LAND AND SEA ATTACKS ON TURKEY.

LONDON, Yesterday. The Daily Mail's Athens correspondent says: "The new Dardanelles attack by the allies has begun with the landing of troops at three points, first at Enos, second on Suvia Peninsula, West of Gallipoli Peninsula, and third on Bulair Isthmus. The object of these troops is the capture of the Turkish forts on the Gallipoli Peninsula, and to prevent the sending of Turkish reinforcements across the Isthmus. The troops have captured Enos and the passage from that port into the interior is not expected to offer difficulties. Meanwhile the fleet on Thursday renewed its vigorous bombardment of the Straits and of various points on the West of Gallipoli."

MORE VOLUNTEERS WANTED.

LONDON, To-day. Addressing a recruiting meeting on Sunday, Dr. Thomas MacNamara, Parliamentary Secretary of the Admiralty, said: "If you assume that Earl Ritchie is not only gratified but satisfied with the response to call for volunteers, you fall into a very serious error. We want more men. We want them now so that they may be properly trained to play an effective part in the struggle."

GREAT BATTLE AT LANGEMARK.

LONDON, To-day. While the semi-official statement issued at Paris last night seeks to minimize the importance of the action at Langemark, accusing the Germans of magnifying their success in order to influence neutral countries, London attaches the greatest importance to these operations. The Times military correspondent this morning says: "Some think that will be the greatest battle of the war, but the Allies are well prepared to meet any German offensive in this quarter, and it need not be considered that there is most danger where there is most noise. The Times correspondent in Northern France says: The second battle of Flanders has begun. The enemy has been long carefully preparing for it and was biding his time, waiting for a favorable moment to develop his attack, but our unexpected capture of Hill 60 had the double effect of upsetting the enemy's calculations and compelling him to postpone, if not to abandon, his contemplated attack on the British position and to disclose his hand in a premature attack on the French lines to the north. The trawler Envoy, supposed to be sunk by a German submarine, was brought safely into Tynes yesterday."

Fire at Bay Roberts.

As already briefly alluded to, a fire occurred on Friday last at Bay Roberts, doing considerable damage. The fire broke out at 2 o'clock in the morning in the dry goods store of Mr. G. Hierlihy, and before it was discovered had reached serious proportions. The blaze got beyond control and completely destroyed the building and its contents. The business section was in danger, but fortunately only one store ignited and fared off with but slight damage. The building occupied by Mr. Hierlihy was owned by Mr. H. G. Bursell, of the Public Treasury Office, this city. Both building and stock were only partially covered with insurance, the former for $200, we learn. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Fox Cases.

Two important and much talked of fox cases will be heard before His Honor Judge Knight at three o'clock this afternoon. The cases are Const. Cramm vs. Mr. H. D. Reid for a breach of the Fox Act on October 24th last, having foxes in his possession during close season, and Const. Cramm vs. Mr. D. P. Pierce for a breach of the Fox Act on October 19th last, purchasing foxes in close season.

Here and There.

LOCAL EXPRESS.—A local express from Port au Basques with the Kyle's mail landed there on Saturday last is due in the city at 5 p.m. to-day.

CIRCUIT COURT RETURNS.—Mr. Justice Johnson and officials of the Supreme Court, together with several of the city lawyers, arrived in town from Harbor Grace by Saturday night's train. While the court was in session at Harbor Grace evidence was taken in connection with a fishery case that is now pending.

On Many A Desk

broods the blighting shadow of the tea or coffee pot.

Many men and women with bright prospects find themselves handicapped by the reactionary effects of tea or coffee with its subtle, habit-forming drug, caffeine.

Dull headaches, biliousness, heart-flutter, nervousness, sleeplessness—these are some of the signs of caffeine poisoning that puts a crimp in efficiency, and spells suffering and often failure for thousands of tea or coffee drinkers.

There's a simple, easy way out—quit both tea and coffee, and use the pure food-drink

POSTUM

This delicious beverage, made from prime wheat roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses, contains only the rich cereal nourishment—no caffeine—no harmful substance whatever.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—has to be well boiled, 15c and 25c packages; Instant Postum—soluble—made instantly in a cup with hot water, adding cream and sugar to taste, 30c and 50c tins. Made according to directions, both kinds are equally delicious, and the cost per cup is about the same.

The Late Hon.

John B. Ayre.

The George Street Methodist Official and Trustee Board in United Session this 25th day of April, 1915: WHEREAS in the order of Divine Providence, our brother and fellow worker, the late Honourable John B. Ayre, has been called from earth's activities to put on immortality.

BE IT RESOLVED.—
(1) That these united Boards tender to his sorrowing widow and family the condolence of those who grieve with them in their sorrow and share with them in their loss.
(2) That we place on record an expression of the admiration and respect which the many talents and activities of the deceased have inspired in us while he lived, and intensified in us as we look back upon his life.
(3) That we record the sense of obligation with which we regard his memory in view of the eminent and talented service he rendered as organist for nearly forty years, as well as the munificent generosity and lively interest he displayed in all the activities of the Church he loved, the enlarged Church building and new organ being outstanding evidence of the same.
(4) That we give expression as united Boards and as individuals to the love and admiration with which we revere his memory because of the personal qualities which he displayed.

"A whiter soul, a fairer mind,
A life with purer course and aim,
A gentler eye, a voice more kind,
We may not look on earth to find."

(5) That these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of both Boards and copies be sent to Mrs. Ayre and to the Press.
On behalf of the Boards,
C. R. STEER,
Recording Steward.
St. John's, April 25, 1915.

THE THING TO DO.
Now go and spend some money tainted for pure white lead and linseed oil, and see your residence is painted, according to the rule of Hoyle. Your wife may have a new spring bonnet, imported and a d supremely smart, with beads and bugs and doodads on it, a triumph of the hat-smith's art; and you yourself may have new raincoat, glad rags that might adorn a king, suggesting you've received the payment for those gold bricks you sold this spring; your sons and daughters may be wearing a lot of togs that can't be beat, and you'll imagine folks declaring that you abide in Easy Street. But they will say to one another: "He puts his money on his back; he ought to hire a man and brother to paint his old disgraceful shack. With bogus pride his chest is swelling, he flaunts his gaudy rags all day, but the condition of his dwelling gives him and all his tribe away." Go, get a brush that's good and daub, a can of paint—I'll lend you mine—and paint your house and make it nobby, and help to make the village shine. Go, demonstrate that you're a dandy at boosting up the painter's trade, and men will say you are a dandy, and put you on the shoulderblade.

Household Notes
Bread and muffins, made with raisins and dates, are both wholesome and nutritious for grownups as well as children.
The flavor of boiled potatoes will be better if no water is poured off. Do not use more water than is necessary to cook them.
When putting away remnants of food, time and dishes are saved if the food is put in little pans ready for warming over.
One method of keeping a refrigerator in good order is to insist that milk bottles and all dishes that go in to it are wiped clean.
The swinging door between dining room and pantry should have a foot clamp so that the door will remain stationary if one wishes.
It is a great mistake to allow warm food to be put into the refrigerator. It not only melts the ice, but spoils the flavour of other foods.

DIED.
On Sunday morning, at the General Hospital, William Charles Vosey, aged 51 years, leaving a wife and 3 children, 2 brothers and 2 sisters to mourn their loss; funeral on Tuesday, at 2.30 p.m., from William Symonds, 25 William Street; friends may please accept this, the only intimation.
MARRIED.
On April 25th, at the R. C. Palace, by the Rev. Fr. McDermott, Helen Broderick to Thomas J. Dalton, both of this city.
