PROHIBITION IN TURKEY

The way in which the nations of the world are coming to grips with their ancient enemy, strong drink, is more surprising and encouraging than our rashday life sometimes permits us to realize. One of the latest governments to come into line with prohibition is that of Turkey!

The Canadian and American Governments could learn one lesson at least from the Turk—that is, if the drastic Prohibition law just promulgated in Turkey is enforced. Under this law all alcoholic liquors in the country are to be confiscated or shipped abroad, all persons convicted of manufacturing, importing, or selling spirituous beverages will be fined and gaol, and those found intoxicated will be liable to imprisonment for from three months to two years. Moreover, offenders occupying Government positions will forfeit their offices. It is further announced that there will be no appeal from these decisions. If we would grapple with the problem as effectively, there would not be much more talk of evasion of the law.—"Clarion Call."

greatly bless you."

"Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling" was then sung by the male quartette.

Rev. G. A. Logan brought greetings from the Presbyterian church and expressed the hope of cordial relations existing, continuing between the congregations.

Rev. G. D. Hudson responding, thanked all for their kind words. We are willing and anxious to do our Master's work, and realize our privilege in spending a little time with you. What kind of a church do I want this to be? A church that excels in intercession. We need the spirit of real and earnest intercession. If this is in us, all other things will come. May God use me to minister to your needs. I shall consider it a privilege to lock in my heart your confidence, which will be a sacred trust. I thank you for your welcome and may God richly bless our sojourn together.

Rev. A. J. Frosser, a former beloved pastor, then addressed the congregation, welcoming the pastor and his family and expressed the joy that was his in looking once more on the faces of his old congregation. Special music by the choir was greatly appreciated.

The service which was a very beautiful one closed with the Benediction, followed by supper and a social hour in the vestry with the Pastor and his wife.

HALIFAX PRESBYTERIAL MEETS AT CANARD

A large number of delegates attended the opening meeting of the Halifax Presbyterian church on Thursday evening of last week. Mrs. A. D. Falconer, Halifax presiding. The devotional exercises were led by Rev. G. A. Logan, pastor of the church, who expressed the hope that all things in Canada would tend towards Godly things, and the church realizing the great task would go forward till all nations should own Him Lord.

Rev. G. A. Logan in the absence of Rev. Robert Layton conveyed the greetings of the Presbytery. We realize more each year that we are one in working together for the Master and men are beginning to appreciate as never before what is being done by women's organizations. The Women's Missionary Society is one of the finest in advancing the work of the Master and the Presbytery is proud of the Presbyterian and hopes that the work will be carried on to great success.

RHUBARB RECIPES

Rhubarb Jam—Allow 1 lb. sugar for 1 lb. rhubarb; cut up the fruit into small pieces, put on the sugar, and let it stand several hours, or until next morning; then take out the fruit, and boil the syrup until it thickens; then put in the fruit and let it simmer gently until done, stirring it to prevent its burning; then put in glasses.

Orange and Rhubarb Marmalade—Pare the yellow rind carefully off the oranges; remove the thick white rind and squeeze the pulp through a sieve; use 1 quart of rhubarb sliced for 6 oranges; add one half cup water to 4 lbs. fruit and set on to boil; add the yellow parings of the rind, cut into pieces, and boil half hour, or until the rind is soft; add 1 lb. sugar to 1 lb. pulp, boil a few minutes and put into jelly glasses.

Strawberry and Rhubarb—Two qts. cut rhubarb, one quart strawberries, five cups sugar. Let rhubarb stand overnight with the sugar on it, then in the morning add the berries and cook until as thick as desired. If desired, the rhubarb may be scalded and drained before covering with sugar. This makes the marmalade sweeter.

Rhubarb Jelly—Cut the rhubarb into pieces about 1 inch long, but do not peel it; cook it to a soft pulp in water enough to cover it; strain through the jelly bag, and allow 1 lb. sugar to each pint of juice; finish like other jelly. Apple and rhubarb make a nice combination.

Rhubarb Canned—Take fresh green stalks peel and slice as if for pies; then take fruit jars and pack this in up to the necks, and then fill the jars with cold water; now seal up air tight. To use it, pour off the water and use like fresh pieplant; to sweeten it not over one half the sugar ordinarily used will be needed.

Rhubarb Vinegar—Crush the rhubarb, cover with lukewarm water, and let stand 36 hours; then strain, add 1 1/2 lbs. raw sugar or molasses to the gallon of juice, and also add a little yeast; keep it covered and in a warm place for four weeks; then strain, put in a keg and leave it to ripen.

PRINTED ENVELOPES cost little more than plain envelopes, and they give a much better impression to your customers and correspondents. Ask THE ACADIAN Job Department for samples and prices.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

JULY 13
BE KIND TO THE ERRING.—Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself lest thou also be tempted.—Galatians 6:1.

JULY 14
THE BEST PREACHING.—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.—Matthew 5:16.

JULY 15
SOW BOUNTIFULLY.—He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.—2 Corinthians 9:6.

Mission Bands, Miss Magee, Miss Annie Stuart read an encouraging report. At least two bands have merged with C. G. I. T., which proves very attractive to the young with its many sided programme.

Mrs. R. W. Ross, Fort Massey church, Halifax, then announced that Upper Canard Union Mission Band (Presbyterian and Baptist) had won the silver cup she desired to present to the rural band, having the best average attendance during the year. Upper Canard under the leadership of Mrs. G. A. Logan and Miss Winnifred Wilson, averaging 80 per cent. The band is to be congratulated on its standing as in many cases during the hard winter long distances were covered by the little ones, without the knowledge of a reward forthcoming. The cup becomes the property of the band holding it three successive years. Mrs. Ross was cordially thanked for her beautiful and generous gift.

A pleasing feature of the afternoon was a Pageant by the Wolfville Mission Band. The part of "Miss Canada" taken by Pauline, daughter of Rev. George Miller and Mrs. Miller, was beautifully and touchingly portrayed. Ukrainian, Italian, Swedish, with Canadian children, were represented, all of whom they welcomed in the name of the Master to share in the National and religious life of our Empire. The singing of "Lead on Oh King Eternal" and "Jesus Our Savior Said, Come unto Me", found a responsive chord in the hearts of all present. The organist was Miss Lydia Miller. Credit is due Mrs. Sutherland leader of the Mission Band, M. S. Forbes and Mrs. Goud for the deep interest shown by these little ones and the children for their delightful pageant.

After the election of officers and the usual resolution of appreciation the meeting closed with the Benediction after which the delegates left for their homes.

Follow this simple rule to have lovely, gleaming hair

Never shampoo your hair without olive oil, hair specialists warn. To do so is to leave hair dry, dull, brittle—all its rich warmth of color and life gone. No hair can be beautiful unless clean, they say. Nor can hair be beautiful without the glossy sheen so much admired.

Therefore—use olive oil shampoo.

You see prettier hair everywhere, today. Women have learned that the most delightful form of olive oil hair wash is PALMOLIVE SHAMPOO.

THE PALMOLIVE COMPANY OF CANADA, Limited
Montreal, Que. Toronto, Ont. Winnipeg, Man.

PALMOLIVE SHAMPOO
The Blend of Palm and Olive Oils

It is convenient for home use, and most economical—costing but a fraction of what you'd pay to have the same treatment from a specialist.

It cleanses away all dirt and oil—thoroughly removes dandruff. And it leaves hair fluffy, soft, pliant as a baby's; with the gleaming sheen of new silk.

Send coupon today for free 15c-size trial bottle. Or get full-size bottle at your dealer's. Use it. Results will amaze you—after even one shampooing.
