

SPRIT OF LATEST DESPACHES.

Chapman it is said will resign. Healey and Walsh are on trial. Olga the youngest daughter of the King of Greece is dead.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

This was Thanksgiving day, and the people of the Dominion had great reason to be thankful to the Giver of all good things for his manifold favors during the year.

We had a lengthy article under the above caption but had to suppress it for want of space.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Local Government is in session at Fredericton.

The Opposition now have neither a policy nor a leader. One portion of the party repudiates Blake the other repudiates Mackenzie.

Beyond question Messrs. Lawlor and Goggin have been illegally elected. They therefore do not represent us; and Chatham stands today without councillors.

The Canadian Ministers are getting no end of banquets in their favour through the Upper Provinces. The country has entered on an era of prosperity and the people feel it.

At the next election the following committees will send supporters of the Government to the Commons, beside those already there. York, St. John, Charlotte, Sunbury, Westmorland, Northumberland, Gloucester. The Government will have decided gains through the other provinces as well.

CHAMPIONING THE GOVERNMENT'S ENEMIES.

If the Advocate continue to throw open its columns to Mr. Collector Ferguson and other bitter enemies of the Government, it will fix the impression surely that it has "turned over." Mr. Ferguson's desertion of his party and his gross mismanagement of office is bad enough—worse still is it for a reputed Conservative journal then to throw open its columns for the excuses of either him or his friends.

THE PACE OF PROSPERITY.

The downfall of the country was predicted by leading Grits as a result of the National Policy. Even the stupid and illiterate ones foretold blue ruin. For example Mr. Jabez Snowball said the N.P. would ruin the lumber trade of Northumberland. Our readers know all about that. And here is further proof from the port of Newcastle for October just passed. Notice the comparison with October of last year—and then you have the rate at which "this country is going to the dogs."

Table with columns for IMPORTS FOR OCTOBER, DUTY, and VALUE. Rows show data for 1879 and 1880.

Here it will be seen First that the exports for October past more than doubled the exports for October 1879; Second, that the imports for October past have more than doubled the imports for October 1879—whereas the amount of duty for the past month has been far, and far less in proportion. This shows we are better able to import as the Policy progresses; and that each year we import less dutiable and more home made goods. Peruse the table for yourselves.

ST. JOHN. In St. John the Custom receipts for October past were $96,515.97. For October of last year they were JUST TWENTY EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS LESS—showing precisely how the City of St. John is going to the dogs.

MARSHALL Bazaine still continues to write to the newspapers denying his death; but many think he is only trying to deceive the public.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

YESTERDAY was a great day in the neighboring Republic. The presidential election was held, and though the President has not been elected, the result is seen, and only wants a formality to put him in the White House. As American politics to the most of our provincial people, are as tangled as the Sphinx' riddle, the following explanation may help them somewhat to see into the system. Yesterday the people of the Union, voted for the election of the Electors of the President. Each State is entitled to so many electors; New York for example having 35—the number for the 38 States is 369. These Electors were elected by the people to-day and they will meet the first Wednesday in December to record their vote for president. A majority of these voters elects the President. But the vote goes in a way that to us seems queer; more than that quite unfair. Suppose out of the 35 Electors for New York State, 18 voted Garfield, the solid 35 would be recorded for the same side as the 18. In other words each State goes solid to one side or the other. In this way Tilden at last election lost the election, though by throwing all the states together and counting the individual pros and cons he had a fine majority. On the second Wednesday in February the result will be officially declared.

We this afternoon received the following despatch from New York. (Special to STAR.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. A Waterloo defeat for the Democrats. Garfield elected. New York gives Garfield 40,000 majority. Rhode Island, New Jersey, and Connecticut have all gone Republican.

This then is a great day of jubilation through the Republican ranks all over the Union. We also received the following despatch this afternoon from New York. (Special to STAR.)

