APPRECIATION

A good speech was contributed to the debate on the address in the House yesterday by Mr. Tracey, one of the Progressive members for Carleton. Mr. Tracey is a man possessed of a lot of good sound, common sense, and his speech was attentively listened to by both sides of the House.
His views on public questions were set forth in a modest way and had the stamp of honesty and sincerity.
What criticism he had to offer was of a constructive nature, and undoubtedly carried weight with the government. Carleton has in Mr. Tracey a most useful member who will carefully look after its interests.—Fredericton Mail.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A few days ago at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Culbertson at Waterville, Mrs. George DeWitt, surrounded by a number of her children, celebrated her 85th birthday. She is enjoying good health and a complacent old age. Those of her children who were with her on the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John De-Witt of Avondale, S. W. DeWitt of Crossfield, Alta., Mrs. Guy Birmingham of Victoria, besides Mrs. Culbertson. Two sons, George and Ernest, were unable to be present. Mrs. De-Witt is a native of Sunbury county but has lived in Carleton practically the whole of her married life.

FOUR HORSEMEN HERE MAR. 22

Rex Ingram Production Marks New Epoch—Ibanez Film Surpasses Stage in Grip on Emotions

Rex Ingram's $1,000,000 production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is announced by the Neighborhood Theatre on March 22. This will be the first showing here of the screen version of Vicente Blasco Inbanez's novel that has been acclaimed in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit and Los Angeles as marking a new epoch in the development of motion pictures. At its New York opening people paid $10 a seat.
Critics said the picture had definitely established the screen not only as capable of rivaling the stage as its best, but of surpassing it in its grips upon the emotions.

"The Four Horsemen" is the supreme expression of the Great War.
Certainly no novel has stirred the universal appeal created by the Ibanez masterpiece. The book, now in its one hundred and sixty-sixth edition, has been read throughout the world.
The monumental task of transferring it to the screen was accomplished by June Mathis, who made a scenario that from all accounts has preserved the force of the original and may include the heights of it. But it is the director, Rex Ingram, who has apparently achieved the most sensational success. He is reported to have set a new mark in artistry of picturization.

Readers of the novel will recall that the story opens on the Argentine ranch of old Madariaga whose territories are as extensive as those of the great independent barons of feudal times. And Madariaga rules with feudal power. A rioting, roystering debauchee, he is filled with Castilian pride of family and yearns for a male child to carry on his tradition. His two daughters have married ranch employees—one French and the other German. Madariaga's Latin antipathy to the German son-in-law brings with it a dislike of his half-German grandchildren, but when a son is born to the Frenchman, Desnoyers, the old man finds his dream realized. The boy, Julio, is selected as heir to the huge estate and is brought up as a spoiled prince of the realm. As a young man Julio becomes the companion of Madariaga's debauched adventures in Buenos Ayres tango resorts. But Madariaga dies suddenly without making a will and the German branch of the family finds itself starling the estate equally with the De-snoyers. With this sudden wealth, the two families leave the Argentine for Europe.

The Desnoyers settle in Paris, and Julio, an expert tango dancer, becomes the sensation of the fashionable dance places. He meets a fascinating little woman, Marguerite Laurier, and the two of them are swept into a reckless love affair that takes no count of Marguerite's elderly husband. Their butterfly mentalities do not even respond at first to the sudden shock of war that breaks about them. It is 1914 and the Germans are advancing toward Paris. Marguerite is first awakened to the realization of tremendous events. She joins the French surviving force and sacrifices her love for Julio in order to be the constant companion of her husband, who is blinded in battle. Julio, left without the stimulation of frivolous attractions, hears the call of duty and enlists in the French army, where he meets death at the hands of his German cousin when the two face each other in a trench raid.

Through it all are galloping the four horsemen, spoken of by St. John in the Book of the Apocalypse—the grim figures of Conquest, War, Famine and Death.

PRIZES FOR THE SCHOOLS

One of the best ways to arouse a pupil's interest in his school work is to offer him a reward. As a general thing he will work much better if he thinks his efforts are appreciated.
This is a fact and as a result we give prizes for scholarship, attendance, etc.

The following is a list of the prizes offered to the pupils of the Hartland schools. This list is small and any additional prizes will be greatly appreciated by both pupils and teachers.
The Women's Institute has offered $11 ($1 in each grade) to be used as follows—

Grade I and II Highest General Standing.

Grade III, IV, and V, Greatest improvement in arithmetic.

Grade VI, Highest average.

Grade VII, Greatest improvement in arithmetic.

Grade VIII, Highest average.

Grade IX, X, and XI, Greatest improvement in arithmetic.

M. L. Hayward offers a prize of $5 for the best composition on "Local History." A second prize will be given if it is deserved.

E. C. Morgan offers $5 for the highest mark in Mathematics in the High School.

Fred. W. Smith offers $5 for the greatest general advancement in Grades VI and VIII.

Attendance prizes will be given as usual by the School Board.

The Observer silver medal for English Literature will be given as usual.

CANADIAN POTATO GROWERS ORGANIZE

Winnipeg, March 10.—The potato growers in the locality of Winnipeg have formed an association and will in future grade their potatoes similar to the system in vogue in Minnesota.
Every year large quantities of Minnesota products are sold here because of the grading and local growers have to meet this trade under the new system. This is the first move made in Manitoba to grade potatoes either by growers or seller. At present ungraded potatoes are selling at 25 and 35c a bushel to the produce dealers.
There are immense quantities of potatoes in Manitoba awaiting the warmer weather and the spring trade.

IN MEMORY

ter Hildagard Cowan, who departed

Dearest Hilda, how we miss thee As the months glide swiftly past, But we hope someday to meet you And each other's hands to clasp.
We miss you in our home, dear Hilda, When we are all together,
But we would not wish you back again For we know God loves you better.
Mr. and Mrs. Henslie Cowan Vera and Margaret, Sisters.
