The game was clean throughout, but at times off-side was very much in evidence on both sides.

Mr. Will Duggan refereed the game to the satisfaction of all, though some thought his decision against the Saints when the third goal was scored by the Casuals was open to difference of opinion. "Billy" said it was a goal and that settled it.

The players were:-

SAINTS-Goal, Ewing; backs, Strang, Barnes; halves, Johnson, Foster, Elton; forwards, Crawford, Ewing, Kerr, Bastow, Spry. CASUALS-Goal, Peters; backs, Hartery, Thistle; halves, Reid, Gou-die; forwards, Marshall, Smith, Pearcey, Squires, Chancey.

Notes on the Game.

Hartery is a tower of strength in the Casuals back line. He is a hard man to pass.

Peters is some goal tender. He has done great work this season. He is as cool as a cucumber and uses good judgment. Kitchener's great army of 2,000,000

Reid and Smith played a rattling game.

Allan Barnes played his usual good game and was the means of saving his team from a larger defeat.

The Saints' forwards seemed to be off color. Kerr and Crawford were the only ones who seemed inclined to work