A number in Chatham and Newcastle will be pleased to learn that R. D. Williams—who accompanies T. D. Adams to Miranicuti on his summer visits, has been elected to the New York State Legislature by over 1,000 majority.

CROWN LAND SALES AT FREDERICTON.

THE following special despatch to the STAR from Fredericton gives particulars of the Crown Land sales held there yesterday:—

FREDERICTON, Nov. 3.

Sale came off yesterday; over $12,000 was realized. The competition was lively, Richards holding the fort. Sales commenced at 12 o'clock and were as follows:—2,000 acres in Westgouche, 10 lots in all, bid off in the name of Joseph Myhrall at from $1.55 to $2.96 per acre; 10,000 acres in the same county purchased by William Richards from $2.00 to $2.46 per acre; 800 acres in Caled Settlement, Kent County, 10 lots altogether bought by Geo. McLeod at from $1 to $2.01 per acre; 700 acres on Bass River, Kent County, bid in the name of J. B. Winslow at from $1.30 to $1.41 per acre; 800 acres in Londonberry, St. John County at $1 per acre. The prices realized it will be observed are most of them largely in advance of the Government upset prices, $1.00 per acre.

From this it will be seen that the prospects for the timber trade the coming year, are better than for a long time before. Entered as we have into a better era, speculators have confidence, and open their purses freely. The light of the new day is shining.

THE FIRST CHURCH AT NEPISIGUIT.

THE exertions of the French Jesuits in an evil and licentious age to spread the blessing of religion and civilization among the savage tribes of Canada will be remembered by the world while undimmed courage and unexampled self-devotion present any merits in the eyes of the human race. The first among this devoted band was Edmund Masse a native of the city of Lyons, who like the great Apostle of the Gentiles disdained not to labour with his own hands since in company with his companion Pierre Biart also one of the society of Jesus, he built a little vessel in order to obtain a supply of fish for the faithful people among whom he dwelt. His biographer says of him "He steered so happily that he hath at length arrived notwithstanding every tempest at the haven of a glorious eternity." Three years prior to his death (1646.) Father Andre Richard, one of the best Jesuits who had been sent to Acadia, applied himself most diligently to the acquisition of the Mic Mac language, and interested himself so much in their behalf that they became very much attached to him and he together with his co-workers, Father Lyonne and De la Place laid the foundation of a small church near where Batnurst now stands. The Abbe de la Magdelaine of "La Sainte Chapelle," in Paris wishing to co-operate in the conversion of the Indians, provided these good fathers with means to build a habitation in the neighborhood, at the same time strongly recommending them to the care and protection of the Miscou Company.

THE Newcastle Musical Company will be the best that has ever appeared in Chatham. Don't forget to-morrow night.

A WORD TO CHATHAM.

We give advice in another column which we hope will not go unheeded. It is that a properly equipped line of ferry boats be put upon our streets at early spring, and be run through the town till navigation closes in the fall. Mr. Goggin ought to write a letter to Venice and get some of the Doge's Bye-Laws, as such would be invaluable in this emergency. In Venice now no one would think of crossing the streets without a boat; and when young ladies go out to make their calls, they take their dainty little gondola and paddle from door to door. Here they are obliged to wade along, or wrangle through the mud. If we expect to be equal with the times we must shake off our old customs and be hip and doing. Let us first have the scoops then beyond doubt, the ladies will soon follow with dainty little paddle boats.

CORRUPTION AT THE POLLS.

It is said Oxford, G. B., will be disfranchised because of the shameful corruption which existed there during the last election. The sum of £8,000 was paid out to beat Sir William Harcourt. It is not quite as bad as that in Canada, though the "purchasing" business is carried on to a much meaner scale. If a man in some parts of Canada has groceries, no matter what their quality, he can buy his way into the Commons, and it doesn't matter at all about his brains or his grammar. In our own country we have a proof of this in Mr. Snowball, who bought his way into Parliament with pork and maces.

