A Fair For Brockville.

Recorder: There is a movement on foot having in view the establishment of an annual fair at Brockville. Some years ago a fair here was successful in so far as exhibits were concerned. The provincial fair was also called off here one year. Yesterday afternoon a representative meeting was beld in Brockville, when the matter was discussed. There were present Messrs. W. H. Comstock, R. Bowie, R. A. McLelland, Jas. Cummings, John Culbert, M. P., N. H. Beecher and John Webster. After due consideration, a committee was appointed to further consider the matter. The Recorder has been informed that the directors of the Unionville fair are agreeable to the change which is likely to become an accomplished fact. The committee selected veterday is composed as follows: -R. A. McLelland, W. H. Comstock, James Cumming, H. Bissel and J. Webster. The committee have been instructed to look over several proper-
