there was a gathering unique in the local annals of Masonry. For the first time in the history of Prince Edward District No. 13, the Grand Master in the person of M. W. Bro. F. W. Harcourt, K.C., of Toronto, the Deputy Grand Master, Rt. W. Bro. Lt.-Col. W. N. Poston, K.C., and the District Deputy Grand Master, Rt. W. Bro. C. J. Symons, paid a visit to a lodge on one and the same night.

About 200 brethren were present, many going from Belleville, Prince Edward, Frankford, Brighton and other centers to join with Trenton in a right royal welcome to the distinguished visitors.

The officers of Trent lodge exemplified the work of the First Degree in Masonry and received warm commendation for their proficiency, skill and eloquency ability. The work was done with military precision and fine effectiveness.

The master of the lodge W. Bro. J. B. Little presided. He was assisted by W. Bro. Geo. Sprentall as I.P.M. The other officers were:

W. Bro. Cottrill S. W.

Bro. H. B. McClung, J. W.

Rt. W. Bro. Rev. W. T. Wilkins, Chaplain.

Rt. W. Bro. R. H. Spencer, Treas.

W. Bro. W. J. Potts, Sec.

Bro. F. N. Ayles, S. D.

Bro. W. B. McClung, J. D.

Bro. W. J. Potts, D. of C.

Bro. W. H. Goodwin, S. S.

Bro. M. Tripp, J. S.

Bro. J. A. Bristow, I. G.

Bro. J. Goodsell, Tyler

After the dismissal of the lodge the brethren assembled in the spacious dining hall where a great feast was prepared. The committee in charge of the catering were highly complimented for the appealing character of the menu.

W. Bro. Little performed the duties of toastmaster in an exceptionally able manner.

The toast to "The King, the Craft and the Prince of Wales" was followed by a vocal solo, "The British Navy," sung with spirit and expression by Bro. W. H. Ireland, M. P.

"The Grand Lodge of Canada"

This toast was coupled with the name of Grand Master Harcourt who received an ovation when he arose to speak. The grand master is a natural humorist but the humor is not introduced to give evidence of smartness but rather to afford a setting for his inspiring messages that he always delivers.

"We thought, a year ago" said the grand master "that when the armistice was signed our troubles were ended. They were in reality only begun. We now had foes at home more difficult to fight than those abroad. We now see class arranged against class, each seeking its own selfish interests. It was the purpose of good Masonry to create harmony and remove class hostilities.

He deprecated the tendency to bombast. We can't do anything any more, even to the sale of Victory bonds, without fireworks, brass bands and collections.

He didn't like to hear a Mason say "Masonry is the only religion I require." Such a declaration was unfair to Masonry. The purpose of Masonry was not to induce a man to neglect his church. It was not a religion. The purpose of Masonry was to serve man. Man was not made to serve Masonry.

Following the grand master's address Bro. Gray recited with fine dramatic effect "The Face on the Barroom Floor," and was heartily cheered at its conclusion.

"Armistice Day"

This toast was honored by an address of wonderful power and mastery eloquence by the Deputy Grand Master, Lt. Col. Poston whose eulogy of those whose noble deeds won the war aroused the brethren to patriotic enthusiasm.

Bro. Dr. McQuade gave a beautiful rendition to the vocal solo, "Dear Old Pal of Mine" and as an encore "Mother Machree"

"Prince Edward District"

No more popular or capable exponent of the virtues and excellencies of Prince Edward District No. 13 could be desired than the district deputy grand master, Rt. W. Bro. Chas. J. Symons. The D.D.G.M. was received with a tremendous volume of enthusiasm that was almost embarrassing in its effusiveness. But here, as on his other visits the district deputy gave eloquent expression to his thoughts and was again warmly applauded when he had finished.

A solo by E. L. Wilkins, "The Song of the Air Service" was followed and after insistent encores by another aerial song "Billy."

Rev. Bro. Hoyle of Wellington, sang "The Trumpeter" and received an encore that could not be denied. The same fate befell Rt. W. Bro. Shurle when he rendered "Hellsland."

Bro. Sheriff Morrison of Belleville gave a brief address followed by a toast to "Trent Lodge" proposed by the Grand Master. This was responded to by Rt. W. Bro. Richard Spencer, one of the most enthusiastic Masons in Ontario.

"Auld Lang Syne" brought a great Masonic night to a fitting close.

Alleged Blasphemy on the Reservation

Tyendinaga, Bylaw, Has No Jurisdiction Over Federal Ward.

