Orland, Ont., Sept. 25 .- (Special) .-Mr. Chester Loomis, an old and respected farmer living in this section, is spreading broadcast the good news that Dodd's Kidney Pills are a sure cure for the Lame Back and Kidney Disease so common among old people. Mr. Loomis says:

"Before I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills I was so used up I could hardly ride in a buggy and I could not do work of any kind. Everybody thought I would not live long. Dodd's Kidney Pills are a wonderful remedy."

Sweden Satisfied.

Stockholm, Sept. 26.—Almost without a dissentient voice the people of Sweden, so far as can be judged by the opinion of the press here and elsewhere, accept with satisfaction the terms of the agreement between Sweden and Norway seached at Karlstad. terms of the agreement between Sweden and Norway reached at Karlstad. A general opinion is voiced by The Social Democraton, which in its leading editorial yesterday morning says: "Our principal objects, arbitration and the demolition of the frontier fortifications, having been attained, we trust that both countries will recognize that the Scandinavian peoples mutually need each other's friendship and that the agreement will bring more happiness to both."

The neighbors ridicule his pride, And on him air their wit; They watch him, and they laugh him, Yet envy him a bit,

Yet envy him a bit, As down our quiet street he walks, With air which seems to say: "Behold the very richest man' This old town boasts to-day!"

His wealth-mark well the two youns rogues
With faces all aglow,

Who clasp his hands, and set the pace Uncertain, crooked, slow.
The homely, happy, healthy things,
Broad-shouldered, sturdy, strong,
Whose laughter holds a gladder note Than any wild bird's song.

The big mill-owner meets the group "Twin boys!" I hear him cry:
"I'd give"—a pause, then, enviously, "You're richer, friend than I." "Yes, twins," the parent proud returns "Both fair, and fat, and bold, And full of fun—take after me, So I am often told.

"They grow like weeds-another year It's coats and pantaloons
They'll wear when walking with their dad On Sunday afternoons."

Oh, mel the pride of look and tone,
The air which seems to say:
"Behold the very richest man
This old town boasts to-day!"

West's Wealth Amazes Visitors. West's Wealth Amazes Visitors.

Twenty-five American agricultural editors, who have been touring the Canadian West, reached Winnipeg on their return journey on September 8. Prof. Shaw, one of their number, said: "The contemplation of this great country is bewildering, whether viewed from the standpoint of size or resources. In size it is an empire. Our ed from the standpoint of size or resources. In size it is an empire. Our party has been traveling over it as feat as an engine could carry us for the past sixteen days, and we have only seen a very limited portion of its entire area. Its resources are almost fabulous in the aggregate, whether viewed from the standpoint of minerals, timber or agricultural production. But, beyond all question, agriculture in this country will be its greatest industry through all centuries. The first fout of the soil in the three Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta is its greatest natural heritage. It is worth more than all the mines in the mountains from Alaska to Mexico, and more than all the forests from and more than all the forests from the United States boundary to the Arc-lic Sea, vast as these are. The entire party is simply entranced with what they have seen."

Among the anecdotes told by a bio grapher concerning John Leech, the fa-mous Funch artist, is the following: On one occasion when in the country on a sketching tour Mr. Leech paid a visit to a traveling waxwork show which happened at the time to be in the village. The proprietor of the wax-works in giving a description of the dif-ferent exhibits pointed to a very lean, attenuated figure with an order on its breast and said:
"'Is majerstie King George IV."

"Who?" inquired Mr. Leech in sur-prise. "Why, I thought George IV. was a fat man."

"Did yer, then?" sneered the show-man. "Well, yer wouldn't be very fat if you'd been without wittles as long

Dear Sirs, — While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disfigured for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore.

MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes. Yours Truly, W. A. V. R.