SARA BERNHARDT.

SARA Bernhardt has arrived in New York, and the newspapers are going crazy about her. She brought over 300 pairs of gloves, 75 pairs of boots less than 2's; and has some dresses which cost her from $2,000 to $3,000 each. She was delighted with Booth's theatre, but did not say much about it; as it is peculiar to her to be unable to speak when she is too full of enthusiasm. Her wardrobe is now on exhibition in New York, and Sara's arrival is almost as great a sensation as the Presidential election. Numbers of people it is said will make a pilgrimage from all parts of the continent to see her—and we learn the Telegraph's editor will be one of the number.

It was really too bad that a man like Mr. Forbes could only get a "half hour" here for such a lecture as he gave. We hope when the next lecturer comes, he will at least fall into decent hands; and have his business better managed. Lecturers coming to strange places always consult some town guide, or book like Geo. Rowell's directory. In visiting Chatham this is what Mr. Forbes did; and Rowell's book is published only once a year. Mr. Forbes, consulting it a month ago, could only get the instruction from it which has proved so fatal to his interests here.

LORD BYRON did not write all his impassioned songs about Greece for nothing. We learn by some of our exchanges lately, fifty-seven tons of Greek marble have been delivered in London, free of all charges, by the Greek Government, for the Byron pedestal.

THE MINSTRELS in the Hall to-morrow evening.

Healy's Arrest

There is great excitement at Cork, Ireland, in connexion with Healy's arrest. Indignation meetings are to be held by the farmers of the neighborhood, who are indignant with Mr. Barrett, the agent, who is suspected of having forced Mr. Manning, the agent, to swear information against Healy. The police guard Barrett's house, and he carries his rifle with him wherever he goes. The word reported to have been used by Mr. Healy are, "If you don't give up the Land League will visit you."

The following is the warrant on which Mr. Healy was arrested; "The Queen at the prosecution of sub-inspector Kennedy against J. M. Healy; whereas complaint has been made on oath and writing that whereas the complainant believing that on the 18th day of October said defendant did unlawfully attempt by threats and menace to compel Cornelius Manning to quit his farm at Cohn and did also deliver to said Cornelius Manning a message threatening him with injury and destruction unless he gave up said farm, this is to command you to arrest said Timothy M. Healy and bring him before me or any other justice of said court." A warrant is also out for the arrest of J. B. Walsh who was Healy's companion.

The Situation in Afghanistan

All the purely Bombay troops have been peremptorily recalled from Candahar, except two infantry and one cavalry regiment. The future garrison is to be the 7th, 11th, 15th and 63rd British, the 13th Lancers, three regiments Bengal infantry, 5th and 9th Bombay, and five batteries of artillery. Macpherson's brigade marches immediately by regiment to Sibi.

The India office has received the following telegram from the Viceroy, dated Monday:—"Roberts telegraphs from Quetta that, owing to the reports of Murees and Bagtis collected to raid on the Scind frontier, a small force under Colonel Norman has been ordered to Sibi to strengthen the frontier posts and protect the railway."

A Candahar despatch says:—"A caravan on its way down with merchandise from Herat has been looted between Girish and Farrak; the result will be to arrest all trade from the north. Owing to the uncertainty as to the future, and the rumors of the intention of Ayob to make a fresh attack upon us, the people in this neighborhood are not sowing their land."

From several sources confirmation arrives of the statement that a general tribal rising will take place in the winter. The Zemindar sirdars have forbidden all supplies to leave the country for Candahar under the penalty of death for disobedience of the order. The great trading Kafilas, which annually go up to Herat, left a few days ago, but has returned, the reports of the unsettled state of the country beyond the Helmund having deterred them from continuing their journey. The Barukzais are reported as leaving Argawan to join the faction gathering at Farrak.

