Bennett.

John Snyder has now got nicely settled on his new farm on the Maitland.
Traffic will soon be dangerous on the Maitland on account of surveyor's stakes along the road.

The water has again risen to such a height as to impede traffic between here and Holmesville.

There were quite a number from this section attending court this week, giving evidence in regard to the line between Habel and Harris.

Mr. Jackson, who has been holding special meetings at the Evangelical church, on the first concession, has departed for his home. He preached his farewell sermon Thursday evening last.
Much good has been done.

Annals.

Alex. McCabe sold a three year old mare for over $300.

Mrs. Young has gone to Toronto to purchase her spring stock.

The subscription list for the spring show has now reached over $100.

Wm. Neaves sold his black team to Robert Mead for a good round sum.

Harry Beadle has sold his imported stallion. He will be taken into Turn-berry.

Alex. McKenzie has not here, and has started to dispense horse trappings to the multitude.

The river broke up on Sunday night, but owing to the ice being thin it did not jam as much as other years.

The Good Templars intend repairing and enlarging their hall. They gave an entertainment on Thursday evening.

Three Angus of Goderich, gave an entertainment on Thursday evening of last week with a sociation, which was poorly attended.

We have a party of itinerant merchants from Exeter here now peking up the old change under the impression that they are giving great bargains—in their minds.

Paramount.

Dan Clark, able to be about again, after two weeks' serious illness.

Peter Murdoch, of Amherst, is enjoying the company of our fair ones in this place.

TRAD OF LEAF. A sheep belonging to A. Smith committed suicide last week by drowning.

Miss Jennie Green, of Wroxeter, is enjoying a couple of weeks of city life with us now. A change of this kind has a tendency to rub off the dull monotony of country life.

Owing to the miserable state of roads and weather on Friday night last the executive committee of Dewdrop council decided to postpone their concert till sometime about the 24th of May. But in the evening a large crowd gathered, and not wishing to cause any disappointment an open entertainment was given in the hall, to a very appreciative audience of about 100. The programme was of an excellent character. The choir was ably filled by J. G. Murdoch, of Lochalah. The singing was furnished by Messrs. Ellis, Lockner, and Gibson, Lochalah, and Miss Jennie Green, Wroxeter, ably assisted by our own local talent. Excellent recitations were given by Misses Maggie Murray and Sarah McKenzie, and Messrs. Wm. McIntosh, D. McKenzie, and H. Horton. Instrumental music on the violin was furnished by Neil Campbell and Angus Sutherland, accompanied by Miss Martha Murdoch on the organ. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the national anthem.

Lochalah.

Most of the young men who left this district last fall for the Michigan lumber woods have returned. They all look as though shanty life had agreed with them.

Mrs. McKee, an old lady ninety-seven years of age, and relict of the late Malcolm McKee, quietly passed away on Saturday night, 19th inst., at 12 o'clock.
She was a native of Rosshire, Scotland, and, with her husband, was one of the first settlers in this district. For the past twenty-five years she had been residing with her grandson, Duncan Finlayson. Her descendants, comprising three if not four generations, are quite numerous, and are to be found in various parts of the globe. The remains were interred in the Lochalah burying ground on Tuesday.

Last Monday evening, as Peter Mc-Intosh was returning from Lucknow, he met three young men in a cutter, who were either under the influence of liquor or are naturally lacking in decency and humanity; for while passing him, one of them, who had a long whip, struck his horse two or three unmerciful blows, and that without any provocation whatever. The roughs then made off as fast as their horses could take them. To say that Peter was angry is only a mild way of expressing it, for he would just as soon they had struck himself as his horse. It being a bright, clear night, and considerable snow having fallen, he had no difficulty in tracking them. He found the last place at which they had called, and found out that they reside in Lucknow. He has secured their names, and we may here more about it shortly.

Miss Maggie McLennan left this place on Friday last to sojourn for a time in the city of London.
