The

hest hockey seen at the Prince's this year was the unanimous opthe hundreds of fans who saw Mercy Convent and Methodist Colgirls play to a draw on Saturday The score was 2 goals to 2. Eddie ian had charge of the game and t look at all comfortable when he to send some of the fair hockeyto the fence for infringements of rules. There were really too many e for a girl's game. Perhaps, r, the referee was a little too d. He should have realized that the yers did not know so much about game as he did. The game started a fierce speed and both goalkeepers busily engaged in looking for puck and keeping their eyes on it they found it, in case it should into their respective nets. One nte before the end of the first per-Miss Mary Power (Mercy Convent) a run through and scored. The d period was a thrilling one and elegram reporter had to hang on is pulse so that it would not heat fast with excitement. Shortly afthe start, Miss Rose Berrigan scorfor the Mercy Convent and a ed up the first goal for the Meth-College. The third period openith excellent combination by both as and the fact that nearly all the ents of passes were off side did the least detract from the pretof the play.