Two import sirdars have arrived in Candahar from Suistan. Their ostensible object is to pay their respects to the Resident; their real motive in coming being to obtain protection, as they are known to be hospitable to Ayob. The fanatical attacks of Ghazis on British officers and men have again commenced. General Phayre's force number in all 7,638. The European regiments are weak, owing to the amount of sickness among the young soldiers. Among the native troops the war is unpopular. No recruits are joining in India. The guns captured from Ayob are being sent down to the Panjab. The departure of the brigade for the Helmund has been delayed, owing to the want of transport.

British Politics.

A series of meetings, inaugurated by the Lambeth Patriotic Association, are being held in that borough, to express indignation at the foreign policy of Her Majesty's Government. At Wall worth and in Pecham resolutions were carried, condemnatory of the foreign policy pursued by the Government, as being inconsistent with Liberal professions prior to the General election, and that hostile measures ought not to be adopted without the sanction of Parliament. One of the speakers, Mr. G. S. Finnegan, replying to an observation which fell from some gentleman in the body of the hall, that the leaders of the Conservative party, by their silence, gave consent to the policy pursued, remarked that the Conservative leaders did not require dictation as to their mode of procedure from the Radicals; that they knew too well that they had only to give Mr. Gladstone rope enough and the inevitable result would follow. Mr. G. S. Finnegan, as an Irishman and elector of Lambeth, is taking a prominent position in political affairs in London, and is likely to rival his father, Mr. E. S. Finnegan, who has done such good service for the Conservative cause in the North of Ireland.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Revolt in South Africa.

LONDON, Nov. 3.

Office intelligence has been received in London from South Africa that the Tambookie tribe have openly joined the rebel Basutos. The Tambookie tribe number about 98,000. They have been greatly disturbed by the disarmament question, and their rebellion considerably increases the area of the war. The encounter between Therodoli and Captain Carrington's column has been officially confirmed. Masapha is reported to have made a raid upon a village below his stronghold but otherwise he remains quiet. Sir George Colley has returned to Maritzburg.

CABLE BRIEFS.

The excitement over the Land League agitation has been still further intensified in the county of Meath by preparation on the part of the authorities to billet the military on the public houses.

A notice has been posted on the Balla Court House threatening the life of any one who shall visit the rent office of the estate of the late Lord Mountmorres within the next three months for the purpose of making any payment.

The Queen has placed apartments in Hampton Court Palace at the disposal of Lady Mountmorres, the widow of the nobleman who was recently killed in Ireland. Great anxiety exists in London in official circles, regarding the state of affairs in South Africa. Telegraphic communications is only open to Durban and the lines in the Orange Free States have been abandoned; there is no news from Cape Town.

A despatch to the Times from Dublin says that between Templemore and Thurles signal flashes, on the most approved military system, are carried on nightly, and answered by flashes from various points on the hills. There appears to be quite a system of communication by such signals and flashes which is generally considered ominous of mischief.

A Constantinople telegram says that the whole of Bulgaria, Roumelia, Greece and Montenegro is at this moment on loaded mine, which may explode at any moment; whatever pacific solution may be arrived at, it must inevitably burst.

About an hour after the courier had announced the cessation of Dulcigno, in Constantinople, he was assassinated.

Healy's arrest and trial creates a great sensation in Ireland.

Large forces of police and soldiery are being drafted to the disturbed districts in Ireland. Gladstone's Government grows more unpopular by the hour.

DIED.

On Monday morning 11th ult. MARY ALBERTA aged 16 months. On Monday morning last, HENRIETTA JESSETTE aged 4 months, of malignant whooping cough. Children of John Gregory and Jean C. Larton. Ottawa Citizen please copy.

NOTICE.

DR. McDONALD, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE in Sutherland & Creighton's Building, next to Mr. James Davidson's—opposite Mr. Joseph Hayes Store. NEWCASTLE, N. B. September 17, 1880.—ly

JOHN R. MALTBY ATTORNEY AT LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC, Conveyancer, &c. &c.

