Labor Man Protests Against Minister's Ruling.

Amendment to Increase Business Exemption Defeated.

Men on Assessment Roll a Owner of Wife's Property.

(Special Wire to the Times.)

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 25 .- Mr. Allan rous protest against one of Hon. J. Hanna's rulings in the Assess ent Committee at the Parliament uildings this morning. Mr. W. M. utham and Julian Sale were on hand with an amendment to the Asser Act, which was practically that argued at length by Mr. William Douglass two days ago. It advocated practically the principles of single tax.

The committee with Mr. Hanna at its was most unwilling to re-ope much vexed question.

"Have you any new arguments on the subject?" asked Mr. Hanna.

"I have made a long study of it," asid Mr. Sale, "I shall be delighted to answer any questions."

"We have discussed this and it was closed," said the chairman.

"When?" demanded Mr. Studholme, getting to his feet.
"This question

"This question was never properly settled by this committee," retorted Mr.

"Well, the question is settled."

"Well, the question is settled."
"Then I protest against this method procedure: that's all."
"Nonsense. Your objection is noted. owever," said the chairman.
The amendment to increase the exemption in business assessments from $100 constant and other clauses relative. The amendment to increase the exemption in business assessments from $100 to $250 was lost. Other clauses relative to business taxation were thrown out as too radical. By a vote of 13 to 9 the committee decided to retain the present system of separate assessment for buildings and real property.

A proposal to strike out the subsection which allows a husband's name to appear on the roll as owner of property.

BLAMES IT ON STARVATION.

Pathetic Case of Henry T. Clute, an Old Man.

Unconscious to all the interest being manifested in him-and to everything else, Henry T. Clute, over 80 years of age, lies in one of the public wards at the City Hospital. Before another day dawns the curtain will probably fall, the doctors say, on his life and he will cross the bar to the Great Beyond.

On Monday morning he was found unconscious in his room at 134 John street north, by Mrs. Liberty, and she, assuming his condition was serious, hastily called Dr. McLoughlin, who found that the old man had had a serious of apoplexy, and ordered his removal to the City Hospital, where he has since been unconscious.

The hospital authorities are desirou of obtaining some information ing Mr. Clute.
Since Monday able doctors

ing Mr. Clute.
Since Monday able doctors and tender hearted nurses have fought valiantly against the grim monster. Many people have called at the hospital asking to see the old man.

This morning a kind hearted woman called, and the tears welled up in her eyes as she tenderly pinned a dark blood red carnation on the pillow beside the sick man's head.

The story surrounding the old man blood red carnation on the pillow beside the sick man's head.

The story surrounding the old man seems almost incredible. Mrs. Liberty attributes his sickness to starvation. For some time he has roomed with her, and often she has suspected that he has had insufficient food. Repeatedly she has asked him to have something to eat, but each time he emphatically declared he was well fed, though she attributed his declarations to an innate spirit of independence and pride, for it is assumed that old Mr. Clute once was in better circumstances, judging by his refined speech and deportment. Everyone who knew him speaks highly of him. He has been in the city for about six years, coming here from Belleville or Napanee. For about three years he lived with Mr. F. Howe, who kept a restaurant on Merrick street.

This morning Mr. Howe received a letter from the Mayor of Whithy. Ont.

JOY CARNIVAL.

For the first time a "joy" carnival was held at the Britannia roller tink last evening, and proved enjoyable for one of the largest crowds of the season. Every skater was presented with a souvenir in the form of a noise-making instrument, and what happened can be better imagined than described. Lomas' orchestra was in attendance.

HOOKWORM DIVORCE

San Francisco, Nov. 25 .- Judge San Francisco, Nov.
Graham has divorced Anita Coover from David R. Coover. The hookworm was the cause. "My husband was dull, stupid, lazy languid, slow," said Mrs. Coover "He must have been a victim of the hookworm," said the court.

Mrs. Coover expressed doubt as to this diagnosis, but Judge Graham stuck to his opinion, and granted the decree.

DAVID BURN'S MILLIONS.

Letters of Contradictory Nature Received In Toronto.

Toronto Telegram: Mr. David Burn who was David Kidd-with Mrs. Kidd and their son, have left Toronto for Australia, where they have gone to claim some $1,400,000, as friends say.

"I understand that some one has made an advance of $2,000 or $3,000 to Mr. Burn, some friend of his here in the city," said a man this morning, who thinks that David Burn is ing, who thinks that David Burn is going to be a millionaire.

David Kidd is the lame evangelist

David Kidd is the lame evangelist and tea merchant who announced a year ago that an Australian millionaire, W. G. Burn, had left him a huge sum of money with which to endow a home for unfortunate women here, in return for the Kidds having rescued Lucy Burn from a downward path in Chicago. Last July a letter was written from here to the chief of police of Melbourne, Australia, in an effort to ascertain how much was known there ten from nere to the chief of ponce of Melbourne, Australia, in an effort to ascertain how much was known there of this W. G. Burn. A reply was received to-day in which it was said that no millionaire of that name had died in Melbourne or in the state, and containing the information also that a street address given as that of the Burn's was incorrect.

"I am perfectly satisfied as to the genuineness of the legacy left to David Kidd," said a gentleman to-day. "I have seen a letter from the Attorney-General of Australia, in which he says that the estate is valued at some $8,000,000."

David Kidd changed his name to David Kidd changed his name to David Burn under the terms of the will be showed here. The gentleman above quoted said that Burn would receive in all for his own personal use about $1.400.000, with $125.000 to build the memorial spoken of.

SIR ARTHUR

Is a Cousin of A. M. D. and Archdale Wilson.

Admiral Sir Arthur Wilson, who has just been appointed head of Britain's paval administration, succeeding Sir John Fisher, the first sea lord of the admiralty, has relatives in Hamilton who are very naturally quite proud of the distinction which he has won. Sir Arthur is a cousin of Mr. A. McDonald Wilson, and also of Mr. Archdale Wilson, of this city.

Sir Arthur, who is a man of sixty six, has had practical experience of al phases of life in the royal navy. As: little middy twelve years old he fough in the Crimea. He was one of the heroe of the naval brigade in the Egyptian war and Soudan campaign, at there the Victoria Cross. In became comptroller of the navy, he that office till 1901.