Lewis Loft, a well known resident of the Indian Reservation in Tyendinaga, was charged in Deseronto police court, before Magistrate Bedford on Tuesday afternoon by Jacob Hill, his father-in-law, with having, on October 26th, at the Indian Reservation in Tyendinaga, used blasphemous language to Jacob Hill, contrary to a bylaw of the township of Tyendinaga.

Mr. Wm. Carney appeared for the prosecution and Mr. W. Mikel, K.C., for the defendant. The objection was raised to the Police Magistrate trying the case on the grounds that he had no jurisdiction to deal with the alleged offence committed on the Reserve under a bylaw passed by the council of the Township of Tyendinaga, that the township had no jurisdiction affecting Indians, that they are wards of the Dominion Government and that only the Federal Government had the right to regulate their doings. The magistrate gave effect to the objection. The case was not proceeded with, each party agreeing to pay one half the costs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ferguson recently entertained a party of friends at dinner. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Matthews, and Mr. and Mrs. John Shurle, of Wellington, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Rixon, of Trenton.

Capt. K. D. Ferguson is spending a few weeks in Toronto.

Miss T. J. Arthur returned to Trenton last week after visiting friends in Picton and Wellington.

Mr. Gilbert Murphy and daughters of Gilead, entertained a party of friends on Friday evening in honor of their guest, (see Miss Lulu Williamson) of North Dakota. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blakely and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morton and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morton motored to East Lake on Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. William McCartney, Miss Neta McCartney, who is teaching at Salem, accompanied them.

Miss Geraldine Benway, spent the week-end, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Root.

Mrs. (Rev.) Mounter is visiting in Trenton, the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wright.

Mr. Clayton Palmer visited friends at South Lakeside on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and son, with Mr. Rosa Cole motored from Thurlow on Sunday and after calling at J. W. Root's spent the day the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burris, Pleasant Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clapp and daughters, of Picton, spent the week-end the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Leavens.

Rev. D. Mounter was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman French on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davern visited Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hubbs, Hillier, on Sunday.

Miss Neva Carnrike, of Trenton, spent the week-end, the guest of Miss Myrtle Weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lont, Salem, visited at Mr. F. Weeks' on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parliament, of Mountain View, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spencer on Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Kinnear is able to be out after a prolonged illness.

Mr. J. H. Chase returned home on Friday from deer-hunting in the north land.

Mr. Sherman Chase delivered a fine load of dressed hogs to Belleville on Saturday.

Several farmers from this locality attended the sale of farm stock and implements at the home of Mr. Stephen Vancott, Salem, on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Vancott will remove to Roblin's Mills where they have purchased a residence. Mr. Reid, of Coneseon Lake, will occupy the farm.

Messdames E. W. and A. A. Carley spent Wednesday at Allisonville, the guests of Mrs. Harry Carley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davern are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ridley Anderson, Mountain View.

Mr. John R. French has purchased Mrs. Robert Eaton's house and property in Melville. This will make a most desirable residence for Mr. and Mrs. French, being situated very conveniently to their mill property.

Mr. Percy Wilson, canvasser for the Victory Loan in eastern Hillier, is very busy and also optimistic concerning results. Although left far behind in the race by Bloomfield and Marysburg, which have far surpassed their objective, Hillier is slowly but surely coming to the top with the $70,000.

When the grasshopper ceases to hop
And when the crows quit bawling,
When the fishes no longer flop,
And the baby stops squalling,
When the dumber no longer duns,
And the fool owl quits hooting,
When the river ceases to run,
And the burglar stops his looting,
When the vine no longer twines,
And the skylark stops his skylarking,
When the sun no longer shines,
And the young men quit sparkling,
When the heavens begin to drop,
And the old moids stop advising,
Then it is time to shut up shop,
Then we will quit advertising.

MELVILLE

Most of the buckwheat has now been garnered, but the dry, brown shocks of corn still stand like wary sentinels over the late autumn fields. Farmers are busy turning the dark brown furrows, weather conditions being most favorable for such work. Owing, however, to the excessive rainfall in the spring, the land is plowing hard. For this reason, much disappointment was felt in the farming community when the tractor demonstration, which had been planned for Tuesday last, on Mr. Geo. Rychman's farm, 3rd concession Hillier, failed to materialize on account of rainy weather.

Farmers are looking forward to the event in the near future. The use of the tractor may help the farmers to solve the problem of the scarcity of sufficient fuel for the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ford, of Wellington,