OFFICE—Over the store of James Fish, Esq., Commercial Wharf. NEWCASTLE N. B. Sept. 1, 1880.

LOCAL MATTER.

Thanks. We have to thank Captain Lawlor Newcastle for late papers which he sent us from Plymouth, G. B.

Collisions.

The barques "Foscole" and "Natum" ran into each other near Newcastle on Monday. The latter ship sustains much damage to her rigging.

Requires Fixing.

That deplorable sidewalk nearly opposite Harper's Corner; also that opposite the Methodist Church.

Snack Thieves.

Some contemptible thieves aboard the Gladiator lying at Muirhead wharf Saturday night, and stole about 90 lbs. of beef. The police think it "a shame."

Church Festivals.

Monday being the Feast of all Saints it was kept holy by the faithful of Catholic Church. There was high mass at 11 o'clock in the Cathedral, Lordship Bishop Rodgers officiating.

New Tin Shop.

Messrs Woods & McEwin have opened a new tin shop in McCulloch building, Water Street. There is a plenty of room for men of enterprising ability. Mr. Woods himself is to be a first class workman. We wish the new firm every success.

Personal.

Mr. Samuel Adams of Bathurst returned from Colorado. He returns there in a few days to look after valuable mining property. Mr. Adams intends putting up a mill on the Kogouche.

The Surveyor General left Newcastle Monday night for Fredericton. He returns about Saturday.

Rev. Father Dixon of Newcastle in town to-day.

That Shed.

Our readers no doubt, do not forget that half a dozen times, if not more, was predicted in the STAR that an old shed standing or impending, would fall so near the town; and that children play near it ran great risk of being killed. The goodly commissioner paid no heed to the matter; and just as stated, one of the last breezes down the old affair, prostrating it across the sidewalk. This town is made most scandalously.

Death of a Captain at Newcastle.

The unfortunate captain (Ronett) the French barque Soudary on Friday night dropped down and shortly died, on board his ship which lay Rosebank. There are several stories to the cause of his death, but as good can come of publishing them, better they should be left rest. Dr. Lane attended the unfortunate man, and did nothing to relieve him. A flag flew half mast upon his ship the funeral. He was a Roman Catholic through life he have heard—but buried in St. Andrew's cemetery masonic honors.

Hallow E'en.

If there is any latent fun in a county Hallow E'en generally brings it. A young fellow who has puss'd neighbor's fence or shop shutters, or other evening in the year without doing the same, on Hallow E'en will find with a hundred things sport in his eyes, pulling down the one of ging off the other. Hens, chickens, ducks are special victims for annihilation on that evening, and while any festivals may be forgotten, Hallow never escapes the most needless Saturday and Sunday evenings last both celebrated by treating down forces, and uprooting old sidewalk. Even they visited Strawgland's back took out his cart, stripped it of its wares and left the trunk in a helpless con on the street.

Street Crossings—A Proposition.

We would recommend our bright Mr. Goggin, at the next Witenage to see that a lot of acorns be provided Chatham's streets. This wading the streets after a rain storm has gone now about long enough, and get who pay their taxes ought to get a thing better in return. To each or punt, a ferryman should be appointed with paddles and poles. Ferry should then run from Snow across to McLaughlans, and at hundred yards up and down within town limits. That there might be fear of the scows ever coming to by running ground on the streets, steam mud scow St. Lawrence might employed to steam up and down streets once a month, and take the out of it. Bridges or crossing course, Mr. Goggin would deem no because the first fresh on Water they would be carried away.

THE CORNERS.

Mr. Goggin ought also to ask another favor; and that is, that the fellows who occupy the corners, block up the sidewalks; should be provided with recreation of some kind each corner there should be a mug of tobacco and a box of pipes; a of cards, and a bottle of rum. It is the duty of the police to see the same was replenished at certain of the day. And we have confidence in our police to believe would most faithfully perform that that rarely indeed would they be away from their post.
